Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 5, 2017, Eagle Bancorp Montana, Inc. (“Eagle”) and Eagle’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Opportunity Bank of Montana, a Montana chartered commercial bank (“Opportunity Bank”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with TwinCo, Inc., a Montana corporation (“TwinCo”), and TwinCo’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Ruby Valley Bank, a Montana chartered commercial bank (the “Bank”). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, TwinCo will merge with and into Eagle, with Eagle continuing as the surviving corporation (the “Merger”).

Immediately following the effective time of the Merger, the Bank is expected to merge with and into Opportunity Bank, with Opportunity Bank surviving and continuing its corporate existence under the name “Opportunity Bank of Montana.”

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, upon completion of the Merger, each outstanding share of TwinCo common stock will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof: (1) a combination of $247.16 in cash and 11.1540 shares of Eagle common stock (the “Mixed Election Consideration”); (2) $449.38 in cash (the “Cash Election Consideration”); or (3) 24.7866 shares of Eagle common stock (the “Stock Election Consideration,” and together with the Cash Election Consideration and the Mixed Election Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”). Shares of TwinCo common stock with respect to which no election is made will receive the Mixed Election Consideration. The Merger Agreement contains customary proration procedures so that the aggregate amount of cash paid and shares of Eagle common stock issued in the Merger as a whole are equal to the total amount of cash and number of Eagle shares that would have been paid and issued if all TwinCo shareholders received the Mixed Election Consideration. The Merger Consideration is subject to adjustment if TwinCo’s “Adjusted Tangible Stockholders Equity” (as defined in the Merger Agreement) as of the last day of the month prior to the month in which the Merger is expected to occur is less than $13,400,000. If TwinCo’s Adjusted Tangible Stockholders Equity is in excess of $13,400,000, TwinCo may in its discretion declare and pay a special dividend in the amount of such excess. Each outstanding share of Eagle common stock will remain outstanding and be unaffected by the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both Eagle and TwinCo and each have agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants on the part of TwinCo relating to: (1) the conduct of TwinCo’s business during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger; (2) TwinCo’s obligation to convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote upon the approval of the Merger Agreement; and (3) subject to certain exceptions, the recommendation by the Board of Directors of TwinCo that TwinCo shareholders approve the Merger Agreement. TwinCo has also agreed: (1) not to solicit any alternative acquisition proposals; (2) subject to certain exceptions, not to enter into any discussions with respect to, or enter into any agreement concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, any alternative acquisition proposals; or (3) subject to certain exceptions, that TwinCo’s Board of Directors will not withdraw, modify or qualify in any manner its recommendation that TwinCo shareholders approve the Merger Agreement, including submitting the Merger Agreement to shareholders for approval without any recommendation.

Completion of the Merger is subject to certain customary conditions, including, among others: (1) approval of the Merger Agreement by the holders of two-thirds of TwinCo's outstanding common stock; (2) receipt of required regulatory approvals, solely in the case of Eagle's obligations, without the imposition of conditions or consequences that would have a material adverse effect on Eagle (measured on a scale relative to TwinCo); (3) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the completion of the Merger; (4) the effectiveness of the registration statement for the Eagle common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger; and (5) the quotation and listing of the Eagle common stock to be issued in the Merger on the Nasdaq Global Market. Each party's obligation to complete the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including: (1) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party; (2) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement; and (3) receipt by Eagle of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a "tax-free reorganization" within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for Eagle and TwinCo, as the case may be, applicable upon: (1) mutual consent; (2) a breach by the other party that is not or cannot be cured within 30 days' notice of such breach if such breach would result in a failure of the conditions to closing set forth in the Merger Agreement; (3) TwinCo's shareholder's failure to approve the Merger Agreement by the required vote; or (4) failure to complete the Merger by June 5, 2018 (subject to a three month extension exercisable by either party if all conditions have been met other than receipt of required regulatory approvals).

Eagle may also terminate the Merger Agreement: (1) upon denial of any required regulatory approval; (2) upon the TwinCo Board's withdrawal, qualification or modification of its recommendation that TwinCo shareholders approve the Merger Agreement; (3) if the TwinCo Board has adopted, approved, recommended, endorsed or otherwise declared advisable the adoption of any alternative acquisition proposal; (4) if TwinCo fails to substantially comply with its "no-shop" obligations under the Merger Agreement or its obligation to call, give notice of, convene and hold its shareholders meeting; (5) if holders of more than 5% in the aggregate of the outstanding shares of TwinCo common stock vote against the Merger Agreement and have given notice of their intention to exercise their dissenters' rights under Montana law; or (6) if (A) the average closing price of Eagle's common stock calculated in accordance with the Merger Agreement exceeds $20.85 per share, (B) Eagle's common stock outperforms a peer-group index (the Nasdaq Bank Index) by more than 15% and (C) Eagle does not elect to adjust the Merger Consideration by a formula-based amount.

TwinCo may also terminate the Merger Agreement if (A) the average closing price of Eagle's common stock calculated in accordance with the Merger Agreement is below $15.41 per share, (B) Eagle's common stock underperforms a peer-group index (the Nasdaq Bank Index) by more than 15% and (C) Eagle does not elect to adjust the Merger Consideration by a formula-based amount.

If either party terminates the Merger Agreement due to specified breaches of the Merger Agreement by the other party, the breaching party will be required to pay the non-breaching party a termination fee of $200,000. The Merger Agreement also provides that TwinCo must pay Eagle a break-up fee of $750,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference thereto. The Merger Agreement has been attached as an exhibit to this report in order to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other information about Eagle, TwinCo, or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties, or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Eagle, TwinCo or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties, and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Eagle.

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement, the directors and executive officers of TwinCo entered into company shareholder support agreements with Eagle pursuant to which such directors and executive officers have agreed, among other things, to vote their shares of TwinCo common stock in favor of the proposed transaction.
