There has been no criminal conviction against Taurus in the past five years (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors), nor has Taurus been party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body resulting in a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to state or federal securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

- - - - -

OO. See Item 5.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

- - - - -

The purpose of the note conversion described in Item 5 was long-term investment and appreciation as well as to help facilitate the completion of Issuer’s public offering of units and listing of the Issuer’s Common Stock on the NASDAQ Capital Market. Girschweiler ceased to be a director of the Issuer on March 5, 2014, but is still a 10% owner of the Issuer.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

- - - - -

On December 16, 2013, the Issuer entered into a note conversion agreement with Girschweiler, (the “Note Conversion Agreement”). Girschweiler held, as of December 31, 2013, approximately $4.9 million principal amount of outstanding promissory notes and approximately $1.6 million of accrued and unpaid interest under that certain secured convertible multi-draw term loan facility agreement entered into on January 11, 2008. Pursuant to the Note Conversion Agreement, Girschweiler agreed to convert on a private placement basis the outstanding indebtedness, including accrued interest thereon in connection with and on substantially similar terms as the Issuer’s next “Qualified Financing”, which was defined as the “next offer and sale its equity for cash, provided that a Qualified Financing shall not include any issuance of securities of the Issuer pursuant to compensatory arrangements.” On February 11, 2014, Girschweiler assigned his respective rights and obligations under the promissory notes, the facility agreement and the Note Conversion Agreement to Taurus.

On March 25, 2014, the indebtedness under the facility agreements, including accrued interest thereon through the closing date, was converted on a private placement basis into units at a conversion price of $4.30 per unit, concurrently with the closing of the Issuer's public offering of units at a public offering price of $4.30 per unit. Pursuant to the conversion, Taurus received 1,544,194 units for the conversion of approximately $4.9 million principal amount of outstanding promissory note and $1.7 million of interest accrued thereon. Each unit consisted of one share of the Issuer's common stock, $0.001 par value and one common stock warrant. Each warrant is exercisable for 1 common share of the Issuer at $4.75 per share through March 25, 2021. Taurus also released all security and the facility agreements were terminated.

As of March 25, 2014, Girschweiler beneficially owned 4,392,427 shares of the Issuer, consisting of 1,029,040 shares of common stock held directly, 1,544,104 shares of common stock held indirectly through Taurus, 214,286 shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of warrants held directly, 1,544,194 shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of warrants held indirectly through Taurus, and 60,713 shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of stock options held directly. Such shares represent a total of 31.9% of the Issuer's outstanding common shares.

Girschweiler has the sole power to vote or direct the vote of, and to dispose or direct the disposition of, the entirety of the number of shares indicated above. There are no other persons known to have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, such securities.

As of March 25, 2014, Taurus beneficially owned 3,088,388 shares of the Issuer, consisting of 1,544,194 shares of common stock and 1,544,194 shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of warrants. Such shares represent a total of 22.9% of the Issuer's outstanding common shares.

Taurus has the sole power to vote or direct the vote of, and to dispose or direct the disposition of, the entirety of the number of shares indicated above. Except Girschweiler, there are no other persons known to have the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, such securities.
