HUNTINGTON BANCSHARES ANNOUNCES
FEDERAL RESERVE APPROVAL OF MERGER

COLUMBUS and BOWLING GREEN, Ohio – Huntington Bancshares Incorporated (NASDAQ: HBAN) today announced that the Federal Reserve Board has approved its merger application of Sky Financial Group Inc. (NASDAQ:SKYF). This was the final banking regulatory approval necessary for the merger originally announced December 20, 2006. The merger was previously approved by Huntington shareholders at their May 30, 2007 shareholder meeting, and by Sky Financial shareholders at their meeting earlier today. The merger is expected to close early in the third quarter, subject to other customary closing conditions.

Under the terms of the agreement, Sky Financial Group shareholders will receive 1.098 shares of Huntington common stock, on a tax-free basis, and a taxable cash payment of $3.023 for each share of Sky Financial Group.

“Receiving this approval permits us to move ahead with the merger in a timely manner,” said Thomas E. Hoaglin, chairman, president, and chief executive officer. “Integration planning teams are making very good progress and we look forward to delivering the benefits of this merger to our shareholders, customers, and communities.”

Forward-looking Statement

This press release contains forward-looking statements. These include descriptions of products or services, plans or objectives for future operations, including statements about the benefits of the merger between Huntington Bancshares Incorporated ("Huntington") and Sky Financial Group, Inc. ("Sky Financial"), and forecasts of revenues, earnings, cash flows, or other measures of economic performance. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. By their nature, forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties. A number of factors could cause actual conditions, events, or results to differ significantly from those described in the forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, the businesses of Huntington and Sky Financial may not be integrated successfully or such integration may take longer to accomplish than expected; the expected cost savings and any revenue synergies from the acquisition may not be fully realized within the expected timeframes; disruption from the acquisition may make it more difficult to maintain relationships with clients, associates, or suppliers; Huntington and/or Sky Financial's stockholders may not approve the merger; changes in economic conditions; movements in interest rates; competitive pressures on product pricing and services; success and timing of other business strategies; the nature, extent, and timing of governmental actions and reforms; and extended disruption of vital infrastructure; and other factors described in Huntington's 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K, Sky Financial's 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K, and documents subsequently filed by Huntington and Sky Financial with the Securities and Exchange Commission. You should understand forward-looking statements to be strategic objectives and not absolute forecasts of future performance. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. Neither Huntington nor Sky Financial assumes any obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements were made or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Additional Information About the Merger and Where to Find It
