Shares Entitled to Vote, Quorum and Require Vote

Proposal Three: To be approved, this proposal must receive an affirmative majority of our outstanding shares of common stock. Notwithstanding the information contained in the definitive proxy statement for the Meeting, the NYSE has determined that Proposal Three is a routine matter under its rules and, therefore, brokerage firms and nominees that are members of the NYSE have the authority under the NYSE rules to vote their customers' unvoted shares on Proposal Three if the customers have not furnished voting instructions within a specified period of time prior to the Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes represented by submitted proxies will have the effect of a negative vote on this proposal.

Proposal Five: To be approved, this proposal must receive an affirmative majority of the total votes cast FOR and AGAINST this proposal at the Meeting. Notwithstanding the information contained in the definitive proxy statement for the Meeting, the NYSE has determined that Proposal Five is a routine matter under its rules and, therefore, brokerage firms and nominees that are members of the NYSE have the authority under the NYSE rules to vote their customers' unvoted shares on Proposal Five if the customers have not furnished voting instructions within a specified period of time prior to the Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes represented by submitted proxies will not be taken into account in determining the outcome of this proposal.
