Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 2, 2010, the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") filed materials in U.S. District Court finalizing the settlement of civil charges stemming from an investigation of Diebold, Incorporated (the Company ) conducted by the Division of Enforcement of the SEC. The Company and the staff of the SEC had previously reached an agreement in principle in May 2009 to settle the charges related to the investigation.

Under the terms of the settlement, the Company has consented, without admitting or denying civil securities fraud charges, to a judgment requiring payment of a civil penalty of $25.0 million and an injunction against committing or causing any violations or future violations of certain specified provisions of the federal securities laws. The Company anticipates payment of the penalty to the SEC in the near term.

As previously announced, the Company recorded a charge of $25.0 million in the first quarter of 2009 in connection with the settlement.
