MEMORANDUM

MEMO TO: ALL UNG EMPLOYEES

FROM: Bill Schmidt

RE: URGENT NEWS

DATE: October 15, 2004

I am pleased to attach a copy of our press release announcing the combination of United National Group with Penn-America Group, Inc. and Penn Independent Corp., under our public holding company, United America Indemnity, Ltd. This is a very exciting development for our group, and one which has the full support of our management team.

You will note from the press release that this combination results in a very significant organization where we become an even greater force in the specialty insurance market. Additionally, you will also note that it is the intention of ownership to allow each company to retain its existing corporate identity, while continuing to be operated by the existing management teams.

These are very powerful points as we look to grow our business into the future.

As we progress in finalizing this transaction, I will provide updates. However, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to discuss them with your manager.

As a reminder, the company's Insider Trading Policy requires employees to refrain from trading in company stock for a period of time that allows investors to assess and evaluate this news. As such, you should not trade in the stock of either United National Group, Ltd. or Penn-America Group Inc. until Wednesday October 20, 2004. We will advise you by next Tuesday if we need to extend beyond this date.

PRESS RELEASE

UNITED NATIONAL GROUP, LTD., PENN-AMERICA GROUP, INC. AND PENN INDEPENDENT CORPORATION ANNOUNCE BUSINESS COMBINATION UNDER UNITED AMERICA INDEMNITY, LTD.

George Town, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands and Hatboro, Pennsylvania, October 15, 2004 United National Group, Ltd. (NASDAQ: UNGL), Penn-America Group, Inc. (NYSE:PNG) and Penn Independent Corporation (PIC), a privately-held company, today jointly announced their agreements to combine their operations in transactions aggregating over $800 million in enterprise value. As a result of the transactions, the newly-christened United America Indemnity, Ltd (UAI) will become one of the leading specialty property and casualty insurers in the industry as well as a significant originator of and placement agent for specialty property and casualty insurance coverage.

Under UAI's ownership, each company will retain its existing corporate identity and the businesses of UNGL, PNG, and PIC will continue to be operated by the existing management teams. UAI will boast more than $700 million in direct written premiums and net commission revenues, more than $1.1 billion in invested assets and approximately $550 million of shareholders' equity. Based on today's market values, United America Indemnity, Ltd. would be owned approximately 75% by the current shareholders of UNGL and 25% by the current public shareholders of PNG, with the shareholders of PIC receiving cash consideration. The final ownership proportions between UNGL and PNG will be determined based on market trading values of UNGL prior to closing.

To effectuate the transaction, UNGL, the publicly traded holding company for the United National Insurance businesses, which based on recent market prices has an enterprise value of approximately $528 million, will be renamed United America Indemnity, Ltd.; Class A common shares and Class B common shares of UNGL will continue as shares of UAI; each publicly held share of PNG will be exchanged for $15.375 of value, consisting of $13.875 in UAI Class A common shares and $1.50 in cash, for aggregate consideration of $156 million for all publicly held PNG shares; and all PIC shares will be acquired by a subsidiary of UAI for $97 million in cash. The $132 million of existing trust preferred securities and notes issued by UNGL and PNG will remain in place. The transaction, expected to close during the first quarter 2005, is subject to several conditions and contingencies, including insurance regulatory approvals and the affirmative vote of the shareholders of each of UNGL and PNG.

Saul Fox, UNGL's Chairman and who will continue as Chairman of UAI, said: By combining the breadth and depth of the UNGL, PNG, and PIC property and casualty insurance operations under United America Indemnity's umbrella, each company will significantly enhance its ability to provide specialized products and services to its clients. In addition, United America Indemnity's larger footprint in the marketplace and the consequent strengthening of the competitive position of each company should materially assist the management teams of UNGL, PNG, and PIC in achieving their long term growth objectives. Our shareholders should benefit from the earnings accretion and enhanced financial stability provided by a significantly larger capital base, greater diversification of risks, and broader share ownership and liquidity. Mr. Fox is also Chief Executive Officer of San Francisco based Fox Paine & Company, LLC, whose affiliated private equity funds acquired a controlling interest in United National in September 2003 and will be the largest shareholder in United America Indemnity.

