PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is being provided to shareowners in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareowners to be held on Monday, July 29, 2002.

VOTING PROCEDURES

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Whether or not you plan to attend the meeting, please take the time to vote your shares as soon as possible. Your prompt voting via the Internet, telephone or mail may save us the expense of a second mailing.

METHODS OF VOTING

All shareowners may vote by mail.

Shareowners of record, as well as shareowners who hold shares in Honeywell savings plans, can vote via the Internet or by telephone.

Shareowners who hold their shares through a bank or broker can vote via the Internet or by telephone if the bank or broker offers these options.

Please see your proxy card for specific voting instructions.

REVOKING YOUR PROXY

Whether you vote by mail, telephone or via the Internet, you may later revoke your proxy by:

sending a written statement to that effect to the Secretary of Honeywell;

submitting a properly signed proxy with a later date;

voting by telephone or via the Internet at a later time; or voting in person at the Annual Meeting (except for shares held in the savings plans).

VOTE REQUIRED

The vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present or represented and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for election as a director.

The affirmative vote of a majority of shares present or represented and entitled to vote on each of Proposals 2 through 5 is required for approval.

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

ABSTENTIONS AND BROKER NON-VOTES

Abstentions are not counted as votes 'for' or 'against' a proposal, but are counted in determining the number of shares present or represented on a proposal. Therefore, since approval of Proposals 2 through 5 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present or represented, abstentions have the same effect as a vote 'against' those proposals. New York Stock Exchange rules prohibit brokers from voting on Proposals 3 through 5 without receiving instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares. In the absence of instructions, shares subject to such 'broker non-votes' will not be counted as voted or as present or represented on those proposals.

OTHER BUSINESS

The persons named as proxies in the accompanying proxy card intend to vote against proposals which Honeywell has received from shareowners who did not submit them for inclusion in the Proxy Statement, but have given notice that they may seek to present them at the Annual Meeting. Such proposals are: a proposal on 'Company policy that auditors not perform any work for the company in addition to auditing,' and a proposal on 'Company policy to name annually the directors who have philanthropic links to the company and the latest annual sum.' The Board knows of no other matters to be presented for shareowner action at the meeting. If other matters are properly brought before the meeting, the persons named as proxies in the accompanying proxy card intend to vote the shares represented by them in accordance with their best judgment.

CONFIDENTIAL VOTING POLICY

It is our policy that any proxy, ballot or other voting material that identifies the particular vote of a shareowner and contains the shareowner's request for confidential treatment will be kept confidential, except in the event of a contested proxy solicitation or as may be required by law. We may be informed whether or not a particular shareowner has voted and will have access to any comment written on a proxy, ballot or other material and to the identity of the commenting shareowner. Under the policy, the inspectors of election at any shareowner meeting will be independent parties unaffiliated with Honeywell.

SHARES OUTSTANDING

At the close of business on March 31, 2002, there were approximately 817,610,376 shares of Honeywell common stock outstanding. Each share outstanding as of the May 31, 2002 record date is entitled to one vote.

ATTENDANCE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

If you are a shareowner of record who plans to attend the meeting, please mark the appropriate box on your proxy card or follow the instructions provided when you vote by telephone or via the Internet. If your shares are held by a bank, broker or other intermediary and you plan to attend, please send written notification to Honeywell Shareowner Services, P.O. Box 50000, Morris Township, New Jersey 07962, and enclose evidence of your ownership (such as a letter from the bank, broker or intermediary confirming your ownership or a bank or brokerage firm account statement). The names of all those planning to attend will be placed on an admission list held at the registration desk at the entrance to the meeting.

BOARD MEETINGS -- COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

The Board of Directors held eight regular meetings and three special meetings during 2001. The average attendance at meetings of the Board and Board Committees during 2001 was 94%.

The Board currently has the following committees: Audit; Corporate Governance; Corporate Responsibility; Management Development and Compensation and Retirement Plans. Membership and principal responsibilities of the Board committees are described below.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The members of the Audit Committee are:

Russell E. Palmer (Chair)

Hans W. Becherer

Marshall N. Carter

Ann M. Fudge

James J. Howard

John R. Stafford

Michael W. Wright

The Audit Committee met six times in 2001. The primary functions of this Committee are to: recommend the firm to be appointed as independent accountants to audit our financial statements and to perform services related to the audit; review the scope and results of the audit with the independent accountants; review with management and the independent accountants our interim and year-end operating results; consider the adequacy of the internal accounting and auditing procedures of Honeywell; and consider the accountants' independence. At each meeting Committee members meet privately with representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, our independent auditors, and with the Director of Honeywell's Corporate Audit Department.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

The members of the Corporate Governance Committee are:

Bruce Karatz (Chair)

Hans W. Becherer

Jaime Chico Pardo

Robert P. Luciano

Russell E. Palmer

Ivan G. Seidenberg

Michael W. Wright

The Corporate Governance Committee met two times in 2001. The primary functions of this Committee are to: review policies and make recommendations to the Board, as appropriate, concerning the size and composition of the Board; the qualifications and criteria for election to the Board, and procedures for shareowner nomination of candidates for the Board; retirement from the Board; compensation and benefits of non-employee directors; and to review periodically the overall effectiveness of the Board. The Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors will consider qualified nominees for director recommended by shareowners. Recommendations should be submitted in writing to the attention of the Vice President and Secretary, Honeywell, 101 Columbia Road, Morris Township, New Jersey 07962.

CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY COMMITTEE

The members of the Corporate Responsibility Committee are:

Ann M. Fudge (Chair)

Gordon M. Bethune

Marshall N. Carter

James J. Howard

The Corporate Responsibility Committee met one time in 2001. The primary function of this Committee is to review the policies and programs that are designed to assure Honeywell's compliance with legal and ethical standards and that affect its role as a responsible corporate citizen, including those relating to human resources issues such as equal employment opportunity, to health, safety and environmental matters and to proper business practices.

MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT AND COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The members of the Management Development and Compensation Committee are:

Robert P. Luciano (Chair)

Hans W. Becherer

Gordon M. Bethune

Bruce Karatz

Ivan G. Seidenberg

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

John R. Stafford

The Management Development and Compensation Committee met eight times in 2001. The primary functions of this Committee are to: review and recommend the compensation arrangements for officers; approve compensation arrangements for other senior level employees; consider matters related to management development and succession and recommend individuals for election as officers; and review or take such other action as may be required in connection with the bonus, stock and other benefit plans of Honeywell and its subsidiaries.

RETIREMENT PLANS COMMITTEE

The members of the Retirement Plans Committee are:

Michael W. Wright (Chair)

Jaime Chico Pardo

Ann M. Fudge

Robert P. Luciano

Russell E. Palmer

John R. Stafford

The Retirement Plans Committee met two times in 2001. The primary responsibilities of this Committee are to: appoint the trustees for funds under the employee pension benefit plans of Honeywell and certain subsidiaries; review funding strategies; set investment policy for fund assets; and oversee and appoint members of other committees investing fund assets.

ITEM 1 -- ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

NOMINEES

Honeywell's Board of Directors is divided into three classes that serve staggered three-year terms and are as nearly equal in number as possible. The Board has nominated five candidates for election as directors for a term ending at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

All nominees are currently serving as directors. If prior to the Annual Meeting any nominee should become unavailable to serve, the shares represented by a properly signed and returned proxy card or voted by telephone or Internet will be voted for the election of such other person as may be designated by the Board of Directors, or the Board may determine to leave the vacancy temporarily unfilled or reduce the authorized number of directors pursuant to the By-laws. Mr. Lawrence A. Bossidy, our current Chairman, is expected to retire on June 30, 2002, prior to the Annual Meeting, at which time Mr. David M. Cote will become Chairman.

Certain information regarding each nominee and each director continuing in office after the Annual Meeting is set forth below.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Directors who are employees of Honeywell receive no compensation for service on the Board. Each non-employee director receives an annual Board retainer of $65,000, of which $20,000 is automatically credited to the director's account in the Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors in the form of common stock equivalents (which are only payable after termination of Board service). They also receive a fee of $2,000 for Board meetings attended on any day (11 during 2001), an annual retainer of $7,000 for each Board Committee served, and an additional Committee Chair retainer of $5,000 for the Audit and Management Development and Compensation Committees and $3,000 for all other Board Committees. While no fees are generally paid for attending Committee meetings, a $1,000 fee is paid for attendance at a Committee meeting, or other extraordinary meeting related to Board business which occurs apart from a Board meeting. Non-employee directors are also provided with $350,000 in business travel accident insurance and are eligible to elect $100,000 in term life insurance and medical and dental coverage for themselves and their eligible dependents.

Directors may elect to defer, until a specified calendar year or retirement from the Board, all or any portion of their annual retainers and fees that are not automatically deferred and to have such compensation credited to their account in the Deferred Compensation Plan. Amounts credited either accrue interest (10 percent for 2002) or are valued as if invested in common stock equivalents or one of the other funds available to participants in our savings plan. Amounts deferred in a common stock account earn amounts equivalent to dividends. Upon a change of control, a director will be entitled to a lump-sum payment of all deferred amounts.

Under the Stock Plan for Non-Employee Directors, each new director receives a one-time grant of 3,000 shares of common stock, which are subject to transfer restrictions until the director's service terminates with the consent of a majority of the Board, provided termination occurs at or after age 65. During the restricted period, the director has the right to receive dividends on and the right to vote the shares. At the end of the restricted period, a director is entitled to one-fifth of the shares granted for each year of service (up to five). However, the shares will be forfeited if the director's service terminates (other than for death or disability) prior to the end of the restricted period. The Plan also provides for an annual grant to each director of options to purchase 2,000 shares of common stock at the fair market value on the date of grant. Option grants vest in cumulative installments of 40 percent on April 1 of the year following the grant date and an additional 30 percent on April 1 of each of the next two years. These options also become fully vested at the earliest of the director's retirement from the board at or after age 70, death, or disability.

ITEM 2 -- APPROVAL OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

Upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, which is composed entirely of independent directors, the Board of Directors has appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ('PwC') as independent accountants for the Company to audit its consolidated financial statements for 2002 and to perform audit-related services, including review of our quarterly interim financial information and periodic reports and registration statements filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and consultation in connection with various accounting and financial reporting matters. PwC provided audit and other services during 2001 for fees totaling $23.0 million. This included the following fees:

Audit Fees: $5.4 million for the annual audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements and quarterly reviews of interim financial statements in the Company's Form 10-Q reports;

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees: $0;

All Other Fees: $8.1 million for tax services; $9.1 million for audit-related services primarily associated with the Company's mergers and acquisitions activity and various international regulatory filings; and $0.4 million for all other services.

In accordance with its Charter, the Audit Committee reviews with PwC whether the non-audit services provided by them are compatible with maintaining their independence.

