NEWS RELEASE

On April 7, 2014, Solera National Bancorp, Inc. issued the following news release:

SOLERA NATIONAL BANCORP, INC. PROVIDES UPDATE REGARDING DISCUSSIONS WITH STOCKHOLDER

LAKEWOOD, Colo., April 7, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) - Solera National Bancorp, Inc. (OTCQB:SLRK) (the "Company," "Solera," or "we"), the holding company for Solera National Bank, today announced that it has had informal discussions with Michael Quagliano, a holder of approximately 23% of the Company's stock. As previously disclosed, Mr. Quagliano has notified the Company that he intends to nominate certain persons, including himself, for election as director at the Company's 2014 annual shareholders' meeting.

Mr. Quagliano continues to refuse to meet with representatives of the Company in person despite the Company's offer to meet at any time or place he chooses. However, he has recently had telephone conversations with the Company's CEO, John P. Carmichael. In an attempt to avoid a costly and disruptive proxy contest, Mr. Carmichael raised the possibility in those conversations of Mr. Quagliano receiving board representation approximately in proportion to his ownership in the Company. Mr. Quagliano categorically rejected any negotiated agreement on those terms, and has instead insisted on obtaining outright control of the Company for himself and his nominees despite holding less than a quarter of the outstanding stock. He has also declined to propose any transaction in which he would acquire the remaining outstanding stock. The Company's board of directors continues to believe that Mr. Quagliano's stated objective to seize control of the Company, and to do so without paying all shareholders a fair price, including a control premium, for their stock, is not in the best interests of the shareholders.
