There have been no material changes through March 31, 2005.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

An evaluation was performed under the supervision and with the participation of the management of Wesco, including Charles T. Munger (Chief Executive Officer) and Jeffrey L. Jacobson (Chief Financial Officer), of the effectiveness of the design and operation of Wesco's disclosure controls and procedures as of March 31, 2005. Based on that evaluation, Mr. Munger and Mr. Jacobson concluded that Wesco's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that information required to be disclosed by Wesco in reports it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported as specified in the rules and forms of the Securities and Exchange Commission. There have been no changes in Wesco's internal controls over financial reporting during the quarter ended March 31, 2005 that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect the internal controls over financial reporting.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Dollar amounts in thousands except for amounts per share)
(Unaudited)

Note 1

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of which these notes are an integral part include the accounts of Wesco Financial Corporation (Wesco) and its subsidiaries. In management's opinion, such statements reflect all adjustments (all of them of a normal recurring nature) necessary to a fair statement of interim results in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Reference is made to the notes to Wesco's consolidated financial statements appearing on pages 40 through 48 of its 2004 Form 10-K Annual Report for other information deemed generally applicable to the condensed consolidated financial statements. In particular, Wesco's significant accounting policies and practices are set forth in Note 1 on pages 40 through 42.

Wesco's management does not believe that any accounting pronouncements issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board or other applicable authorities that are required to be adopted after March 31, 2005 are likely to have a material effect on reported shareholders' equity.

Note 2

Following is a summary of securities with fixed maturities:

Reference is made to information as to the pending purchase of The Gillette Company by The Procter and Gamble Company discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements appearing on page 42 of Wesco's 2004 Form 10-K Annual Report. Based on market prices in New York Stock Exchange trading as of the close of business on March 31, 2005, had the transaction closed at that date, Wesco would have recognized a pre-tax gain of approximately $283,000 ($184,000, after income taxes).

WESCO FINANCIAL CORPORATION
MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF
FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Reference is made to Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations appearing on pages 19 through 30 of the Form 10-K Annual Report filed by Wesco Financial Corporation (Wesco) for the year 2004 for information deemed generally appropriate to an understanding of the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements. The information set forth in the following paragraphs updates such discussion. Further, in reviewing the following paragraphs, attention is directed to the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements.

OVERVIEW

Financial Condition

Wesco continues to have a strong balance sheet at March 31, 2005, with relatively little debt and no hedging. Liquidity, which has traditionally been high, has been even higher than usual for the past two years due principally to sales, maturities and early redemptions of fixed-maturity investments, and reinvestment of the proceeds in cash equivalents pending redeployment.

Results of Operations

After-tax earnings improved in the first quarter of 2005 from the corresponding 2004 amount mainly due to improved results of the furniture rental segment and increased investment income earned by the insurance segment resulting mainly from increased interest rates on short-term investments.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

Wesco's shareholders' equity at March 31, 2005 was approximately $2.15 billion ($302 per share), up from $2.12 billion ($297 per share) at December 31, 2004. Shareholders' equity included $443.0 million at March 31, 2005, and $427.7 million at December 31, 2004, representing appreciation in market value of investments, which is credited directly to shareholders' equity, net of taxes, without being reflected in earnings. Because unrealized appreciation is recorded using market quotations, gains or losses ultimately realized upon sale of investments could differ substantially from recorded unrealized appreciation.

Wesco's consolidated cash and cash equivalents, held principally by its insurance businesses, increased slightly from $1.16 billion at December 31, 2004, to $1.18 billion at March 31, 2005.

Wesco's consolidated borrowings totaled $25.2 million at March 31, 2005 versus $29.2 million at December 31, 2004. The decrease in borrowings related to a revolving line of credit used in the furniture rental business.

Wesco's management continues to believe that the Wesco group has adequate liquidity and capital resources to provide for any contingent needs that may arise.

