This statement relates to the shares of Common Stock (the "Common Stock") of Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. The Company's principal offices are located at 12730 High Bluff Drive, Suite 180, San Diego, California 92130.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

(a-c) This Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 13D is being filed by RC Aviation, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (RC Aviation), RC Aviation Management, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (RC Management) and the managing member of RC Aviation, and Lawrence S. Hershfield, the controlling member of RC Management (Mr. Hershfield, and together with RC Aviation and RC Management, the Reporting Persons). The principal business address of the Reporting Persons is located at 12730 High Bluff Drive, Suite 180, San Diego, California 92130. The principal business of RC Aviation is to acquire, manage, invest in, transfer, exchange and/or otherwise dispose of securities of the Company. The principal business of RC Management is to serve as the managing member of RC Aviation. The principal business of Mr. Hershfield is to manage various businesses, including, without limitation, RC Aviation and RC Management.

(d-e) None of the Reporting Persons has, during the last five years, (i) been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors), nor (ii) been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction, as a result of which such person was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) The citizenship of RC Aviation and RC Management are as set forth above. The citizenship of Mr. Hershfield is the United States of America.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The Common Stock and Series E Warrants were obtained by the Reporting Persons in consideration for the exchange of certain bankruptcy-related claims held by the Reporting Persons against the Company's subsidiary, Hawaiian Airlines, Inc. (Subsidiary). These claims consisted primarily of aircraft lease contracts under which the Company was in default. The claims were purchased by RC Aviation from its working capital.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Company is a holding company that conducts its operations through its Subsidiary. The Subsidiary filed for bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Hawaii (the Bankruptcy Court) on March 21, 2003 (the Bankruptcy Proceeding).

RC Aviation was formed for the purpose of acquiring a substantial equity interest in the Company in order to obtain the opportunity to profit from an investment in the Company and the Subsidiary, and to have a significant influence on the Subsidiary's plan of reorganization in the Bankruptcy Proceeding, and on the direction and management of the Company and the Subsidiary after confirmation of the Subsidiary's plan of reorganization in the Bankruptcy Proceeding.

CUSIP No. 419879101

The Company and RC Aviation, among others, filed an amended joint plan of reorganization (the Joint Plan) to govern the Subsidiary's emergence from bankruptcy. Among other things, the Joint Plan provides for payment in full of all allowed claims and for the merger of the Subsidiary into HHIC, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, with HHIC, Inc. to be the surviving entity (with HHIC, Inc. to change its name to Hawaiian Airlines, Inc.). In June, 2005, the Bankruptcy Court confirmed the Joint Plan, subject to obtaining sufficient financing to implement its provisions. The foregoing description of the Joint Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to such document, a copy of which appears as Exhibit 6 hereto.

In accordance therewith, the Company and RC Aviation agreed to the terms of a $60 million bridge financing in the form of a newly issued series of the Company's subordinated convertible notes (the Notes), which Notes were purchased by RC Aviation pursuant to that certain Note Purchase Agreement dated as of June 1, 2005 (the Note Purchase Agreement). RC Aviation's purchase of the Notes arises from its earlier agreement, as set forth in that certain Restructuring Support Agreement, dated as of August 26, 2004 (the Restructuring Support Agreement), requiring it to raise the funds necessary to meet the distribution and payment obligations under the Joint Plan and to ensure that the Subsidiary has at least the minimum amount of cash required by the Joint Plan. The foregoing description of the Note Purchase Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to such document, the form of which appears as Exhibit 1 hereto.

