On the Record Date, 12,185,427 shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding. Each shareholder will be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held on the record date.

Voting of Proxies

By completing and returning the accompanying proxy, the shareholder authorizes Zeynep Hakimoglu, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Greg A. Vote Required for Approval

A quorum of the shares of the Company must be present at the Annual Meeting in order for the shareholders to take official action. Under Utah law and the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company, a quorum will exist if a majority of the shares issued by the Company and entitled to vote on a matter at the Annual Meeting are present, in person or by proxy. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be considered present at the Annual Meeting and will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists, but abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted for purposes of determining the vote on any matter currently proposed for action at the Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors recommends that an affirmative vote be cast in favor of all nominees and for the proposal listed in the proxy card.

Revocability of Proxies

The communications will then be forwarded to the Board. Director Compensation and Committees

All of our directors serve until their successors are elected and have qualified to serve as directors. We pay the Chairman of the Board $4,000 per month and all other nonemployee directors $2,000 per month for their services to us as directors. Directors who are also employed by us do not receive compensation for their services as directors.

Dal Bagley, at the time a director, served as a consultant to the Company from November 2002 through January 2004 and was paid $5,000 per month for his services. He consulted with the Company's management on mergers and financial matters on an as needed basis. Mr. Bagley's services were performed pursuant to an oral agreement, the terms of which were approved by the Board of Directors.

Our Board of Directors currently has two standing committees; namely, an audit committee established in accordance with section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Exchange Act and a compensation committee. The Company currently does not have a formal nominating committee but is in the process of developing one including drafting a written charter under which the committee will operate. A nominating committee and charter will be in place well in advance of the Company's next annual meeting. The Board of Directors does accept and review candidate nominations as described in the Nomination of Director Candidates section below.

The Audit Committee. The audit committee assists the board in its general oversight of our financial reporting, internal controls, and audit functions and is directly responsible for the appointment, retention, compensation, and oversight of our principal accountants. The audit committee is currently composed of Brad R. Baldwin, Larry R. Hendricks, and Scott M. Huntsman (Chair). The board has determined that Mr. Hendricks is a financial expert and is independent within the meaning of National Association of Securities Dealers ("NASD") Rule 4200(a)(15). None of the members of the audit committee is a current or former employee of the company or any of its subsidiaries.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the system of internal control. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Committee reviewed with the principal accountants, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Committee has discussed with the principal accountants the auditors' independence from management and the Company including the matters in the written disclosure and the letter required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committee) and considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the accountants' independence. The Committee also discussed with the principal accountants any matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees).

The Committee discussed with the Company's principal accountants the overall scope and plans for their audits. The Committee meets with the principal accountants, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal control, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

Each member of the Audit Committee is an independent director as defined in Rule 4200(a)(14) of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards. That is, the Board of Directors has determined that none of the audit committee members has a relationship to the Company that would interfere with that person's exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2006 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee and the Board have also recommended, subject to shareholder approval, the selection of the Company's principal accountants.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Audit Committee.

Brad R. Baldwin
Larry R. Hendricks
Scott M. Huntsman (Chair)

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the audit committee setting out the functions the Committee is to perform. A copy of the charter is attached to the proxy statement as Appendix A.

The Compensation Committee. The compensation committee makes recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding remuneration of our executive officers and directors and administers the incentive plans for our directors, officers, and key employees. The compensation committee is currently composed of Edward Dallin Bagley (Chair), Brad R. Baldwin, and Scott M. Huntsman.

With the exception of Mr. Bagley, the directors who serve on the compensation committee are all "independent" for purposes of the rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers. That is, the Board of Directors has determined that none of the compensation committee members, apart from Mr. Bagley, has a relationship to the Company that would interfere with that person's exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. The Board has determined that Mr. Bagley, as beneficial owner of 14.3% of the Company's common stock, is not independent. However, because of Mr. Bagley's financial experience and knowledge of the Company and its operations, the Board of Directors has determined that his inclusion on the compensation committee is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation. The Compensation Committee during fiscal 2006 was composed of Edward Dallin Bagley, Brad R. Baldwin and Scott M. Huntsman. This same composition exists today. Mr. Bagley also served as a consultant to the Company from November 2002 through January 2004 and was paid $5,000 monthly for his services. No interlocking relationships exist between any member of the Company's Board of Directors or Compensation Committee and any member of the Board of Directors or compensation committee of any other company nor has any such interlocking relationship existed in the past. No member of the Compensation Committee is or was formerly an executive officer or an employee of the Company or its subsidiaries.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee has provided the following report:

Committee's Responsibilities - The Committee sets the overall compensation principles for the Company, subject to annual review. In consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, it establishes the individual compensation levels for Company executives.

Executive Compensation Policy - ClearOne Communications, Inc.'s compensation goals for executive officers are as follows:

- To attract and retain quality talent
- To use incentive compensation to reinforce strategic performance objectives
- To align the interest of the executives with the interests of the shareholders such that risks and rewards of strategic decisions are shared

All compensation is tax deductible for the Company, except for the compensation that qualifies for incentive stock option tax treatment.

