In compliance with article 82 of Spanish Securities Market Law 24/1988, and related provisions, and in order to make it public as the notification of a Significant Event, Telefonica, S.A. hereby informs that its subsidiary Telefonica Móviles, S.A., after obtaining the necessary permission from the countries' respective authorities, has completed the acquisition of 100% of BellSouth's cellular operators in Colombia, Peru, Nicaragua, Uruguay and Venezuela.

These acquisitions mark the close of the second stage of acquisitions as contemplated in the agreement reached between the Telefonica Group and BellSouth, after the acquisition of 100% of Bellsouth's operators in Ecuador, Panama and Guatemala last October 14th (significant event dated October 14th, 2004). Telefonica Moviles expects to acquire the rest of the operators (Argentina and Chile) during the course of 2004.

Telefonica Moviles has acquired five operators with an enterprise value of 2,665 million dollars, after receiving the regulatory approval from the relevant authorities in each country. Telefonica Moviles has completed the acquisition to BellSouth and has reached agreements with the minority shareholders of the different operators in order to obtain the 100% of the companies in Colombia, Nicaragua, Uruguay and Venezuela, and 97.43% of the Peruvian operator, with the remaining 2.57% still publicly traded.

We attach to this official statement press release to be announced to the media.

Press Release

TELEFÓNICA MÓVILES COMPLETES THE ACQUISITION OF BELLSOUTH'S CELLULAR OPERATORS IN VENEZUELA, COLOMBIA, NICARAGUA, PERU AND URUGUAY

- These acquisitions, which have a combined enterprise value of 2,665 million dollars, complete the second phase of the agreement reached between the Telefonica Group and Bellsouth, by which Telefonica Moviles is to purchase Bellsouth's mobile telephony assets in 10 Latin American countries, for a maximum enterprise value of 5,850 million dollars.
- Telefonica Moviles has now completed the purchases of eight of the 10 operators, adding the ones closed today to those in Ecuador, Panama and Guatemala, which were acquired on October 14. The enterprise value of the eight operators acquired to date is 4,330 million dollars.
- Telefonica Moviles expects the remaining acquisitions (Argentina and Chile) to be completed by year-end.

Madrid, 28 October 2004.-

Telefonica Moviles, the company in charge of managing all Telefonica Group's cellular assets, has completed the acquisition of BellSouth's cellular operators in Colombia, Nicaragua, Peru, Uruguay and Venezuela.

These acquisitions mark the conclusion of the second stage of the purchases envisaged in the agreement reached between the Telefonica Group and BellSouth on 8 March this year whereby Telefonica Moviles is to acquire all BellSouth's cellular assets in Latin America, which comprised some 12.5 million customers in 10 countries at the end of the first semester of 2004.

Together with the acquisition of Bellsouth's cellular operators in Ecuador, Guatemala and Panama on 14 October, Telefonica Moviles has now completed the acquisition of eight of the 10 operators.

The Company expects to complete the remaining acquisitions (in Argentina and Chile) over the course of 2004, subject to the receipt of the appropriate approvals by the regulatory authorities in those countries.

"The acquisition of these five companies brings us one step closer to our target of completing the purchases of all 10 operators in 2004. We trust that we will be able to resolve all pending issues and obtain regulatory approval in Argentina and Chile in order to complete our planned investments in those countries," said Antonio Viana - Baptista, Chairman and CEO of Telefonica Moviles. "The operators acquired have positive earnings and operating indicators. Now within the fold of the Telefonica Moviles Group, their goal is to capture a good share of the significant growth potential that exists for mobile telephony in their respective countries".

The operators acquired.

Telefonica Moviles has acquired five operators with an enterprise value of 2,665 million dollars, after receiving the regulatory approval from the relevant authorities in each country. Telefonica Moviles has acquired 100% of the companies in Colombia, Nicaragua, Uruguay and Venezuela, and 97.43% of the Peruvian operator, with the remaining 2.57% still publicly traded.

Venezuela

Telefonica Moviles is now market leader in Venezuela, with over 3.9 million customers at the end of the third quarter of 2004, in a market of 25 million inhabitants with an estimated penetration rate of 29%.

Telefonica Moviles has acquired 78.2% of the company from Bellsouth. It will acquire the remaining 21.8% as soon as BellSouth finalises the purchase process for the stake, which is expected soon. The enterprise value of 100% of the Venezuelan operator is 1,195 million dollars.

Colombia

Telefonica Moviles has acquired the second largest Colombian operator, with over 2.64 million customers at the end of the third quarter of 2004 in a market of 44.5 million inhabitants with an estimated penetration rate of 14%.

Telefonica Moviles acquired 77.6% of the company from BellSouth, while Grupo Bavaria participated in this agreement to sell Telefonica Moviles the remaining 22.4%. The total enterprise value for the Colombian operator is 1,050 million dollars.

Peru

The combination of the existing operations of Telefonica Moviles Peru and BellSouth Peru, means Telefonica Moviles would have had over 2.7 million customers in Peru at the close of the third quarter of 2004, in a market of over 27.3 million inhabitants with an estimated penetration rate of 18%.

Telefonica Moviles has acquired 97.43% of the company from Bellsouth. The 2.57% outstanding will continue to be publicly listed. The total enterprise value of the company is 210 million dollars.

Nicaragua

Telefonica Moviles is now market leader in Nicaragua, acquiring an operator with over 254,000 customers at the end of the third quarter of 2004 in a market of over 5.5 million inhabitants, with an estimated penetration rate of 7.8%.

Telefonica Moviles has acquired 100% of the company from Bellsouth. The total enterprise value for the Nicaraguan operator is 150 million dollars.

Uruguay

Telefonica Moviles becomes the second-ranked operator in Uruguay, with over 172,000 customers at the end of the third quarter of 2004, in a market of over 3.2 million inhabitants with and an estimated penetration rate of 14%.

Telefonica Moviles has acquired 68% of the company from Bellsouth. Motorola, which has also participated in this agreement, agreed to sell its 32% stake in the company to Telefonica Moviles. The total enterprise value for the Uruguayan operator is 60 million dollars.

The acquisition of the outstanding stakes from the other investors in the companies acquired (Grupo Bavaria in Colombia and Motorola in Uruguay) will be carried out at the same valuation as that used in the acquisition of the BellSouth's stakes. The acquisitions of these stakes are to be completed in the short term.

Combined, the five operators acquired posted revenues of 1,489 million dollars and EBITDA of 539 million dollars in 2003.

In the first half of 2004 (ended 31 May 2004), the five operators had revenues of approximately 885 million dollars and EBITDA of 297 million dollars.

In all, BellSouth's 10 Latin American cellular operators had revenues of 2,501 million dollars and EBITDA of 867 million dollars in 2003.

Telefonica Moviles assumes management of the operators in Venezuela, Colombia, Nicaragua, Peru and Uruguay as of today. These operators will maintain their brand names and commercial systems for the time being until their commercial platforms are integrated into those of the Telefonica Moviles Group.

The overall agreement with BellSouth

Under the overall agreement reached by Telefonica Group for Telefonica Moviles to acquire BellSouth's Latin American 10 cellular operators, the transaction values 100% of the companies (firm value) at 5,850 million dollars, to be financed with Telefonica Moviles' cash flow and debt.

The transaction makes Telefonica Moviles the world's second biggest multinational cellular player, with more than 68 million managed customers (figures at the end of the first half of 2004) and the largest player in Latin America, with over 47.5 million managed customers. In addition, it is the only mobile telephony company operating in all the region's key markets, which together have over 421 million inhabitants. This leaves the company well - positioned to leverage the strong growth potential of the Latin American market.
