Atlantic Blue Trust Withdraws Alico Restructuring Proposal

LA BELLE, FL. (February 1, 2005) - Alico, Inc. (Nasdaq: ALCO), announced today that Atlantic Blue Trust, Inc., the holder of approximately 48% of the outstanding common stock of Alico, had withdrawn its request that Alico consider a restructuring of Alico and the advisability of combining Atlantic Blue Trust s operations with Alico. Atlantic Blue Trust s request was announced on August 26, 2004 and the board of directors of Alico had formed a special committee to review the request.

In its January 31, 2005 press release announcing the withdrawal, Atlantic Blue Trust stated that it had concluded that its interests as a shareholder of Alico, as well as those of all shareholders, would be best served at this time by permitting Alico s management and Board of Directors to focus on managing Alico s business and operations without the distraction of a possible restructuring. Atlantic Blue Trust stated that it remains committed to its investment in Alico and has no intention of selling its Alico common stock at current market prices or even at a substantially higher price.

Alico, Inc. is an agribusiness company operating in Central and Southwest Florida. The Company owns approximately 141,000 acres of land located in Collier, Hendry, Lee and Polk Counties. The Company is involved in various operations and activities including citrus fruit production, cattle ranching, sugarcane and sod production, and forestry. The Company also leases land for farming, cattle grazing, recreation, and oil exploration.