David Bradley, Chief Executive Officer of United National Group, Ltd. (who will remain CEO of the holding company), emphasized the market opportunities and intellectual synergies accelerated by the deal, "We now have four critical platforms in which United America Indemnity has clear market leadership, beginning with United National's and Penn-America's growing excess and surplus lines specialty P&C businesses that include self-generated proprietary products, niche programs, brokered lines and franchise relationships with general agents who serve the small business marketplace. The newly acquired PIC agencies and associated businesses will continue to support and give preferred services to its current markets and partners. These, coupled with our new offshore business in Bermuda should enable us to thrive and compete in a broad swath of products, markets and situations.

Jon S. Saltzman, currently President and Chief Executive Officer of Penn-America Group, Inc., will become President of UAI. Mr. Saltzman will oversee all United States insurance company operations of both United National and Penn-America. Joseph F. Morris, currently Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer & Treasurer of Penn-America Group, Inc., will be promoted to President and Chief Executive Officer of Penn-America Group, Inc.

Commenting on the business combination, Mr. Saltzman noted, "We are excited about bringing together two great businesses that have long-term histories of producing superior operating results in the excess and surplus lines market. United National is a leader in developing unique specialty products while Penn-America is one of the leading small commercial limited binding authority companies. I'm looking forward to working with Bill Schmidt, President of United National's U.S. insurance operations, and his United National team while remaining confident that Joe Morris and Penn-America's management will continue to create franchise value for Penn-America's general agents. With a stronger capital base and a larger group of experienced and knowledgeable employees, I believe this combination elevates both companies to financial and operational levels higher than either company would be able to achieve on a stand-alone basis. I believe that agents, policyholders, employees and shareholders of both companies will clearly benefit from this transaction.

UAI will conduct a conference call regarding the transaction on Monday, October 18, 2004, at 8:00 am EDT. The conference call will not be webcast, but UAI will make slides pertaining to the transaction available on the company's website at www.ungl.ky. Interested parties may access the call on the following dial-in numbers:

Domestic Dial-In: (877) 423-3902

International Dial-In: (706) 679-0881

Conference ID (for both): 1578069

Safe Harbor statement:

This release contains forward-looking information about United National Group, Ltd., Penn-America Group, Inc. and the combined operations of United National Group, Ltd., Penn-America Group, Inc. and Penn Independent Corporation after the completion of the transactions described in the release that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. These statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as believe, expect, may, will, should, project, plan, seek, intend, or anticipate or the negative thereof or comparable terminology, and include discussions of strategy, financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions, statements regarding plans, objectives, expectations or consequences of the transactions, and statements about the future performance, operations, products and services of the companies.

UNGL's and PNG's businesses and operations, as well as the combined business and operations of United America Indemnity, Ltd., are and will be subject to a variety of risks, uncertainties and other factors. Consequently, their actual results and experience may materially differ from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results and experience to differ from those projected include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) ineffectiveness of their business strategy due to changes in current or future market conditions, (2) the effects of competitors' pricing policies, and of changes in laws and regulations on competition, including industry consolidation and development of competing financial products, (3) greater frequency or severity of claims and loss activity than their underwriting, reserving or investment practices have anticipated, (4) decreased level of demand for their insurance products or increased competition due to an increase in capacity of property and casualty insurers; (5) risks inherent in establishing loss and loss adjustment expense reserves; (6) uncertainties relating to the financial ratings of their insurance subsidiaries; (7) uncertainties arising from the cyclical nature of their business; (8) changes in their relationships with, and the capacity of, their general agents; (9) the risk that their reinsurers may not be able to fulfill obligations and (10) uncertainties relating to governmental and regulatory policies. The foregoing review of important factors should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included in UNGL's and PNG's respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, as well as in the materials to be filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). See Additional Information below. Neither UNGL nor PNG makes any commitment to revise or update any forward-looking statements in order to reflect events or circumstances occurring or existing after the date any forward-looking statement is made.