The Note Purchase Agreement provides that the Notes be divided into two series: (a) the Series A Subordinated Convertible Note (the Series A Note); and (b) the Series B Subordinated Convertible Note (the Series B Note), both of which are due June 1, 2010, and will pay interest at 5% per year (payable at the Company's option in cash or in kind). The Notes are convertible, beginning on June 1, 2006, into Common Stock of the Company at the conversion rate of $4.35 per share (subject to adjustment), except that the Series B Note is only convertible after the latest to occur of: (x) June 1, 2006; (y) the effective date of the Amendment (as defined below); and (z) the date that the Company's stockholders approve the issuance of Common Stock upon conversion of the Series B Note (the Approval). The Company has the right to prepay the Notes at any time prior to June 1, 2006 in whole or in part at 105% of par. The Note Purchase Agreement also provides that the Notes are mandatorily redeemable in cash on June 1, 2010, subject to the obligation of the Company to mandatorily redeem the Series B Note after June 1, 2008 if: (a) the Amendment has not become effective; (b) the Approval has not occurred; and (c) the closing price of the Common Stock of the Company has exceeded $4.35 per share (subject to adjustment) for at least 20 out of 30 consecutive market trading days after June 1, 2006. The foregoing descriptions of the Series A Note and Series B Note are qualified in their entirety by reference to such documents, the forms of which appear as Exhibits 2 and 3 hereto.

Pursuant to the terms of the Note Purchase Agreement, a new class of preferred stock was designated by the Company as the Series E Preferred Stock. The Series E Preferred Stock is a nonvoting, preferred stock, providing for dividends at such time as dividends are declared or paid with respect to the Common Stock equal to the aggregate dividend amount issued with respect to each share of Common Stock multiplied by 6,855,685 divided by the number of shares of Series E Preferred Stock issuable under the Series E Warrants, payable at the Company's option in cash or in kind. The Series E Preferred Stock has a liquidation preference equal to (a) the greater of (y) $43,193 per share of Series E Preferred Stock or (z) the amount payable with respect to each share of Common Stock upon liquidation, multiplied by 6,855,685, divided by (b) the number of shares of Series E Preferred Stock issuable under the Series E Warrants.

As part of the purchase of the Notes, the Company issued to RC Aviation Series E Warrants to purchase 200 shares of the Company's Series E Preferred Stock. Upon the receipt of stockholder approval of an increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock of the Company (the Amendment, which the Company is soliciting pursuant to its proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with its annual stockholder meeting to be held on July 7, 2005), the Series E Warrants shall be automatically exchanged for a separate warrant entitling the holder to purchase 10% of the Company's fully diluted Common Stock (upon giving effect to all securities issued upon the effective date of the Joint Plan), at an exercise price of $7.20 per share, subject to adjustment for certain anti-dilutive events (the Common Stock Warrant). If the increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock as described above is not approved, the Series E Warrants will be exercisable for shares of Series E Preferred Stock at any time after the earlier of (a) December 1, 2005 or (b) the record date for a Distribution Event (as that term is defined in Section 6 of the Series E Warrant). The foregoing descriptions of the Series E Warrant and Common Stock Warrant are qualified in their entirety by reference to such documents, the forms of which appear as Exhibits 4 and 5 hereto.

In addition to the acquisition of the securities described above, RC Aviation, RC Management and Mr. Hershfield also acquired beneficial ownership of 1,402,121, 1,504,782 and 1,504,782 additional shares, respectively, of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to the terms of the Joint Plan. Under the Joint Plan, the Reporting Persons, as holders of certain claims relating to defaulted aircraft-related leases, received distributions in exchange for their allowed claims in an amount of cash equal to 50% of the allowed claim and an amount of the Company's Common Stock equal to 50% of the allowed claim based on a stock value of $6.16 per share of Common Stock. This resulted in the distribution of the Company's Common stock to the Reporting Persons under the Joint Plan as set forth above.

Other than as set forth above in this Item 4, none of the Reporting Persons has any existing plan or proposal which relates to or would result in any of the matters enumerated in clauses (a) through (j), inclusive of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. However, the Reporting Persons may in the future engage in and may plan for their engagement in: (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Company or the disposition of securities of the Company; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Company, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Company; (f) any other material change in the Company's business or corporate structure; (g) changes in the Company's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition or control of the Company by any person; (h) causing a class of securities of the Company to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (i) a class of equity securities of the Company becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Act; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

Any future decision of the Reporting Persons to take any such actions with respect to the Company or the Subsidiary or their respective securities will take into account various factors, including the prospects of the Company and Subsidiary, general market and economic conditions and other factors deemed relevant.
