PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

Kanawha selects CGI for 10-year IT outsourcing contract worth US$41 million

Atlanta, Georgia, November 20, 2003 South Carolina-based health and life insurer, Kanawha Insurance Company, and CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB), a leading provider of information technology (IT) and business processing services, announced today the signing of a 10-year IT outsourcing contract valued at US$41 million. The contract includes the delivery of full outsourcing services which include infrastructure management, data center services as well as application maintenance and development. As part of this contract, 33 IT professionals will be joining CGI.

To ensure optimal growth, our goal is to be able to better predict our IT costs and be ready for change by being flexible while at the same time have our systems run on best-in-class, robust infrastructure. In partnering with CGI and implementing their best practices, we are able to meet these business objectives, says Stanley D. Johnson, president and CEO for Kanawha.

Joseph Saliba, president, USA and India for CGI added: We are pleased to welcome Kanawha as a new client as well as the IT professionals as new members to the CGI family. We feel confident that CGI's global delivery model coupled with our deep insurance industry knowledge, will enable us to deliver real value and tangible savings to Kanawha. We are excited to be a contributor to the success of Kanawha's business strategy.

About Kanawha

Kanawha (ka-na -waha) Insurance Company is one of the largest privately-owned life insurance companies in the Southeast. It is licensed as an insurer in 45 states and as a reinsurer in New York. Kanawha has had at least an A- (Excellent) rating by A.M. Best Company for 20 consecutive years and has been rated "A (Strong)" by Standard & Poor's.

Long Term Care and Worksite products are currently distributed in more than 40 states and represent the prime strategic markets for Individual insurance, accounting for 90% of new sales. This marketing thrust is supported by extensive proprietary producer training and sales support mechanisms that take full advantage of new technology.

Kanawha HealthCare Solutions, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary, is one of the largest Third Party Administrators in the Southeast. Kanawha Marketing Group, Inc. was formed January 1, 2003 to distribute Kanawha products and other carriers' product lines not manufactured by Kanawha. Since 1985, Kanawha's net worth has grown by 12% per year to over $166 million while assets under management now exceed $660 million. This growth has been a direct result of Kanawha's reputation for service to policyholders, customers and agents, a dedication that continues. To learn more, visit www.kanawha.com.
