Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Effective January 4, 2007 the Board of Directors ("Board") of Humana Inc. ("Humana" or the "Company") approved amendments to the Company's Bylaws to adopt a majority vote standard for uncontested elections of directors. Under Article I, Section 1.6 of the Bylaws, a director nominee will be elected if the number of votes cast for the nominee exceeds the number of votes cast against the nominee. In contested elections, those in which a shareholder has nominated a person for election to the board, the voting standard will continue to be a plurality of votes cast.

In conjunction with the adoption of the majority vote standard, the Board also adopted a policy, to be incorporated into the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, to require the Board to nominate for election only nominees who agree that, after they are elected to the Board, they will tender an irrevocable resignation conditioned on: (a) the failure to achieve the required vote at any future meeting at which they face election; and (b) the Board's acceptance of their resignation following that election. The policy will also apply to the filling of vacancies by the Board. The Nominating & Governance Committee will submit a recommendation for prompt consideration by the Board whether to accept the resignation. Any Director whose resignation is under consideration will, in the ordinary course, abstain from participating in any decision regarding that resignation.

In connection with the adoption of the majority vote standard, the Board also amended Article I, Section 1.10 of the Bylaws to require stockholder nominees for director election to notify the Company whether or not such nominees intend to tender the same type of resignation required of the Board's director nominees.

Further amendments to the Bylaws in Sections 2.5, 2.8 and 2.9 of Article II, pertaining to Vacancies, Resignations, and Removal, respectively, were made to ensure consistency with the majority vote standard and director resignation policy, as adopted.

The foregoing description of the amendments to Humana's Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the amended Bylaws, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 3(b) and incorporated herein by reference.
