On July 13, 2007, Answers Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), Lexico Publishing Group, LLC, a California limited liability company (Lexico), Brian Kariger, as trustee of the Brian Patrick Kariger Charitable Remainder Unitrust Trust dated April 9, 2007, Brian Kariger, as trustee of the Brian Patrick Kariger Revocable Trust dated February 9, 2007, Daniel Fierro (collectively, the Sellers) and Brian Kariger, as the sellers representative (the Sellers Representative) entered into a Purchase Agreement (the Agreement), pursuant to which the Company will acquire all of the outstanding limited liability interests of Lexico (the Acquisition). Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company will pay an aggregate purchase price of $100 million in cash, subject to adjustment for closing net working capital and transaction expenses (the Purchase Price). $10.0 million of the Purchase Price may be paid to the employees of Lexico, subject to certain terms and conditions and a pre-determined payout schedule. In addition, $10.0 million of the Purchase Price will be placed in escrow for 12 months to secure the indemnification obligations of the Sellers under the Agreement as well as any post-closing Purchase Price adjustments for net working capital or transaction expenses.

Lexico, the Sellers and the Company have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Agreement. The representations, warranties and covenants of Lexico and the Sellers, include among others, covenants to: (i) conduct business in the usual, regular and ordinary course between the execution of the Agreement and consummation of the Acquisition; (ii) not engage in certain kinds of transactions during this period; (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the Acquisition, including using commercially reasonable efforts to take all steps necessary to obtain required governmental and third-party consents; and (iv) not solicit proposals relating to alternative transactions, enter into communications concerning alternative transactions, or agree to or endorse an alternative transaction.

Consummation of the Acquisition is subject to the Company's ability to secure financing for the Acquisition, as well as customary conditions to closing, including absence of any legal prohibition on consummation of the Acquisition, obtaining governmental and third-party consents, the accuracy of the representations and warranties (subject generally to a material adverse effect standard) and delivery of customary closing documents.

The Agreement may be terminated in the following circumstances, subject to limitations described in the Agreement: (i) by mutual written consent of the Company and the Sellers; (ii) by either the Company or the Sellers if the Acquisition shall not have been consummated by 180 days from the date of filing the registration statement relating to the financing condition (subject to certain extensions); (iii) by either the Company or the Sellers if there is issued a final, non-appealable order restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Acquisition; or (iv) by either the Company or the Sellers upon an incurable material breach of the Agreement by the other party, which breach would result in the failure of the terminating party's closing conditions to be fulfilled. The Agreement provides that, upon termination of the Agreement for an incurable material breach of the Agreement by the Company, which breach would result in the failure of the Company's closing conditions to be fulfilled, the Company will be required to pay the Sellers a $2.0 million termination fee. Similarly, the Agreement provides that, upon termination of the Agreement for an incurable material breach of the Agreement by the Sellers, which breach would result in the failure of the Sellers' closing conditions to be fulfilled, the Sellers will be required to pay the Company a $2.0 million termination fee. In addition, if the Agreement is terminated for failure of the financing condition, the Company will be required to reimburse the out-of-pocket transaction expenses of the Sellers up to $400,000.

Simultaneously with the execution of the Agreement, the Company, Lexico, the Sellers, the Sellers Representative and American Stock Transfer & Trust Co., as escrow agent (the Escrow Agent) entered into a Bonus Plan/Documents Escrow Agreement (the Escrow Agreement), pursuant to which, among other things, the Sellers deposited with the Escrow Agent instruments of transfer of the limited liability interests of Lexico, which shall be released to the Company upon the closing of the Acquisition, or returned to the Sellers if the Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms. In addition, the Escrow Agreement provides that $10 million of the Purchase Price will be deposited into escrow at closing for the benefit of the employees of Lexico, to be distributed to the employees of Lexico in accordance with the Escrow Agreement; provided, however, any amounts forfeited by the employees of Lexico under the Escrow Agreement will be provided to the Sellers as an additional payment.

The Agreement, which has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms, contains representations and warranties of the Company, Lexico and the Sellers. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for the purposes of the Agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what a stockholder might view as material, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters of fact.
