Item 8.01 Other Events.

Daniel P. Ibele, Vice President, General Manager, U.S. and Canada, has adopted a prearranged trading plan in accordance with guidelines specified by Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and with Libbey Inc.'s policies with respect to trading by insiders.

Rule 10b5-1 plans permit corporate officers, directors and others to adopt written, pre-arranged stock trading plans when they are not in possession of material, non-public information. Using these plans, insiders may, consistent with their personal asset diversification and tax planning strategies, exercise pre-determined stock options and/or buy and sell a pre-determined number of shares of Libbey Inc. stock over a period of time, regardless of whether the insiders become aware of material, non-public information after adopting the plans.

Mr. Ibele's plan, which became effective on November 14, 2014 and will expire on June 15, 2015, contemplates the exercise of employee stock options for up to 43,790 shares of Libbey common stock and the prompt sale of those shares as specified in the plan. Mr. Ibele retains no discretion over trades conducted pursuant to the plan.

Pursuant to Libbey policy, the plan adopted by Mr. Ibele precludes any trades from being conducted under the plans during the 30-day period commencing on the effective date of the plans. Additionally, Libbey policy imposes a limit on the number of shares that may be traded on any day under each plan in order to reduce the market impact of trades conducted pursuant to the plans.

Any transactions under the plan will be disclosed publicly through Form 4 and, if applicable, Form 144 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
