CASTLE SEES CONTINUED SALES AND EARNINGS STRENGTH

FRANKLIN PARK, ILLINOIS, SEPTEMBER 15, 2004 A. M. CASTLE & CO. (AMEX: CAS), In a presentation today before the Roth/RedChip Resources Discovery Day Conference, G. Thomas McKane, Chairman and CEO of A. M. Castle & Co., stated, "The strength we saw in core markets during the first half of the year, continues into the second half. We expect the impact of price increases on the second half should be comparable to second quarter levels and, therefore, expect to close 2004 with a seasonally strong second half. He further stated, "Management forecasts that during 2005, core market strength will continue, and that aerospace and, oil and gas markets would show significant recovery. While no new metals price increases are anticipated for 2005, the carryover of price increases phased in during 2004 add significantly to 2005 sales volume. During the second quarter A. M. Castle & Co. reported earnings of 36¢ per share and year-over-year sales growth of 41% of which approximately one-half was due to higher material prices. Founded in 1890, A. M. Castle & Co. provides highly engineered materials and value-added services to a wide range of companies within the producer durable equipment sector of the economy. Its customer base includes many Fortune 500 companies as well as thousands of medium and smaller-sized firms spread across a wide spectrum of industries. Within its core metals business, it specializes in the distribution of carbon, alloy and stainless steels; nickel alloy, aluminum; titanium; copper and brass.
