BACKGROUND OF THE SOLICITATION

At the Company's 2011, 2012 and 2013 annual meetings of shareholders, Biglari Capital previously had nominated individuals for election to the Board. The following is a chronology of events leading up to the proxy solicitation related to the Special Meeting:

- On December 18, 2013, Biglari Capital filed a Schedule 13D/A with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") stating that the Board should review all potential extraordinary transactions, including the sale of the Company, to create an immediate realization of value for the benefit of all stockholders. Because of Biglari Capital's substantial investment in the Company and because Biglari Capital does not hold representation on the Board, Biglari Capital stated its willingness to participate in a process pertaining to any capacity that it may deem advisable. In the event that the Board does not promptly announce definitive action to engage in a sale process, Biglari Capital declared its intention to call a special meeting of shareholders to vote upon a non-binding resolution recommending that the Board pursue an extraordinary transaction, e.g., the sale of the Company.
- On December 24, 2013, Sardar Biglari, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Biglari Capital, delivered a letter to James W. Bradford, Chairman of the Board of the Company, in which Mr. Biglari noted that the Board's primary aim should be to sell to the highest bidder. Mr. Biglari stated that, as the Company's lead investor, owning nearly 20% of the outstanding shares, Biglari Capital was willing to lead the process by submitting a bid. Further, Mr. Biglari requested that the Board support Biglari Capital's efforts to seek an amendment to Tennessee law that would permit Biglari Capital to engage in an extraordinary transaction with the Company and give all its shareholders the ability to decide the future of their Company. Mr. Biglari reaffirmed Biglari Capital's intention to call a special meeting of shareholders if the Board refused to take meaningful steps.
- On December 30, 2013, the Company issued a press release in which it refused to commence or support a strategic alternatives review process.
- On January 26, 2014, representatives of Biglari Capital and Cracker Barrel met to discuss the Company and its business.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ADVISORY VOTE ON A PROPOSAL MADE BY BIGLARI CAPITAL THAT THE CRACKER BARREL BOARD IMMEDIATELY PURSUE ALL STRATEGIC ALTERNATIVES, INCLUDING THE SALE OF THE COMPANY

Shareholders have the opportunity to cast an advisory, non-binding vote on a proposal made by Biglari Capital that the Cracker Barrel Board immediately pursue all potential extraordinary transactions, including the sale of the Company.

We have called upon the Board to undertake a value maximization process by reviewing all potential extraordinary transactions, including a sale of the Company. Yet the Board has flatly refused, raising the pertinent question: Why would the Board be unwilling even to consider any and all steps to maximize value for its shareholders?

As the lead investor in Cracker Barrel owning nearly 20% of the outstanding shares, we believe it is our responsibility, on behalf of all shareholders, to drive the Company to create more value, especially in the face of inaction from the Board. Rather than engage with us constructively, the Board has perfunctorily dismissed our value-enhancing ideas as mere “harassment,” which we believe conveys how truly out of touch with reality is this Board.

This dissent is not the first time the Board has displayed an unbending resistance to explore all conceivable avenues to advance shareholder value. The Board initially resisted our call to license the Company’s products, yet five months later adopted the idea as its own. It has steadfastly refused to franchise its restaurants internationally, disregarding a noncapital intensive strategy that would allow it to leverage the Cracker Barrel brand in order to generate a high-return, annuity-like cash flow.

Verbatim, the Cracker Barrel Board claims:

“[T]he calling of a special meeting may be motivated by the self-interest of Biglari Capital in seeking to achieve full liquidity of this investment through a single extraordinary transaction, rather than trying to sell the shares in the open market, which may be subject to limitations under the federal securities laws. The Board believes that the interests of a single shareholder should not take priority over the long-term interests of ALL shareholders.”

We continuously must set the facts straight with the Cracker Barrel Board. Here are the facts: We have been long-term owners of the Company’s stock. Unlike the members of the Cracker Board and its management, Biglari Capital has not sold a single share of the Company’s stock since it became a large shareholder in the Company, i.e., over 5%. In contrast, the Board and management have been sellers of Cracker Barrel stock even though the preponderance of shares owned by the Board and management were given to them via stock options and grants. During the last five years, the collective Board and management have purchased only 5,000 shares. In contrast, we have purchased our 4,737,794 shares in the open market using our own capital. Therefore, we have been long-term holders of Cracker Barrel stock, and we believe any suggestion to the contrary by the Board is quite disingenuous.

When the Board makes declaratory statements verbalizing an incorrect presumption, in our view, it again displays insincerity. For instance, Cracker Barrel states: “[T]he calling of a special meeting may be motivated by the self-interest of Biglari Capital in seeking to achieve full liquidity of this investment through a single extraordinary transaction, rather than trying to sell the shares in the open market, which may be subject to limitations under the federal securities laws.” Plainly, we are under no pressure to sell our stake, for our capital is not subject to a call. Rather, we have permanent capital invested in the stock of Cracker Barrel. In fact, we have publicly indicated our willingness to submit a bid to acquire Cracker Barrel if the Board approved such a transaction. The Board also concludes, “The Board believes that the interests of a single shareholder should not take priority over the long-term interests of ALL shareholders.” This assertion indicates that the Board presumes we have divergent interests from other shareholders. But we absolutely wish to make money on equal terms with every other shareholder. Our aim is to have the Board approve a sale to the highest bidder, which would benefit all shareholders proportionally with ownership.