The Board has directed that the appointment of PwC be submitted to the shareowners for approval. If the shareowners do not approve, the Audit Committee and the Board will reconsider the appointment.

Honeywell has been advised by PwC that it will have a representative present at the Annual Meeting who will be available to respond to appropriate questions. The representative will also have the opportunity to make a statement if he desires to do so.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREOWNERS VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE APPOINTMENT OF PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS LLP AS INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Honeywell International Board of Directors (the Committee) is composed of independent directors and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors (See page 13).

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and preparing the Company's consolidated financial statements. The Company's independent accountants are responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing a report thereon. The Committee is responsible for overseeing the conduct of these activities and recommending to the Board of Directors, subject to shareowner ratification, the selection of the Company's independent accountants. As stated above and in the Committee's charter, the Committee's responsibility is one of oversight. The Committee does not provide any expert or special assurance as to Honeywell's financial statements concerning compliance with laws, regulations or generally accepted accounting principles. In performing its oversight function, the Committee relies, without independent verification, on the information provided to them and on representations made by management and the independent auditors.

The Committee reviewed and discussed the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 with management and the independent accountants. Management represented to the Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Committee discussed with the independent accountants matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standard No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees.

The Company's independent accountants provided to the Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and the Committee discussed with the independent accountants their independence.

Based on the Committee's discussion with management and the independent accountants and the Committee's review of the representation of management and the report of the independent accountants, the Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Committee shall review this Charter on an annual basis and recommend any changes to the Board for approval.

I. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be composed of three or more members of the Board of Directors who meet the independence and financial expertise requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

The members of the Committee shall be elected by the Board at the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee. If an Audit Committee Chair is not designated or present, the members may designate a Chair by majority vote.

II. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least four times each fiscal year. The Committee shall meet at least annually with management, the chief internal auditor and the independent auditors in separate executive sessions.

III. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee shall provide assistance to the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to the Company's accounting and financial reporting practices and internal control system.

The Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Committee is responsible for overseeing the conduct of these activities by the Company's management and the independent auditors.

The following shall be the primary activities of the Committee in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. The Committee may, from time to time, alter its procedures as appropriate given the circumstances and shall perform such other functions as may be assigned to it by law, the Company's charter, the By-laws or by the Board.

1. Review the results of each external audit of the Company's financial statements, including any certification, report, opinion or review rendered by the independent auditor in connection with the financial statements.
2. Review other matters related to the conduct of the audit which are communicated to the Committee under generally accepted auditing standards.
3. Based on the review and discussions under 1 and 2 above, the Committee will advise the Board of Directors whether it recommends that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K and prepare the Committee report to be included in the Company's proxy statement in accordance with Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

4. Review with management and the independent auditors, prior to the filing thereof, the Company's interim financial results to be included in the Form 10-Q and the matters required to be communicated to the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. The Chair of the Committee may represent the entire Committee for purposes of the interim review.

5. Recommend to the Board the firm to be engaged as the Company's independent auditor, which firm is ultimately accountable to the Audit Committee and the Board.

6. Approve the fees to be paid to the independent auditor, evaluate the firm's performance and, if appropriate, recommend its discharge.

7. Receive from the independent auditor annually a formal written statement delineating the relationships between the auditors and the Company consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1. The Committee shall discuss with the auditor the scope of any disclosed relationships and their impact or potential impact on the auditor's independence and objectivity, and recommend that the full Board take appropriate action to satisfy itself of the auditor's independence.

8. Review reports of the independent auditor and the chief internal auditor related to the adequacy of the Company's internal accounting controls, including any management letters and management's responses to recommendations made by the independent auditor or the chief internal auditor.

9. Consider, in consultation with the independent auditor and the chief internal auditor, the scope and plan of forthcoming external and internal audits, the involvement of the internal auditors in the audit examination, and the independent auditor's responsibility under generally accepted auditing standards.

10. The Committee shall have the power to inquire into any financial matters not set forth above, and shall perform such other functions as may be assigned to it by law, or the Company's charter or By-laws, or by the Board.

STOCK OWNERSHIP INFORMATION

COMPLIANCE WITH BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

The rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission require that we disclose late filings of reports of stock ownership (and changes in stock ownership) by our directors and executive officers. To the best of Honeywell's knowledge, all of the filings for our executive officers and directors were made on a timely basis in 2001 except that the ownership of 421 shares by Larry E. Kittelberger, Senior Vice President Administration and Chief Information Officer, was reported after the filing deadline.

STOCK OWNERSHIP OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

In general, 'beneficial ownership' includes those shares a director or executive officer has the power to vote or transfer, and stock options that are exercisable currently or within 60 days. On March 31, 2002, the directors and executive officers of Honeywell beneficially owned, in the aggregate, 7,097,223 shares of common stock which are included in the table below. Directors and executive officers also have interests in stock-based units under Honeywell's plans. While these units may not be voted or transferred, we have included them in the table below as they represent the total economic interest of the directors and executive officers in Honeywell stock.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Management Development and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, determines the compensation of Honeywell's executive officers and oversees the administration of executive compensation programs. The Committee is composed entirely of independent directors.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION POLICIES AND PROGRAMS

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

Honeywell's executive compensation programs are designed to attract and retain highly qualified executives and to motivate them to maximize shareowner returns by achieving aggressive goals. The programs link each executive's compensation directly to Honeywell's performance. A significant portion of each executive's compensation is dependent upon stock price appreciation and meeting financial goals and other individual performance objectives.