Insurance Segment

The insurance segment is comprised of Wesco-Financial Insurance Company (Wes-FIC) and The Kansas Bankers Surety Company (KBS). Their operations are conducted or supervised by wholly owned subsidiaries of Berkshire Hathaway Inc., Wesco's ultimate parent company. Following is a summary of the results of segment operations, which represent essentially the combination of underwriting results with dividend and interest income. (Amounts are in thousands.)

	Three Months Ended
	March	March 31,

Underwriting gain	$ 5,334	$ 7,698
Dividend and interest income	11,726	8,301
Income before income taxes	17,060	15,999
Income taxes	3,311	4,897
Segment net income	$ 13,749	$ 11,102

Premiums written for the first quarters of 2005 and 2004 included $6.5 million and $6.9 million related to Wes-FIC; its earned premiums were $6.9 million and $13.5 million. Premiums written by KBS in the first quarters of 2005 and 2004 were $5.9 million and $5.6 million; its earned premiums were $5.2 million and $5.0 million.

At March 31, 2005, Wes-FIC's in-force business consisted of a reinsurance contract under which it was participating in three pools of aviation-related risks: hull and liability pools to the extent of 10% each; and a workers compensation pool to the extent of 5% which became effective in 2005 but which has not yet resulted in significant premium volume. In 2004, Wes-FIC was participating only in the hull and liability pools. Under the contracts, written premiums in the first quarters of 2005 and 2004 were $6.5 million and $5.3 million and earned premiums were $6.9 million and $7.6 million. Until the fourth quarter of 2004, Wes-FIC also participated in a multi-year contract covering certain multi-line property and casualty risks of a large, unaffiliated insurer. That arrangement was commuted in the fourth quarter of 2004 as discussed on pages 21 and 22 of Wesco's 2004 Form 10-K Annual Report. Written and earned premiums under that contract, were $1.6 million and $5.8 million for the first quarter of 2004. The overall decrease in premiums earned for the 2005 quarter is attributed principally to the commutation of that reinsurance arrangement.

For the first quarters of 2005 and 2004, reinsurance generated net underwriting gains of $2.1 million and $4.6 million. Those amounts represented gains of $2.8 million and $4.0 million relating to the aviation contract, reduced by a loss of $0.7 million on other reinsurance business in 2005, and increased by a gain of $0.6 million associated with the aforementioned commuted contract in 2004. KBS' underwriting gains were $3.2 million for the first quarter of 2005, essentially unchanged from the $3.1 million reported for the first quarter of 2004.

Wes-FIC's underwriting results have recently benefited from relatively low levels of aviation losses. Because KBS cedes minimal amounts to reinsurers, its underwriting results often fluctuates from period to period. Management accepts volatility in its underwriting results in return for better potential aggregate results over the long term.

Dividend and interest income earned by the insurance segment for the first quarter of 2005 improved from the corresponding prior year figure principally due to improvement in interest rates on short-term investments.

The income tax provision for the segment for the first quarter of 2005 benefited by $2.0 million relating to the settlement of an issue raised in an examination of a prior year income tax return by the Internal Revenue Service.

Furniture Rental Segment

The furniture rental segment consists of CORT Business Services Corporation (CORT). Following is a summary of segment operating results. (Amounts are in thousands.)

Table of Contents

Furniture rental revenues for the first quarter of 2005 increased $6.8 million, or 10.3%, over those of the first quarter of 2004. Excluding $2.9 million and $0.8 million of rental revenues from trade shows and locations not in operation throughout each quarter, rental revenues for the first quarter of 2005 increased approximately 7.2% from those of the 2004 quarter as a result of an improving economy and continued focus on new business development. The number of furniture leases, which had declined more than 20% through yearend 2003 from the peak level attained in late 2000, increased during 2004; the corresponding number of leases at the end of the first quarter of 2005 was about 9.8% higher than at the end of the corresponding 2004 quarter. Management is cautiously optimistic that the recent recovery in its business will continue.

