Item 1.01. Material Definitive Agreements.

On September 3, 2004, we entered into an agreement with David Grizzle, then our Senior Vice President Marketing Strategy and Corporate Development, amending his employment agreement to grant Mr. Grizzle a temporary leave of absence from employment with us in order to perform services for the government of the United States in Afghanistan (the "LOA"). During the LOA, Mr. Grizzle will continue to be considered our employee, but has resigned as an officer of the company and will not accrue service credit under the company's pension plan or his supplemental executive retirement plan. In addition, Mr. Grizzle forfeited certain awards under the company's Long Term Incentive and RSU Program and his participation in certain other incentive compensation programs will be suspended during the term of the LOA. The LOA was granted through December 31, 2005. Upon expiration of the LOA, Mr. Grizzle will be offered a position as a senior vice president of the company, with responsibilities to be determined at that time and at a salary equal to his salary when he started the LOA, less any reductions in base salary generally taken by senior officers of the company during the LOA.
