HAMILTON, Bermuda - Maiden Holdings, Ltd. (NASDAQ: MHL) (“Maiden” or “the Company”) today reported second quarter 2016 net income attributable to Maiden common shareholders of $30.9 million or $0.39 per diluted common share compared to net income attributable to Maiden common shareholders of $20.5 million or $0.27 per diluted common share in the second quarter of 2015. Net operating earnings⁽¹⁾ were $28.4 million, or $0.37 per diluted common share compared with net operating earnings of $28.4 million, or $0.37 per diluted common share in the second quarter of 2015.

Commenting on the Company's results, Art Raschbaum, Chief Executive Officer of Maiden, said: “The second quarter reflects a continued focus on disciplined growth, improving our cost of capital and delivering value to our regional and specialty insurer clients. Notwithstanding a competitive operating environment and continued pressure on investment yields, our overall results reflect continued underwriting profitability and strong growth in book value while achieving an annualized return on common equity of 12.3% and an annualized operating return on common equity of 11.3%. This marks the 12th consecutive quarter of double digit operating returns. While revenue growth has moderated for our AmTrust Reinsurance segment versus a strong prior year quarter impacted by acquisitions, the Diversified Reinsurance segment growth continues to benefit primarily from the expansion of existing client relationships in the U.S. and our developing European capital solutions business. Going forward, earnings should benefit from investment of our large quarter-end cash balance and continued implementation of key strategic initiatives in the U.S. and Europe.”