Each year, the Committee reviews the executive compensation policies with respect to the linkage between executive compensation and the creation of shareowner value, as well as the competitiveness of the programs. The Committee determines what changes, if any, are appropriate in the compensation programs of the Company. With Board authorization, the Committee approves salary actions and determines the amount of annual bonus and the number and amount of long-term awards for officers.

Honeywell intends to the extent practicable, to preserve deductibility under the Internal Revenue Code of compensation paid to its executive officers while maintaining compensation programs to attract and retain highly qualified executives in a competitive environment. Accordingly, compensation paid under Honeywell's stock plan and incentive compensation plan is generally deductible although certain compensation paid to some executives may not be deductible.

COMPONENTS OF COMPENSATION

There are three basic components to Honeywell's 'pay for performance' system: base pay; annual incentive bonus; and long-term incentive compensation (primarily stock options). Each component is addressed in the context of competitive conditions. In determining competitive compensation levels, Honeywell analyzes information from several independent compensation surveys, which include information regarding large industrial and other companies that compete with us for executive talent.

Base Pay. Base pay is designed to be competitive within 20% above or below median salary levels at other large companies for equivalent positions. The executive's actual salary relative to this competitive framework varies based on individual performance and the individual's skills, experience and background.

Annual Incentive Bonus. Award levels, like the base salary levels, are set with reference to competitive conditions and are intended to motivate the executives by providing substantial bonus payments for the achievement of aggressive goals. The actual amounts paid for 2001 were determined by performance based on two factors: first, financial performance, which was measured against objectives established for revenue growth, free cash flow and earnings per share; and second, the individual executive's performance against other specific management objectives, such as improving customer satisfaction, increasing the use of Six Sigma processes and driving learning and digitization strategies. Financial objectives were given greater weight than other management objectives in determining bonus payments. The types and relative importance of specific financial and other business objectives varied among Honeywell's executives depending on their positions and the particular operations or functions for which they were responsible.

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

Long Term Incentive Compensation. The principal purpose of the long-term incentive compensation program is to encourage Honeywell's executives to enhance the value of Honeywell and, hence, the price of the Common Stock and the shareowners' return. The long-term incentive component of the compensation system (through extended vesting) is also designed to create an incentive for the individual to remain with Honeywell.

The long-term, equity-based compensation program consists primarily of stock option grants that vest over a multi-year period. Honeywell periodically grants new awards to provide continuing incentives for future performance. Like the annual bonus, award levels are set with regard to competitive considerations, and each individual's actual award is based upon the individual's performance, potential for increased responsibility and contributions, leadership ability and commitment to Honeywell's strategic efforts.

In addition to stock options, awards of restricted units, each of which entitles the holder to one share of Common Stock on vesting, may be made on a select basis to individual executives in order to enhance the incentive for them to remain with Honeywell. These units vest over an extended period of up to five years.

Shortly following the decision of the European Union prohibiting the proposed merger of Honeywell International Inc. and General Electric in July 2001, the Committee approved grants of stock options and restricted units grants to executive officers and approximately 6,100 other employees at all levels of the organization. The timing of these grants was designed to reaffirm the confidence placed in executives and to emphasize the value they provide to the Company during periods of change. Also, these awards were intended to replace the annual grant for 2001 that would have typically been made in the first quarter.

COMPENSATION OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

In determining the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, the Committee considers three factors: the absolute and relative performance of the business (particularly in determining bonus awards); the market for such positions (in establishing total compensation levels); and Honeywell's compensation strategy (in determining the mix of pay components).

In general, Honeywell's strategy is to emphasize linkage to shareowner returns through a predominant emphasis on stock options in the total compensation mix.

The Board of Directors asked Mr. Bossidy to return to the role of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Honeywell International Inc. on July 3, 2001 to lead the company out of the difficult situation resulting from the failed combination with GE. In addition to addressing other key issues, Mr. Bossidy led the recruitment of his successor and on February 19, 2002, Mr. Cote was named President and Chief Executive Officer of Honeywell International Inc. Mr. Cote is slated to assume the role of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer for Honeywell International Inc. upon Mr. Bossidy's retirement on June 30, 2002.

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

Mr. Bossidy's actual salary for 2001 was $992,308. Consistent with Mr. Bossidy's employment agreement covering his return to Honeywell and based on Honeywell's financial performance in terms of revenue growth, earnings per share growth and free cash flow, and his initiatives restoring the company to a sound footing, Mr. Bossidy received an annual incentive payment of $1,000,000 for 2001. This incentive payment was consistent with Mr. Bossidy's employment agreement and his achievement of performance standards set by the Board.

Mr. Bossidy also received a grant in July of 2001 of 500,000 stock options. These options become 100% exercisable on July 1, 2002.

Mr. Bonsignore's salary and bonus were determined in accordance with his employment agreement and his early retirement agreement.

Mr. Cote entered into an employment agreement with Honeywell International that provides for his employment as President and Chief Executive Officer through June 30, 2002 and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer effective July 1, 2002 through June 30, 2007. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Cote will have an annual salary of at least $1,500,000 and an annual bonus target of at least 125 percent of his base salary. Mr. Cote was granted 2,202,200 stock options and 770,000 restricted units on his start date. He also received a cash payment of $2,700,000, the amount due him under the bonus plan of his prior employer, but not paid by that employer.

