

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 25, 2017, Lawrence “Chip” Molloy, the Chief Financial Officer of Under Armour, Inc. (the “Company”), informed the Company of his intention to resign from his position as CFO due to personal reasons. The Company has appointed David E. Bergman, Senior Vice President, Corporate Finance, as acting Chief Financial Officer effective February 3, 2017. Mr. Bergman, age 44, will also assume the roles of principal financial and principal accounting officer of the Company. Mr. Molloy will remain with the Company in an advisory capacity to assist with the transition.

Mr. Bergman joined the Company in 2005 and has served in various Finance and Accounting leadership roles for the Company, including Corporate Controller from early 2006 to October 2014 and Vice President of Finance and Corporate Controller from November 2014 to January 2016. He assumed his current role as Senior Vice President, Corporate Finance in February 2016. Prior to joining the Company, Mr. Bergman worked as a C.P.A. within the audit and assurance practices at Ernst & Young LLP and Arthur Andersen LLP.
