Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 16, 2005, Neose Technologies, Inc. (the Company) entered into an amendment (the Amendment) to its Research, Development and License Agreement with Novo Nordisk A/S dated as of November 17, 2003, as previously amended (the Novo Agreement). The Amendment will be filed as an exhibit to the Company s quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending March 31, 2005, with portions omitted and filed separately with the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to a request for confidential treatment.

Under the Novo Agreement, the Company is conducting work on next-generation versions of two proteins. The Amendment provides for:

a change in the timing of one milestone payment; and a restructuring of payment of certain project-related costs for one of the proteins that is the subject of the Novo Agreement.

The Company does not have any material relationship with Novo Nordisk or its affiliates other than:

in respect of the Novo Agreement and the Amendment; and in respect of a separate Research, Development and License Agreement with Novo Nordisk A/S and Novo Nordisk Healthcare AG, dated November 17, 2003, as amended, under which the Company is conducting work on a next-generation version of an additional protein.

Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: Statements in this report regarding our business that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. For a discussion of these risks and uncertainties, any of which could cause our actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statement, see the section entitled Factors Affecting the Company s Prospects in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 and discussions of potential risks and uncertainties in the Company s subsequent filings with the SEC.