(1) Options are valued using a Black-Scholes option pricing model which assumes a historic five-year average volatility of 40.8 percent, the average dividend yield for the three years ended December 31, 2001 (1.5 percent), a 5.2 percent risk-free rate of return (based on the five-year U.S. Treasury note yield on the date of grant), and an expected option life of 5.0 years based on past experience. No adjustments are made for non-transferability or risk of forfeiture. Options will have no actual value unless, and then only to the extent that, the common stock price appreciates from the grant date to the exercise date. If the grant date present values are realized, total shareowner value will have appreciated by approximately $11.3 billion, and the value of the granted options reflected in the table will be less than 0.15 percent of the total shareowner appreciation.

(2) Vests 100 percent on July 1, 2002.

(3) Vests 40 percent on January 1, 2002 and 30 percent on each of January 1, 2003 and 2004.

EMPLOYMENT AND TERMINATION ARRANGEMENTS

Mr. Bossidy's employment agreement provides for his employment as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer through June 30, 2002. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Bossidy will have an annual salary of at least $2,000,000 and will have an annual target bonus equal to 100 percent of base salary. If his employment is terminated prior to the expiration of his agreement, Honeywell will continue to provide Mr. Bossidy with compensation, benefits, and other compensation arrangements for the balance of the outstanding term.

Mr. Cote's employment agreement provides for his employment as President and Chief Executive Officer through June 30, 2002 and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer effective July 1, 2002 through June 30, 2007. During the term of the agreement Mr. Cote will have an annual salary of at least $1,500,000 and an annual target bonus equal to 125 percent of his base salary. If his employment is terminated prior to the expiration of his agreement, Honeywell will continue to provide Mr. Cote with compensation, benefits, and other compensation arrangements for the balance of the outstanding term.

Mr. Bonsignore's employment agreement provided for his employment as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer through December 31, 2004. During the term of the agreement, Mr. Bonsignore was entitled to receive an annual salary of at least $1,500,000 and an annual target bonus equal to 100 percent of base salary. Under the terms of his agreement, he was entitled to a severance payment of three times his annual salary and bonus upon his retirement in July 2001.

Under the Severance Plan for Senior Executives, the current executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table would be entitled to payments equivalent to base salary and annual incentive bonus (and continuation of certain benefits, such as group life and medical insurance coverage) for a period of 36 months if their employment is terminated other than for 'gross cause' (which includes fraud and criminal conduct). The payments would be made in a lump sum following a change in control. The Severance Plan for Senior Executives provides for an additional payment sufficient to eliminate the effect of any applicable excise tax on severance payments in excess of an amount determined under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. Payments subject to the excise tax would not be deductible by Honeywell.

RETIREMENT BENEFITS

The following table illustrates the estimated annual pension benefits which would be provided on retirement at age 65 under Honeywell's retirement program and an unfunded supplemental retirement plan, after applicable deductions for Social Security benefits, to salaried employees having specified average annual remuneration and years of service.

The benefit amounts shown in the Pension Table are computed on a straight life annuity basis. At January 1, 2002, the following individuals had the indicated number of years of credited service for pension purposes:

Mr. Bossidy, 9; Mr. Bonsignore, 31; Mr. R. Johnson, 7; Mr. Kreindler, 10; Mr. Wallman, 6; and Dr. B. Johnson, 2.

The amounts in the Salary and Bonus columns of the Summary Compensation Table for 2001 would be included in computing remuneration for pension purposes as well as any payroll based reward and recognition awards. Average annual remuneration under the retirement program is calculated based on the highest paid 60 consecutive months of an employee's last 120 months of employment.

Under their employment agreements, Messrs. Bossidy, Cote and Bonsignore are entitled to receive during their lifetimes, commencing on retirement, Honeywell facilities and services comparable to those provided prior to their retirement, and a retirement benefit equivalent to 60 percent of final average compensation (based on their highest three years of salary and bonus) payable annually for life. Benefits under the agreements will be reduced by any retirement benefits payable under Honeywell's retirement and supplemental retirement plans, and under certain circumstances, benefits payable under retirement plans of former employers. Mr. Bonsignore's early retirement agreement increases his retirement benefit to 70 percent of final average compensation.

Dr. B. Johnson is covered by a pension arrangement that provides an age 60 retirement benefit of $36,139, payable annually for life, to complement the benefit from his former employer.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In connection with certain tax planning for Honeywell, we secured supplemental retirement payments for three executives by funding them through an escrow arrangement. By securing the payments, the executive's tax liability was accelerated. We loaned each executive an amount equal to the related withholding tax obligation at the time the payments were secured. The loans bear interest at 5.53 percent compounded semiannually and are due December 31, 2004. At December 31, 2001, the amount of loans outstanding totaled $3,089,590, of which $1,635,200 was loaned to Mr. Bonsignore, $765,450 to Mr. Wallman and $688,940 to Dr. B. Johnson. Mr. Bonsignore's and Dr. B. Johnson's loans have been repaid.

SHAREOWNER PROPOSALS

Shareowners have given Honeywell notice of their intention to introduce the following proposals for consideration and action by the shareowners at the Annual Meeting. The respective proponents have provided the proposed resolutions and accompanying statements and Honeywell is not responsible for any inaccuracies contained therein. For the reasons stated, the Board of Directors does not support these proposals.

ITEM 3 -- SHAREOWNER VOTING PROVISIONS

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

This proposal has been submitted by Harold J. Mathis, Jr., P.O. Box 1209, Richmond, Texas 77406-1209 (the owner of 1,292 shares of Common Stock).

RESOLVED: ENACT THE 2001 SHAREHOLDER RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY 60.76%* OF SHAREHOLDERS: RETURN TO SIMPLE MAJORITY VOTE. Shareholders request that Honeywell International delete all requirements for more than a 51%-majority vote. This includes Honeywell's monumental 80%-supermajority requirement.