Base Compensation - The Committee believes that executive officer base compensation needs to be competitive with market rates and makes salary decisions in coordination with the Chief Executive Officer. Certain executive officers received salary increases for fiscal 2006 from fiscal 2005 base pay rates.

Quarterly/Annual Bonus Plan - The fiscal year 2006 annual bonus plan was developed to reward executives based on meeting or exceeding certain internal financial objectives that were created by the executive team and the Company's Board of Directors. The financial objectives were established in the beginning of the fiscal year and were based on the Company's revenues, gross margin, and a certain discretionary amount. Objectives were established for each fiscal quarter, together with an annual objective. If a quarterly objective was met, a bonus was paid for that quarter. If a quarterly objective was not met, then no related bonus was paid. Executives were not allowed to make up a missed quarterly bonus based on subsequent performance.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation - The Compensation Committee uses employee stock options for long-term executive compensation as a means of achieving the compensation goals previously described. Options are granted under the Company's 1998 Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"). The Compensation Committee, in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, determines the number of options granted to each executive. Factors bearing on the number of options granted to an executive include his or her position, individual performance, and contribution to the Company's overall performance.

Option grants under the Plan permit a recipient to purchase shares of Company stock at a fixed price (the market price on the date the option is granted). Options granted to executive officers typically vest over three years. Vesting schedules are based on three-year vesting schedules, with one-third vesting on the first anniversary and the remaining options vesting ratably over the remainder of the vesting term. Vested options must be exercised at least 90 days after leaving the Company. No options were granted to executive officers during fiscal 2006.

Employment and Severance Agreements - The Company has not entered into Employment Agreements with any of its named executive's officers. All officers of the Company are employed at will and can be terminated without cause. All employees of the Company have signed Confidentiality Agreements to keep certain information confidential.

The preceding Compensation Committee Report and the Company Stock Performance Graph (set forth below) will not be incorporated by reference into any of the Company's filings, past or future, that may be made pursuant to the U.S. Securities laws.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the Compensation Committee.

Edward Dallin Bagley (Chair)
Brad R. Baldwin
Scott M. Huntsman

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Indemnification of Officers and Directors. The Company's bylaws and the Utah Revised Business Corporation Act provide for indemnification of directors and officers against reasonable expenses incurred by such persons in connection with civil or criminal actions or proceedings to which they have been made parties because they are or were directors or officers of the Company or its subsidiaries. Indemnification is permitted if the person satisfies the required standards of conduct. Certain of the litigation matters described in "Item 3. Legal Proceedings" of the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2006 involved certain of the Company's current and former directors and officers, all of whom are covered by the aforementioned indemnity and if applicable, certain prior period insurance policies. The Company has indemnified such persons for legal expenses incurred by them in such actions and has sought reimbursement from its insurance carriers. The Company cannot predict with certainty the extent to which the Company will recover the indemnification payments from its insurers. The Company has made payments to the law firms representing such current and former directors and officers in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.7 million during the period from January 2003 through August 31, 2006.

Joint Prosecution and Defense Agreement. In connection with the Insurance Coverage Action described under the caption "Item 3. Legal Proceedings" of the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2006, the Company and its counsel entered into a Joint Prosecution and Defense Agreement dated as of April 1, 2004 with Edward Dallin Bagley, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and his counsel, which generally provides that ClearOne and Mr. Bagley will jointly prosecute their claims against the carriers of certain prior period directors and officers liability insurance policies and jointly defend the claims made by the insurance carriers in order to reduce litigation expenses.

In the litigation, ClearOne is generally pursuing claims to recover the policy limits of certain officer and director liability insurance policies and Mr. Bagley is pursuing related claims to recover losses he incurred as a result of such carriers' refusal to pay the policy limits which refusals caused ClearOne to enter into a settlement agreement in the class action litigation that diluted Mr. Bagley's shareholdings in ClearOne. The agreement, as amended, provides that the two law firms shall jointly represent ClearOne and Mr. Bagley, the parties shall cooperate in connection with the conduct of the litigation and that ClearOne shall pay all litigation expenses, including attorneys' fees of its counsel and Mr. Bagley's counsel, except litigation expenses which are solely related to Mr. Bagley's claims in the litigation. In February 2005, we entered into a confidential settlement agreement with Lumbermens Mutual pursuant to which ClearOne and Mr. Bagley received a lump-sum cash amount and the plaintiffs agreed to dismiss their claims against Lumbermens Mutual with prejudice. The cash settlement will be held in a segregated account until the claims involving National Union have been resolved, at which time the amounts received in the action will be allocated among the Company and Mr. Bagley and any proceeds to the Company will be recognized in the consolidated financial statements. The Joint Prosecution and Defense Agreement does not explain any allocation method and no allocation discussions have occurred. On October 21, 2005, the court granted summary judgment in favor of National Union on its rescission defense and accordingly entered a judgment dismissing all of the claims asserted by ClearOne and Mr. Bagley. On February 2, 2006, the Company and Mr. Bagley filed an appeal to the summary judgment granted on October 21, 2005 and intend to vigorously pursue the appeal and any follow-up proceedings regarding their claims against National Union, although no assurances can be given that they will be successful.