If we were convinced that the Cracker Barrel stock were undervalued and that management could create more value for shareholders than could be realized through a sale to the highest bidder, then we would not be advocating a sale. To make our position absolutely clear, we are willing to hold the Cracker Barrel stock indefinitely, provided that we expect the underlying business to increase in intrinsic value in double digit magnitude. The critical factor is future returns on reinvested capital to be earned at a high rate. But we do not believe current management will reinvest capital satisfactorily. We have repeatedly expressed this concern. As we have previously demonstrated, we find management’s rationale concerning new store openings to be flawed. Because of our deep concern over the return on future deployment of capital, we are forced into the following options:

1. Obtain board seats to advance ideas on better capital allocation (e.g., improve reinvestment rate on retained earnings) and better the operational performance (e.g. reverse negative traffic trends and declining operating income), among other initiatives.
2. In the absence of board representation, we are interested in seeing Cracker Barrel’s assets being put in the hands of better management. We believe there can be a significant upside to Cracker Barrel’s business under the right management, but continued downside, as demonstrated by the recent poor operating performance in the hands of current management (e.g. the declines in operating income and customer traffic for the prior two fiscal quarters). To effect such a change, we want the Board to explore a sale to a third party at a premium to Cracker Barrel’s current stock price.
3. If a sale of Cracker Barrel were approved by the Board, we would also be willing to submit a bid to purchase the Company under a structure that would allow current shareholders the opportunity to participate in the Company’s future performance. We would be willing to pay for any procedural efforts to allow us to submit a bid for the Company.

Thus we ask: What is the downside for the Board to explore strategic alternatives? If shareholders desire to enjoy immediate realization of share value, then we believe they should vote to approve a resolution recommending that the Board pursue an extraordinary transaction.

We are experienced restaurateurs. We have turned around failing restaurant businesses, grown them and have been involved in many aspects, from investment to operations. Cracker Barrel's management will tell you that their business plan is working; however, we have substantial doubts. Based on the Company's recent announcement of its results for the first two months of its 2014 second fiscal quarter, any limited progress the Company has made has evidently stalled, with customer traffic down 2.5% and comparable restaurant sales also turning negative. Moreover, operating income was down 2.4% in the Company's first quarter of 2014.

Apparently, though, Cracker Barrel's Board and management believe that one year of mediocre results insulates them from critique. If so, they are ignoring the prevailing winds of change in the restaurant industry, which has seen prominent competitors such as Darden Restaurants, Bob Evans Farms, DineEquity among others come under pressure to create more value for shareholders, including through the implementation of strategic measures. In our view, shareholders should never be satisfied unless they are certain that management is doing everything in its power to maximize value. It is the duty of boards of directors to be responsive to its constituents' concerns and disquiet.

Consequently, the Board has left us with no choice but to take our proposal directly to shareholders so they may have their voices raised in deciding their Company's future. We have expressed our willingness to lead the process by submitting a bid if a sale of Cracker Barrel were approved by the Board. The Tennessee Business Combination Act, however, is currently an obstacle to our ability to proceed with such a transaction, even if approved by the Board. Therefore, any proposal we make would necessarily be conditioned on (i) obtaining an amendment to the Tennessee Business Combination Act that would enable us to consummate this acquisition and (ii) gaining the approval of the acquisition by an independent vote of shareholders, as would be permitted by the amendment to Tennessee law. The Board has refused to assist us in seeking the required amendment. Accordingly, we need your support to bring this value-maximizing transaction to fruition.

We also believe that were the Company to embark on a comprehensive strategic alternatives review (a process that we would fully support) it may find other potential acquirors ready, willing and able to pay a premium price. In our view, abundant opportunities exist to operate the Company's business in a far more efficient manner than that afforded by present management. The current credit market conditions make this an ideal time to secure the required financing. In spite of the opportune moment, time is of the essence. We believe the Company must act now to take advantage of the favorable financing environment before the window closes.

In conclusion, we believe the vote on the Sale Proposals comes down to a simple choice, a vote of confidence in current management. If you are convinced that current management, independent of our proposal to seek strategic alternatives, can deliver to all shareholders a meaningful improvement in the current share price within a short period of time by staying the course with its present business plan, then you should consider voting for management's recommendation. If, however, you have any doubts about the Board's and the management's ability to maximize the value of your shares, and believe that the Sale Proposals represent the more certain path toward realizing Cracker Barrel's intrinsic value, then we urge you to vote "FOR" the Sale Proposals. Your vote for the Sale Proposals would not constitute a vote in favor of an acquisition of the Company by us, which would be subject to a separate shareholder vote in the event the Company and we enter into a definitive acquisition agreement.