WHY RETURN TO SIMPLE MAJORITY VOTE?

Reinstating simple majority vote is particularly important to hold Honeywell International's management accountable. The past year's operations have shown that Honeywell will require greater scrutiny by shareholders and directors.

The Council of Institutional Investors believes that super-majority rules are not in the best interest of shareholders, and has asked Honeywell to state how the majority vote received for last year's proposal will be evaluated.

The Honeywell International super-majority provision means that if the vast majority of shareholders (but less than an overwhelming 80%) vote to change key rules, management can ignore the majority.

On its first attempt at Honeywell, this resolution achieved an outstanding 58.81%* approval at the 2000 shareholder meeting. Shareholders do not benefit when directors are entrenched by an 80%-vote requirement.

Management and the board continue to argue that simple majority voting is not in the best interest of shareholders. It is unlikely that 60.76%* of shareholders would vote against their own best interest by favoring this proposal last year. Directors are questioning the judgment of the same shareholders who put them into office.

Last year, Honeywell again hired one of the largest law firms in the United States in its attempt to kill this proposal. Fortunately, their argument did not stick with the SEC and shareholders were allowed to vote on the issue.

Free shareholders from this restrictive burden. Vote yes to return balloting to a simple majority vote. Please note that abstentions will count as a vote against this proposal.

Success builds upon success and your favorable vote will help build on the 60.76%* approval rate established last year.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION -- THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREOWNERS VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

Most proposals submitted to a vote of Honeywell's shareowners, whether by management or the shareowners, currently require a vote of a majority of the shares represented at a meeting, whether in person or by proxy. Upon our incorporation in 1985, however, our shareowners approved a Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws that contained provisions requiring the vote of 80% of the outstanding shares for certain actions. These limited provisions relate to the elimination of the classified Board of Directors, removal of directors, the calling of special meetings of shareowners and the requirement that shareowner action be taken at a meeting.

These special voting provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws are intended to provide protection for all shareowners against self-interested actions by one or a few large shareowners. In fact, last year's voting results illustrate the vastly different view taken on this topic by our smaller shareowners versus our larger shareowners. Last year a large majority of our registered shareowners actually voted against this proposal. Of the 34,579 registered shareowners who voted on the proposal, only 8,777, or about 25%, voted in favor of it. The proposal received a majority of total votes cast because on average the shareowners voting in favor held much larger positions in our stock than the shareowners voting against. Under the law, the Board has a fiduciary duty to act in a manner it believes to be in the best interest of Honeywell and all of the shareowners. In this case, a large majority of our shareowners appears to agree with the Board that the current voting provisions are in their best interest. Moreover, under our Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws, adoption of the proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of 80% of our outstanding shares. Last year the owners of only 43.48% of our outstanding shares voted for this proposal, so its support among our shareowners falls far short of what would be required to effect a change.

Voting provisions similar to ours are included in the governing documents of many public corporations. They are intended to encourage a person making an unsolicited bid for Honeywell to negotiate with the Board of Directors to reach terms that are fair and provide the best results for all shareowners, large and small. Without such provisions, it may be possible for the holders of a majority of the shares represented at a meeting to take actions that would give them effective control of Honeywell without negotiating with the Board to achieve the best results for the other shareowners.

Adoption of this proposal would not in itself effectuate the changes contemplated by the proposal. Further action by the shareowners would be required to amend the By-laws and the Certificate of Incorporation. Under these documents, an 80% vote of the outstanding shares would be required for approval. As noted above, only 43.48% of our outstanding shares were voted in favor of this proposal last year. Under Delaware law, amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation require a recommendation from the Board of Directors prior to submission to shareowners. While the Board would consider such amendments, it would do so consistent with its fiduciary duty to act in a manner it believes to be in the best interest of Honeywell and all of its shareowners.

The Board disagrees with many of the 'supporting statements' contained in this proposal.

FOR THE REASONS STATED ABOVE, YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL.

ITEM 4 -- SHAREOWNER RIGHTS PLANS

This proposal has been submitted by Bartlett Naylor, 1255 North Buchanan, Arlington, Virginia 22205 (the owner of 187 shares of Common Stock).

Resolved: That shareholders urge that the board of directors will solicit shareholder approval for any 'shareholder rights' plan that might be adopted, and that if this approval is not granted in the form of a majority of shares voted, then any rights plan be redeemed.

Supporting Statement Shareholder rights plans, sometimes called 'poison pills,' may be adopted by boards at any time. Our company might redeem a pill, adopt another, and redeem that one, three separate moves, between the time this resolution is filed and the time of the annual meeting in the spring. Yet I believe shareholders frequently oppose pills when they are asked in a vote. This resolution merely urges the board to secure shareholder approval if and when a pill is put in place by the board. The case of Fleming Companies, Inc. and its unpopular pill should serve as a cautionary tale to any board that believes its will supplants shareholder interest. Broadly, the poison pill has come to signify management insulation.

