Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On January 4, 2018, Meredith Corporation (“Meredith”) provided prospective investors with certain information, including certain unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, in connection with proposed financing activities relating to the previously announced proposed acquisition of Time, Inc. (“Time”). Pursuant to Regulation FD, Meredith is furnishing such pro forma financial information as Exhibit 99.1 and 99.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

As set forth in Exhibit 99.2 attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K, Meredith has included certain pro forma non-GAAP measures, including pro forma EBITDA and pro forma adjusted EBITDA. For purposes of the pro forma financial information, pro forma EBITDA is defined as net earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization, all on a pro forma basis. Pro forma adjusted EBITDA is defined as EBITDA before other nonoperating income and expense and special items with synergies included, all on a pro forma basis. Pro forma EBITDA and pro forma adjusted EBITDA are not financial measures defined by U.S. GAAP. EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA are common supplemental measures of performance used by investors and financial analysts. Management believes that pro forma EBITDA and pro forma adjusted EBITDA provide additional analytical tools to clarify results from core operations. Such financial measures should not be considered as alternatives to U.S. GAAP net income, and such measures may not be comparable to those reported by other companies.

The information furnished pursuant to this Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2 attached hereto, shall not be considered “filed” under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be incorporated by reference into any of Meredith’s filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, unless the registrant expressly states in such filing that such information is to be considered “filed” or incorporated by reference therein.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K and Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2 attached hereto contain forward-looking statements. You can generally identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “explore,” “evaluate,” “intend,” “may,” “might,” “plan,” “project,” “seek,” “should,” or “will,” or the negative thereof or other variations thereon or comparable terminology. These forward-looking statements are only predictions and involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the control of Meredith and Time. Statements in this report that are forward-looking, include, without limitation, statements related to our proposed acquisition of Time; and estimated future financial results and performance of Meredith’s business and Time’s business, separately and as a whole. Important risk factors could cause actual future results and other future events to differ materially from those currently estimated by management, including, but not limited to: the timing to consummate the proposed transaction; the risk that a condition to closing of the proposed transaction may not be satisfied and the transaction may not close; the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed transaction is delayed, is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated; the ability to achieve the synergies and value creation contemplated by the proposed transaction; management’s ability to promptly and effectively integrate the businesses of the two companies; and the diversion of management time on transaction-related issues.

For more discussion of important risk factors that may materially affect Meredith and Time, please see the risk factors contained in Meredith’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017, and Time’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, both of which are on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), as well as in other filings Meredith and Time make with the SEC from time to time. No assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur, or if any of them do occur, what impact they will have on the results of operations, financial condition or cash flows of Meredith or Time. Neither Meredith nor Time assumes any duty to update or revise forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, as of any future date.
