Lamperd Less Lethal Receives Largest Order in Two Years

Direct Shipments to USA Granted, New Reloadable Smoke Grenades Introduced

SARNIA, ON--(Marketwired - February 6, 2017) - Lamperd Less Lethal, Inc. (OTC: LLLI) Has received a significant new purchase order from one of our distributors which is 140% larger than any order Lamperd has received in the past two years. This order has already been funded and product shipments will commence shortly. Additionally, as of January 11th the Canada Border Services Agency implemented a new procedure called eManifest. With this program Lamperd can now assure U.S. based customers of timely product deliveries. This method comes at a very opportune time as the need for Lamperd products in the large United States market has never been greater due to many high tension situations. Lamperd is preparing for a significantly U.S. increased order flow in 2017.

Lamperd is also introducing new products at this time. The new reloadable Lamperd Smoke Grenade is very effective for crowd control. These have a lightweight design, include a tracer flare and different color smoke options. Lamperd is the only manufacturer for this type of reloadable device. Lamperd also has designed and implemented a new 1.5 oz. Aerial Burst Pepper Spray Grenade which effectively controls everyone within an area of 200 sq. ft. for 20 minutes. There is not another one like this anywhere.

The Canadian Federal Correction System is currently using Lamperd 40mm Launchers and is planning for many more units to be deployed in its facilities. Globally, Lamperd is gaining a lot of interest in different NATO countries and we are preparing sales quotations on a number of products including ammunition orders for millions of rounds.
