On December 15, 2015, Churchill Downs Incorporated (“CDI”) issued an additional $300.0 million in aggregate principal amount of its 5.375% senior notes due 2021 (the “Additional Notes”) at an issue price of 101.000% in a private offering that is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). The Additional Notes are senior unsecured obligations of CDI and are guaranteed by each of CDI’s domestic subsidiaries (the “Guarantors”) that guarantee CDI’s senior secured credit facility.

The Additional Notes were issued as additional notes under the indenture, dated as of December 16, 2013, (the “Base Indenture”), by and among CDI, the guarantors party thereto, and US Bank National Association, as trustee (the “Trustee”), as amended and supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture, dated as of December 15, 2015 (the “First Supplemental Indenture” and, together with the Base Indenture, the “Indenture”), among the CDI, the Guarantors and the Trustee. In 2013, CDI issued $300.0 million aggregate principal amount of 5.375% senior notes due 2021 (the “Existing Notes”).

The interest payment dates are June 15 and December 15, commencing on June 15, 2016, CDI may redeem some or all of the Additional Notes, (together with the Existing Notes) with at any time prior to December 15, 2016, at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Additional Notes redeemed plus an applicable make-whole premium. On or after such date CDI may redeem some or all of the Additional Notes at redemption prices set forth in the Indenture. In addition, at any time prior to December 15, 2016, CDI may redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Additional Notes (together with the Existing Notes) at a redemption price equal to 105.375% of the principal amount thereof, with the net cash proceeds of one or more equity offerings provided that certain conditions are met.

The terms of the Indenture, among other things, limit the ability of CDI to incur additional debt and issue preferred stock; pay dividends or make other restricted payments; make certain investments; create liens; allow restrictions on the ability of certain of its subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other payments to it; sell assets; merge or consolidate with other entities; enter into transactions with affiliates; create or designate subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries.

Subject to certain limitations, in the event of a change of control triggering event (as defined in the Indenture), CDI will be required to make an offer to purchase the Notes at a price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Additional Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of repurchase.

The Indenture provides for customary events of default which include (subject in certain cases to customary grace and cure periods), among others, nonpayment of principal or interest; breach of other agreements in the Indenture; failure to pay certain other indebtedness; failure to pay certain final judgments; failure of certain guarantees to be enforceable; and certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency. Generally, if an event of default occurs, the Trustee or the holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding series of Additional Notes may declare all the Additional Notes of such series to be due and payable immediately.

The First Supplemental Indenture is filed as Exhibit 4.1 hereto and this description thereof is qualified by reference thereto.