The debacle of Enron commands shareholders to take greater interest in oversight of management. Corporate law can frustrate that oversight. Indeed, shareholders are rarely afforded an opportunity to select between board candidates (as only one slate is voted on), or between auditors (as only one is proposed). Moreover, even when shareholders propose resolutions and those resolutions secure a majority of those voting, boards often choose not to abide by this majority. Such is the case with Honeywell, where this resolution was approved by shareholders at the last annual meeting. But by voting for this resolution, shareholders can declare our intent on keeping a close watch. And should our board honor a majority vote and adopt a policy that any shareholder rights plan would be ratified by a shareholder vote, our board could demonstrate a commitment to insure the greatest management care for shareholders.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION -- THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREOWNERS VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

Honeywell does not now have a 'shareholder rights' plan, and has no current intention to adopt one. The Board believes that it will be able to best maximize shareowner value if it retains the ability to adopt a plan in the future, if warranted in its judgment, to preserve and protect shareowner interests. The proponent suggests that rights plans stand between management and shareowners. To the contrary, the Board of Directors has a fiduciary duty to and is committed to act in the best interests of Honeywell and its shareowners. This duty applies to all actions, including any future adoption of a rights plan. The Board believes that it would be contrary to law for it to redeem a rights plan if the Board does not believe that such redemption would be in the best interest of Honeywell and the shareowners.

The economic benefits of a shareholder rights plan to stockholders have been validated in several studies. A study published in November 1997 by Georgeson & Company found that companies with shareholder rights plans received $13 billion dollars in additional takeover premiums during the period 1992 to 1996. The Georgeson study also concluded that (1) premiums paid to acquire target companies with shareholder rights plans were on average eight percentage points higher than premiums paid for target companies that did not have such plans, (2) the presence of a rights plan did not increase the likelihood of the defeat of a hostile takeover bid or the withdrawal of a friendly bid, and (3) rights plans did not reduce the likelihood that a company would become a takeover target. Thus, evidence suggests that rights plans achieve their principal objectives: protection against inadequate offers and abusive tactics and increased bargaining power of the Board resulting in higher value for stockholders.

The Board believes it is important that it retain the flexibility to adopt a rights plan without having to conduct a shareholder vote in order to maintain the plan. A rights plan is designed to improve the Board's ability to protect and advance the interests of Honeywell and all of its shareowners. It enhances the ability of the Board to negotiate with potential acquirors and discourages coercive takeover tactics that would operate to the detriment of our shareowners. A requirement that we seek shareholder approval for any rights plan could seriously weaken the Board's negotiating position in a hostile situation and leave it less able to protect shareowner interests. We believe that adoption of the proposal would not be in the best interest of our shareowners.

ITEM 5 -- LIMIT AUDITORS TO AUDITING ONLY

This proposal is submitted by June Kreutzer and Cathy Snyder, 54 Argyle Place, Orchard Park, New York 14127 (the owners of 247 shares of Common Stock).

Shareholders request that our Board adopt a policy or bylaw that the Company's independent accountant/audit firm will provide only audit services to the Company and not provide any other services. This exclusion of other services can apply to a spin-off of the audit firm at the discretion of our board.

This proposal is patterned on the 2002 proposal submitted to Walt Disney Company (DIS) by United Association S&P 500 Index Fund. Disney attempted to exclude the Index Fund proposal from shareholder vote. However, Disney was unable to obtain regulatory concurrence from the Securities and Exchange Commission. The SEC cited:

- (1) Widespread public debate concerning the impact of non-audit services on auditor independence.
- (2) The increasing recognition that the independence of auditors raises significant policy issues.

Disney then adopted a key part of this proposal:

With the Enron scandal still in full bloom, Walt Disney reiterated its new policy of no longer retaining its auditors for consulting services or other non-audit functions.

Daily News, Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 20, 2002

Disney Chairman Michael Eisner said, 'In the current world, it's become more important than ever to make sure our shareholders -- and the market as a whole -- have full confidence in our financial reports, including the integrity of the auditing process.'

The nation's biggest companies paid far more money than previously estimated to their independent auditing firms for non-audit services in 2000. This renews questions about whether such fees create conflicts of interest for audit firms. At issue: How objective can an audit firm be when it is also making millions of dollars providing non-audit services.

Wall Street Journal, April 10, 2001

The Wall Street Journal reported that of the 307 S&P 500 companies it surveyed, non-audit service fees averaged nearly 3-times as big as audit fees.

According to the Honeywell 2001 proxy our company paid $32 million to PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) -- yet only $5 million was for auditing. Our company paid approximately the same amount to its auditors for non-audit work as Enron did. The current PwC non-audit fees are on page 11 of this publication.

Leading institutional investors urged auditors to not accept non-audit fees. The California Public Employees' Retirement System's (CalPERS) General Counsel, Kayla J. Gillan, said: The SEC should draw a bright-line test: no non-audit services to an audit client. TIAA-CREF's Chairman John H. Biggs wrote: ' . . . independent public audit firms should not be the auditors of any company for which they simultaneously provide other services.'

It is respectfully submitted that it would be in shareholders' best interest to adopt a policy or bylaw that henceforth the Company's independent auditors provide only audit services to the Company.

LIMIT AUDITORS TO AUDITING ONLY
YES ON 5

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION -- THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREOWNERS VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

Honeywell appreciates the importance of auditor independence to shareowner confidence in the integrity of our accounting and financial reporting system. For that reason, the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors monitors the amount and nature of the non-audit services performed by our independent auditors, as well as the safeguards that have been put in place to assure auditor independence. Our Audit Committee, which is composed entirely of independent directors, has the responsibility for oversight of the audit process and the operational and financial integrity of our operations throughout the year.

The aggregate fees charged to Honeywell for non-audit services in 2000 by our independent auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), were atypically high because of one-time tax compliance and refund work that year. The total fees of $27.8 million for non-audit services in 2000 included $7.7 million attributable to this non-recurring project, which was an adjunct to their comparable ongoing tax work on our behalf. Excluding this project, Honeywell had non-audit fees of $20.1 million in 2000, comparable to our non-audit fees in 2001 of $17.6 million.

