ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

Pursuant to the terms of an employment agreement, as amended, effective as of August 27, 1992, Ronald Feinstein became the Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company on October 1, 1992, and the President and Chief Executive Officer on January 1, 1993. Mr. Feinstein receives a base salary of not less than $200,000 annually. Upon termination by the Company of his employment as Chief Executive Officer and his membership on the Board of Directors, other than for cause, Mr. Feinstein will continue to receive his salary for 12 months. On June 14, 1996, Mr. Feinstein's employment agreement was amended to provide that in the event of a change in control of the Company following which Mr. Feinstein no longer serves as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company within the Boston, Massachusetts metropolitan area or as a director of the Company, Mr. Feinstein may terminate the employment agreement and be paid three times his salary and bonus for the preceding fiscal year (subject to downward adjustment for any excess parachute payment as defined in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended).

Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Feinstein's employment agreement, Mr. Feinstein is eligible to receive a bonus equal to 40% of his base salary if the Company achieves the annual profit performance plan goals adopted by the Board of Directors and a bonus of greater than 40% of his base salary if the Company exceeds such goals. In February 2001, the Board of Directors increased Mr. Feinstein's bonus for achieving such goals to 50% of his base salary and greater than 50% of his base salary if the Company exceeds such goals. Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Feinstein will continue to serve as a member of the Board of Directors during the period of his employment.

Pursuant to his employment agreement, on August 27, 1992, Mr. Feinstein also received a nonstatutory stock option to purchase up to 150,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $3.00 per share (which represented the fair market value on the date of grant), vesting one-fifth on the date of grant and one-fifth on each of the next four anniversary dates. The original expiration date of this stock option was August 27, 1997. On December 6, 1995, the Stock Option Plans Committee extended the exercise period of the option for an additional five years, so that the option will expire on August 27, 2002. Mr. Feinstein exercised the remaining outstanding stock options on October 31, 2001.

Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Feinstein was also granted a stock option to purchase up to 100,000 shares of Common Stock at $3.00 per share (which represented the fair market value on the date of grant), subject to a vesting schedule that originally provided for vesting in three equal annual installments commencing April 15 in the year following the achievement of certain financial goals. On September 27, 1995, the Stock Option Plans Committee amended this option to provide for vesting on the earlier of the six-year anniversary of the date of grant or in three equal annual installments commencing April 15 in the year following the achievement of certain financial goals. On June 14, 1996, Mr. Feinstein's employment agreement was amended to provide for full vesting of this option in any event on August 27, 1998. The original expiration date of this option was six years from the date of grant, but on June 14, 1996 the Compensation Committee extended the exercise period of the option to seven years from the date of grant, so that the option would expire on August 27, 1999.

In August 1999, the Company loaned $300,000 to Mr. Feinstein pursuant to a secured promissory note (the "First Note") for the exercise of the aforementioned stock option which was to expire. The First Note, which bears interest at a rate of 6.77% per annum, payable annually in arrears, is due August 23, 2004 and is secured by a pledge of 16,552 shares of Common Stock of the Company. In connection with the First Note, the Company and Mr. Feinstein entered an Agreement for Purchase and Sale of Common Stock pursuant to which Mr. Feinstein has the right to put 70,459 shares (representing the net number of shares issued to Mr. Feinstein with the proceeds of the loan, after withholding for taxes) back to the Company at a price equal to $16.3125 per share at any time during the 18-month period following April 30, 2001. As of October 31, 2001, $300,000 plus accrued interest was outstanding on the First Note.

In April 2000, the Company loaned $250,000 to Mr. Feinstein, pursuant to a collateralized promissory note (the "Second Note"). The Second Note which bears interest at a rate of 6.94% payable annually in arrears, is due April 5, 2005 and is collateralized by a pledge of 25,641 shares of Common Stock of the Company. As of October 31, 2001, $250,000 plus accrued interest was outstanding on the Second Note.