Furniture sales revenues increased 7.4% in the first quarter of 2005 from those reported in the comparable period of 2004. The increase is attributed principally to renewed efforts to reduce idle inventory.

Apartment locator fees decreased by $1.0 million, or 35%, from those of the first quarter 2004, which in turn were down $1.3 million, or 32%, from those of the first quarter 2003. Since late 2003, the apartment locator operation has been undergoing reorganization. Some of its walk-in facilities have been merged into furniture rental or sale facilities, and others have been closed, resulting in significant cost and expense reductions. The reduction in apartment locator revenues has been offset by a reduction in related costs and expenses.

Cost of rentals, sales and fees amounted to 26.3% of revenues for the first quarter of 2005 versus 27.9% for the comparable 2004 period. The improved margin was a result of a decrease in the depreciation component of cost of rentals and sales due mainly to the increase in the number of leases outstanding and a slight increase in furniture sales in the current period, and, thus, a reduction in the proportion that depreciation expense bore to total revenue. Costs of generating apartment locator fees were $1.8 million in the first quarter of 2005, down from $2.7 million in the comparable period of 2004 due principally to the reorganization efforts mentioned above. Excluding apartment-locator costs, segment costs for furniture rentals and sales were 24.3% of sales revenues in the first quarter of 2005 and 25.5% in the 2004 period.

Selling, general, administrative and interest expenses (operating expenses) for the segment were $62.1 million for the first quarter of 2005, up slightly from the $61.6 million incurred in the first quarter of 2004. These included apartment locator-related expenses of $2.0 million for the first quarter of 2005, down from $2.7 million in the first quarter of 2004. Operating expenses as a percentage of revenues decreased from 71.8% for the first quarter of 2004 to 66.9% for the 2005 period.

Income before income taxes for the furniture rental segment amounted to $6.4 million for the first quarter of 2005 and $0.3 million for the first quarter of 2004. If the portion of these amounts representing losses incurred by the apartment-locator operation ($2.2 million for the first quarter of 2005 and $2.8 million for the first quarter of 2004) were eliminated, income before taxes would have been $8.6 million for the first quarter of 2005 and $3.1 million for the first quarter of 2004. The $6.1 million improvement in the operating results for the first quarter of 2005 was primarily attributable to growth in rental revenues and the continued focus on managing operating expenses.

Table of Contents*Industrial Segment*

Following is a summary of the results of operations of the industrial segment, which consists of the businesses of Precision Steel Warehouse, Inc. and its subsidiaries. (Amounts are in thousands.)

	Three Months Ended
	March
	31,	March 31,
	2005	2004
Revenues	$ 15,859	$ 14,740
Income before income taxes	$ 685	$ 1,047
Income taxes	273	417
Segment net income	$ 412	$ 630

In Wesco's 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K it was reported that the operations of the industrial segment had suffered for several years prior to 2004. Not only had there been a decline in the number of orders placed, but there had also been a trend towards smaller-sized orders. At the beginning of 2004, a shortage of raw materials from domestic mills produced near chaos in the steel service industry. Customers wishing to avoid running out of stock, accelerated their purchasing, exacerbating the tumult. As the year progressed, domestic steel mills were operating at capacity and imported steel was not readily available. These and other factors enabled the mills to raise prices, place limits on order quantities and extend delivery times. Precision Steel reacted by passing the price increases, plus normal mark-ups, on to its customers.

More recently, as supplies of product from domestic mills have become more readily available, demand has softened, competitive pressures have increased, and mills have begun to lower prices, although such prices remain substantially above their level one year earlier. Industrial segment revenues for the first quarter of 2005 increased $1.1 million, or 7.6%, over those of the first quarter of 2004, while pounds of steel products sold in the first quarter decreased 24% from those of the comparable 2004 quarter. This anomalous result was attributable principally to an increase of about 40% in average selling prices since the beginning of 2004.

