Settlement Agreement

On February 11, 2019, Alico, Inc. (the "Company" or "Alico") along with George R. Brokaw, R. Greg Eisner, Benjamin D. Fishman, W. Andrew Krusen, Henry R. Slack (each of the foregoing individuals, together with Alico, the "Alico Parties") entered into a Settlement Agreement and Release (the "Settlement Agreement") with Remy W. Trafelet ("Trafelet"), the former president and chief executive officer of the Company, 734 Agriculture, LLC ("734 Agriculture"), RCF 2014 Legacy LLC ("RCF") and Delta Offshore Master II, LTD. (collectively with Trafelet, 734 Agriculture and RCF, the "Trafelet Parties"). Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, among other matters, the Alico Parties and the Trafelet Parties have agreed to promptly dismiss all claims in the litigation pending in the Circuit Court in Hillsborough County, Florida between the Alico Parties and Trafelet Parties.

Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, which was unanimously approved by the Alico Board of Directors (the "Board"), Trafelet agreed to voluntarily resign from his roles as president and chief executive officer and a director of the Company, effective upon the execution of the Settlement Agreement. Under the Settlement Agreement, Mr. Trafelet will forfeit (i) all stock options granted to him in December 2016 and (ii) all stock options granted to him in September 2018, other than 26,250 stock options that will vest if the minimum price of Alico's common stock over 20 consecutive trading days exceeds $35.00 per share and 26,250 stock options that will vest if the minimum price of Alico's common stock over 20 consecutive trading days exceeds $40.00 per share, in each case, by the first anniversary of the date of the Settlement Agreement (collectively, the "Retained Options"). Any Retained Options that vest in accordance with their terms will expire on the date that is six months following the date on which the Retained Option vests, and any Retained Options that do not vest by the first anniversary of the Settlement Agreement will be forfeited as of such first anniversary.

The Trafelet Parties have agreed that until the earlier of the five-year anniversary of the Settlement Agreement and the date on which the Trafelet Parties together with any affiliates cease to beneficially own in the aggregate at least 0.5% of the outstanding shares of Alico common stock (the "Restricted Period"), the Trafelet Parties will vote all shares of Alico common stock that they or their affiliates may beneficially own in accordance with the recommendation of the Board on the election of directors, compensation plans and any routine matter.

The Trafelet Parties have also agreed to abide by certain restrictions with respect to the Company and the Company's securities including, during the Restricted Period, customary standstill provisions, including among others: (i) acquiring any voting securities of the Company; (ii) soliciting or participating in the solicitation of proxies or a written consent of shareholders of the Company; (iii) joining any "Group"; or (iv) seeking, alone or in concert with others, board representation or the nominations for election or removal of any director.

Additionally, on February 11, 2019, Trafelet, 734 Agriculture, 734 Investors, LLC ("734 Investors"), and certain members of 734 Investors entered into a settlement agreement resolving pending litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery. Pursuant to that agreement, 734 Agriculture resigned as Managing Member of 734 Investors and Arlon Valencia Holdings, LLC was confirmed as Managing Member of 734 Investors.

As described above, on February 11, 2019 and as contemplated by the Settlement Agreement, Trafelet submitted to the Board his resignation as president and chief executive officer of the Company and a member of the Board, effective upon the execution of the Settlement Agreement. Trafelet's resignation is not the result of any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies, or practices.