The non-audit projects for which we engage PwC include employee benefit plan audits, tax compliance and planning services, financial statement audit services for divested businesses, acquisition audit-related due diligence, and statutory audits of foreign legal entities. The vast majority of these services are not traditional consulting services. Such services are essentially audit in nature or closely related to the audit area, even though they are defined as non-audit services under SEC guidelines. Honeywell benefits from the efficient use of resources when information and experience developed during the audit process can be leveraged in these related activities. Our Audit Committee has reviewed the nature of these services, and is satisfied they do not compromise auditor independence.

In addition, the Audit Committee has a policy that Honeywell not engage PwC for any traditional consulting services without prior notice to the Committee. Our fees to PwC for traditional consulting services have been relatively minor. For example, in both 2000 and 2001 we did not engage PwC to provide any financial information systems design and implementation services at all.

We believe it is important to retain the discretion to determine the best allocation of work among accounting (and other) firms and, when and where it does not compromise independence and is efficient and cost effective to do so, to select our independent auditor to perform certain services. The Proposal's suggested total prohibition of non-audit services would severely constrain our ability to access the public capital markets and to divest businesses in the normal course of executing our portfolio strategy. SEC registration services and divestiture audit services, which can be performed efficiently only by our independent accountants, would be precluded under the proposal.

In addition to the Audit Committee's oversight of the audit and non-audit services provided by PwC and auditor independence generally, Honeywell has internal safeguards to monitor and manage both the audit and non-audit services provided by PwC. These safeguards are designed to protect against independence conflicts and are regularly reviewed by the Audit Committee. PwC also has various internal safeguards in respect of its engagements for Honeywell, and confirms its independence in writing each year to the Audit Committee. In addition to these internal procedures, we annually seek shareowner ratification of our selection of independent auditors.

The relationship between Honeywell and its external auditor is already one of independence. An absolute prohibition against the independent auditor providing non-audit services is not necessary to achieve this goal and would, in fact, be counterproductive.

OTHER INFORMATION

SHAREOWNER PROPOSALS FOR 2003 ANNUAL MEETING

In order for a shareowner proposal to be considered for inclusion in Honeywell International's proxy statement for the 2003 Annual Meeting pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the proposal must be received at the Company's offices a reasonable time before Honeywell begins to print and mail its proxy materials. The Company has set the deadline for receipt of such proposals as the close of business on November 29, 2002. Proposals submitted thereafter will be opposed as not timely filed.

Edgar Filing: HONEYWELL INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DEF 14A

If a shareowner intends to present a proposal for consideration at the 2003 Annual Meeting outside the processes of SEC Rule 14a-8, Honeywell must receive notice of such proposal on or before January 28, 2003. Otherwise the proposal will be considered untimely under Honeywell's By-laws. In addition, Honeywell's proxies will have discretionary voting authority on any vote with respect to such proposal, if presented at the meeting, without including information regarding the proposal in its proxy materials.

Any shareowner who wishes to submit a shareowner proposal, should send it to the Vice President and Secretary, Honeywell, 101 Columbia Road, Morris Township, New Jersey 07962.

DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS

Honeywell's By-laws provide that any shareowner of record entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting who intends to make a nomination for director, must notify the Secretary of Honeywell in writing not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the meeting. The notice must meet other requirements contained in the By-laws, a copy of which can be obtained from the Secretary of Honeywell at the address set forth above.

EXPENSES OF SOLICITATION

Honeywell pays the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing this proxy-soliciting material. In addition to the use of the mail, proxies may be solicited by Honeywell officers and employees by telephone or other means of communication. Honeywell pays all costs of solicitation, including certain expenses of brokers and nominees who mail proxy material to their customers or principals. In addition, Georgeson & Company Inc. has been retained to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareowners at a fee of approximately $12,500 plus associated costs and expenses.

Dear Savings Plan Participant:

As Honeywell's Annual Meeting of Shareowners approaches, we find ourselves on the path to recovery and strengthened performance, while still facing the challenges of an uncertain economy. One key element of our recovery plan is a commitment to maintaining the continuity of the core processes we use to meet our financial commitments, set our strategies and develop our people. In addition, we have launched five initiatives to ensure clear focus on the most critical factors for our success: Growth, Productivity, Cash, People and our Enablers: Six Sigma and Digitization.

I urge you to exercise your right to direct the Savings Plan Trustee how to vote on the proposals to be considered at this meeting. The proposals, along with the recommendations of the Board of Directors, are described in the enclosed proxy statement. As a Savings Plan participant, you have the right, under the Plan, to direct the Trustee how to vote the Honeywell shares attributable to your Savings Plan account. When the Trustee votes the proxy for the plans, the Trustee will vote shares as to which no directions are received in the same ratio as shares with respect to which directions have been received from other participants.

A card for your confidential voting direction is enclosed. If you prefer, you can also direct your vote via the Internet or by telephone. Simply follow the instructions on the proxy voting direction card. However, if you direct your vote by the Internet or by telephone, do not return your proxy voting direction card by mail. If you own Honeywell shares other than through the Savings Plans, you will receive separate voting instructions for those shares.

On behalf of Honeywell, our leadership and employees worldwide, I thank you for your continued commitment to our company. Working together, we will ensure Honeywell's future as a high-performance growth company that delivers results for our customers and shareowners every day.

Sincerely,

DAVID M. COTE