For the reasons written above, we strongly recommend that you vote "FOR" this proposal.

YOU ARE URGED TO VOTE "FOR" THIS PROPOSAL ON THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD

PROPOSAL NO. 2

ADVISORY VOTE ON A PROPOSAL MADE BY BIGLARI CAPITAL THAT THE BOARD TAKE ANY ACTION NECESSARY TO AMEND THE TENNESSEE BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT TO PERMIT BIGLARI CAPITAL TO ENGAGE IN AN EXTRAORDINARY TRANSACTION WITH THE COMPANY

Shareholders have the opportunity to cast an advisory, non-binding vote on a proposal made by Biglari Capital that the Board take any action necessary to amend the Tennessee Business Corporation Act to permit Biglari Capital to engage in an extraordinary transaction with the Company.

Biglari Capital has a substantial investment in Cracker Barrel, yet the Company has refused to afford us representation on the Board that would have enabled us to work constructively with the directors to maximize value for all shareholders. As has become clear to us based upon our long-term ownership of Cracker Barrel's shares, including as demonstrated above, we do not believe the Board and management are able to maximize the intrinsic business value of the Company. In contrast, we perceive significant upside under our management. Accordingly, we have stated our willingness to enter into discussions to acquire the Company in a transaction that we give credit to as in the best interests of all shareholders. However, the only way for shareholders to benefit from this transaction is through an amendment to the Tennessee Business Corporation Act that would allow this acquisition to proceed following approval by an independent vote of shareholders. We firmly believe that strong backing from our fellow shareholders on this proposal would provide a compelling impetus for Cracker Barrel to actively seek such an amendment.

Because of the reasons set forth above and under Proposal No. 1, we strongly recommend that you vote "FOR" this proposal.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

Only shareholders of record on the Record Date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting. Each Share is entitled to one vote. Shareholders who sell Shares before the Record Date (or acquire them without voting rights after the Record Date) may not vote such Shares. Shareholders of record on the Record Date will retain their voting rights in connection with the Special Meeting even if they sell their Shares after the Record Date. Based on publicly available information, we believe that the only outstanding class of securities of the Company entitled to vote at the Special Meeting is the Shares.

Shares represented by properly executed GOLD proxy cards will be voted at the Special Meeting as marked and, in the absence of specific instructions, will be voted FOR the Sale Proposals and in the discretion of the persons named as proxies on all other matters as may properly come before the Special Meeting.

QUORUM; DISCRETIONARY VOTING

In order to constitute a quorum with respect to each matter to be presented at the Special Meeting, a majority of the outstanding Shares as of the Record Date must be present at the Special Meeting either in person or by proxy. If you vote, your Shares will be part of the quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes will count as Shares that are present for the purpose of establishing a quorum, but will not be counted as votes cast either in favor of or against a particular proposal. A “broker non-vote” is a proxy submitted by a bank, broker or other custodian that does not indicate a vote for some of the proposals because the broker does not have or does not exercise discretionary voting authority on certain types of proposals and has not received instructions from its client as to how to vote on those proposals.

There are no “routine” matters for purposes of the Special Meeting. Brokers cannot vote on their customers’ behalf on “non-routine” proposals. If you hold your Shares in street name and do not provide voting instructions to your bank, broker, or other custodian, your Shares will not be voted on a proposal on which your broker does not have or does not exercise discretionary authority to vote, including any non-routine matter for which you do not provide voting instructions. A broker non-vote on a proposal presented at the Special Meeting will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal.

VOTE REQUIRED

Sale Proposals. According to the Company’s proxy statement, with respect to each of the Sale Proposals, in order to be approved, the number of Shares voted FOR such proposal must exceed the number of Shares voted AGAINST such proposal. A shareholder who abstains with respect to the Sale Proposals will have no effect on the outcome of the vote for such proposals.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES

Shareholders of the Company may revoke their proxies at any time prior to exercise by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Special Meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy) or by delivering a written notice of revocation. The delivery of a subsequently dated proxy which is properly completed will constitute a revocation of any earlier proxy. The revocation may be delivered either to Biglari Capital in care of Alliance Advisors LLC at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement or to the Cracker Barrel at 305 Hartmann Drive, Lebanon, Tennessee 37087, Attention: Corporate Secretary, or any other address provided by Cracker Barrel. Although a revocation is effective if delivered to Cracker Barrel, Biglari Capital requests that either the original or photostatic copies of all revocations be mailed to Biglari Capital in care of Alliance Advisors LLC at the address set forth on the back cover of this Proxy Statement so that we will be aware of all revocations and can more accurately determine if and when proxies have been received from the holders of record on the Record Date of a majority of the outstanding Shares. Additionally, Alliance Advisors LLC may use this information to contact shareholders who have revoked their proxies in order to solicit later dated proxies for the approval of the Sale Proposals.

IF YOU WISH TO VOTE FOR THE SALE PROPOSALS, PLEASE SIGN, DATE AND RETURN PROMPTLY THE ENCLOSED GOLD PROXY CARD IN THE POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE PROVIDED.
