PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Montreal, Quebec, July 14, 2003 CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB) announced today the signing of a seven-year, information technology (IT) outsourcing contract valued at CDN$210 million with Bombardier Aerospace, a Bombardier Inc. group (BBD, BOM and BBDd.F). Within this contract CGI will be responsible for the following Canadian IT services related legacy applications services, user desktop management and help desk to all of Bombardier Aerospace's Canadian users, and data centre and infrastructure services for the Toronto site.

As part of this agreement, some 210 Bombardier Aerospace professionals will be joining CGI. Within the Aerospace group, CGI has been supplying legacy system support for the past two years.

We are in a very competitive market and as such we need to improve efficiency and find flexible solutions while reducing costs. In partnering with CGI, we are meeting these needs and are protecting our knowledge with the same qualified team of technology professionals, who know our systems intimately. This is vital for the continued smooth running of our operations, said Robert Proulx, vice-president business processes & chief information officer, at Bombardier Aerospace.

Michael Roach, president and chief operating officer of CGI added: I would like to extend a warm welcome to the professionals joining CGI, we look forward to combining our teams. This contract is a step towards building a stronger relationship based on our clients' confidence in our ability to deliver. We look forward to future growth opportunities as this partnership of two global leaders expands.