Income before income taxes and net income of the industrial segment for the first quarter of 2005 declined about 35% from the corresponding 2004 figures. These figures are dependent not only on revenues, but also on operating expenses and the cost of products sold. The latter, as a percentage of revenues, amounted to 83.0% for the first quarter of 2005 versus 79.3% for the comparable 2004 period. The cost percentage typically fluctuates slightly from period to period as a result of changes in product mix and price competition at all levels. The 3.7 percentage point increase is indicative of the recent steel industry turmoil. Though conditions may become more stable, management is concerned that the steel warehouse business may revert to the difficult times that prevailed prior to 2004; as noted in the 2004 Form 10-K, average annual segment revenues for the years 2001 through 2003 were down 27% from those reported for 1998 through 2000.

Set forth below is a summary of items increasing (decreasing) Wesco's consolidated net income that are viewed by management as unrelated to the operations of the insurance, furniture rental and industrial segments. (Amounts are in thousands.)

	Three Months Ended
	March	March 31,
	31,	2004
	2005
Other nonsegment items, net, before income taxes	$ (66)	$ (4)
Income taxes	66	86
	$	$ 82

Other nonsegment items include mainly (1) rental income from owned commercial real estate and (2) dividend and interest income from marketable securities and cash equivalents owned outside the insurance subsidiaries, reduced by real estate and general and administrative expenses plus or minus income taxes related to such items. These taxes do not correlate well with total pre-tax income or loss, primarily because dividend income is substantially tax-exempt.

* * * * *

Wesco's effective consolidated income tax rate typically fluctuates somewhat from period to period for various reasons, such as the relation of dividend income, which is substantially exempt from income taxes, to other pre-tax earnings or losses, which are generally fully taxable. The respective income tax provisions, expressed as percentages of income before income taxes, amounted to 23.3% and 29.9% for the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and March 31, 2004. The 2005 percentage would have been 31.7% without the $2.0 million benefit explained above (see last paragraph under Insurance Segment).

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS AND CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS

Reference is made to page 27 of Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, of the Form 10-K Annual Report filed by Wesco for the year ended December 31, 2004, for a table summarizing the contractual obligations associated with ongoing business activities of Wesco and its subsidiaries, some of which are off-balance sheet, and involve cash payments in periods after yearend 2004. At March 31, 2005, there have been no material changes in contractual obligations, including off-balance sheet arrangements, of Wesco or its subsidiaries from those reported as of December 31, 2004.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PRACTICES

Reference is made to pages 27 and 28 of Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, of the Form 10-K Annual Report filed by Wesco for the year ended December 31, 2004 for the accounting policies and practices considered by Wesco's management to be critical to its determination of consolidated financial position and results of operations, as well as to Note 1 to Wesco's consolidated financial statements appearing on pages 40 through 42 thereof for a description of the significant policies and practices followed by Wesco (including those deemed critical) in preparing its consolidated financial statements. There have been no changes in significant policies and practices through March 31, 2005.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain written or oral representations of management stated in this report or elsewhere constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as contrasted with statements of historical fact. Forward-looking statements include statements which are predictive in nature, or which depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or which include words such as expects, anticipates, intends, plans, believes, estimates, may, or could, or which involve hypothetical events. Forward-looking statements are based on information currently available and are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from those characterized as being likely or possible to occur. Such statements should be considered judgments only, not guarantees, and Wesco's management assumes no duty, nor has it any specific intention, to update them.

Actual events and results may differ materially from those expressed or forecasted in forward-looking statements due to a number of factors. The principal important risk factors that could cause Wesco's actual performance and future events and actions to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, changes in market prices of Wesco's significant equity investments, the occurrence of one or more catastrophic events such as acts of terrorism, hurricanes, or other events that cause losses insured by Wesco's insurance subsidiaries, changes in insurance laws or regulations, changes in income tax laws or regulations, and changes in general economic and market factors that affect the prices of investment securities or the industries in which Wesco and its affiliates do business.
