PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

Air Canada extends three-year ERP support and maintenance contract with CGI valued at CDN $11.5 million

Montreal, Quebec, May 8, 2002 - Air Canada (TSX: AC) and CGI Group Inc. (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB;) (CGI) today announced the signing of a CDN$11.5 million dollar, three-year extension for the support and maintenance of their existing five-year enterprise resource planning (ERP) contract which includes PeopleSoft Human Resources, Benefits, Payroll and Finance, as well as related mainframe applications and interfaces.

As part of the agreement, over 1000 Air Canada employees mainly in Montreal and Winnipeg are supported by CGI professionals through CGI's support center. Over the course of the agreement, via trend analysis, cross training and quality assurance, CGI has been successful in stabilizing and streamlining the complex system resulting in a robust and effective environment that meets the clients' need for flexibility and quality control.

"We found CGI to be an extremely flexible partner as they were able to readjust the initial contract to meet the business needs of our changing organization. It is important for us to know that we are not locked into an agreement that does not evolve with our organization," said Jean-Paul Bourgeois, senior director, enterprise systems, Air Canada.

Michael Roach president and chief operating officer for CGI added: "We are very pleased to be supporting Air Canada in this most important area of their business. Through our support center, a core team dedicated to Air Canada is able to quickly adjust the system, make modifications and respond to user queries. As Canada's global IT services firm, it is through understanding and evolving with our clients that we are able to maintain successful long-term partnerships."

CGI has been delivering services to Air Canada since 1998. In the last quarter of 1998, CGI took over the support of the Air Canada enterprise applications, namely of PeopleSoft finance, as well as mainframe applications in the areas of finance and human resources/payroll, and successively in 1999 was responsible for the support of PeopleSoft Human Resources, Benefits and Payroll. Client requests for changes and improvements are dealt with in an efficient manner and CGI offers ongoing system evolution thanks to its large pool of diversified expertise - unmatched in any single corporation. The quick and successful integration of Canadian Airlines' IT functions also demonstrates the benefits of dealing with CGI specialists capable of quickly providing competent resources when demand increases.
