PROXY STATEMENT

August 6, 2004

Proxies are solicited by the Board of Trustees of Investors Real Estate Trust, a North Dakota Real Estate Investment Trust (the Company), for use at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (the Annual Meeting) to be held on Tuesday, September 21, 2004, at 7:00 p.m. CDT. The Annual Meeting will be held at the International Inn, 1505 North Broadway, Minot, North Dakota, 58703. Only the holders of record of the Company's common shares of beneficial interest, no par value (Shares or common shares) at the close of business on July 23, 2004 (the Record Date), are entitled to vote. The holders of the Company's 8.25% Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares of Beneficial Interest, no par value (the Preferred Shares) are not entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the close of business on July 23, 2004, the Company had 42,279,482 Shares issued and outstanding, each of which is entitled to one vote at the Annual Meeting. Thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) of the Shares outstanding on the Record Date must be present in person or by proxy to have a quorum.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. Trustees, officers and employees of the Company may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies by mail, internet, personal interview, telephone and/or telecopy. The Company does not expect that specially engaged employees or paid solicitors will make the solicitation. Although the Company might use such employees or solicitors if the Company deems them necessary, the Company has not made arrangements or contracts with any such employees or solicitors as of the date of this proxy statement. This proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card are scheduled to be mailed to shareholders commencing on or about August 6, 2004.

The Company will request banks, brokerage houses and other institutions, nominees or fiduciaries to forward the soliciting material to the beneficial owners of Shares and to obtain authorization for the execution of proxies. The Company will, upon request, reimburse banks, brokerage houses and other institutions, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy materials to the beneficial owners. If a shareholder is a participant in the Company's Distribution Reinvestment Plan (the Plan), the proxy represents a voting instruction as to the number of full Shares in the Plan account, as well as any Shares held directly by the shareholder.

All properly executed or authorized proxies delivered pursuant to this solicitation and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting as specified in such proxies. If no vote is specified on a proxy, the Shares represented by such proxy will be voted FOR the election of each of the eight (8) nominees for trustee, and FOR the ratification of the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Company's independent auditors. If other matters are properly presented for voting at the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment. We have not received notice of other matters that may properly be presented for voting at the Annual Meeting.

Shares which are entitled to vote but which, at the direction of the beneficial owner, are not voted on one or more matters (abstentions) will be counted for the purpose of determining whether there is quorum for the transaction of business at the 2004 Annual Meeting. Shares held by brokers who do not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter and who have not received voting instructions from their customers (broker non-votes) are counted as present for the purpose of determining the existence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting.

Table of Contents

The affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the Shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting, provided a quorum is present, is required to elect each of the eight (8) nominees for trustee (Proposal 1).

The affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the Shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting, provided a quorum is present, is required to approve Proposal 2, to ratify the selection of Deloitte & Touche as the Company's independent auditors.

Please note that while brokers and banks cannot vote on their clients' behalf on non-routine proposals, each of the proposals included in this year's proxy statement is considered a routine matter. Both broker non-votes and abstentions are counted in determining whether the shareholders have approved these proposals. As such, if brokers and banks vote on their clients' behalf, such votes will affect the proposal as voted (either for or against). If brokers and banks do not vote on their clients' behalf, such broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the proposals. Abstentions also have the effect of a vote against the proposals.

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before its use at the Annual Meeting by delivering to Michael A. Bosh, the Secretary and General Counsel of the Company, a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, by authorizing a subsequent proxy by telephone or through the designated internet site, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

The Company's principal executive offices are located at 12 South Main Street, PO Box 1988, Minot, North Dakota 58702-1988. The Company's telephone number is (701) 837-4738 and facsimile number is (701) 838-7785.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Attendance at Board, Committee and Annual Shareholders Meetings

During the fiscal year ended April 30, 2004, the Board held nine regular meetings and no special meetings. All trustees are expected to attend each meeting of the Board and the committees on which they serve, and are also expected to attend each Annual Meeting of Shareholders. No trustee attended fewer than 75% of the meetings of the Board and the committees on which they served during the past year, and all trustees except one attended the 2003 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Trustee Independence

The Board of Trustees has determined that each of Daniel L. Feist, Patrick G. Jones, Jeffrey L. Miller and Stephen L. Stenhjem qualify as independent directors in accordance with the listing standards of the NASDAQ. Under the NASDAQ listing standards (the Standards), in order to be considered independent, a trustee of the Company must have no relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a Company trustee. The Standards specify certain relationships that are deemed to impair independence; including, for example, employment by the Company, or engaging in certain business dealings with the Company. In making these determinations, the Board reviewed and discussed information provided by the trustees and the Company with regard to each trustee's business and personal activities as they may relate to the Company and the Company's management. The Board of Trustees has also determined that, in the event he is elected to the Board, Mr. John Stewart will qualify as an independent trustee under the Standards.

The Company must be in compliance with the Standards requiring a majority of the Board to be independent immediately following the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. In the event the eight nominees for trustee of the Company are elected at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the Company's Board of Trustees will consist of five trustees who are independent directors as defined by the NASDAQ Standards, and three trustees who, as employees of the Company, are not independent under the Standards. The Company accordingly will be in compliance with the Standards.

In addition, as required by the Standards, the members of the Company's Audit Committee each qualify as independent under the NASDAQ Standards and under special standards established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for members of audit committees. The Audit Committee also includes at least one independent member (Mr. Stephen L. Stenhjem) who has been determined by the Board to meet the qualifications of an audit committee financial expert in accordance with SEC rules.

Committees

The Board has created four committees in order to more effectively direct and review the Company's operations and strategic outlook. In addition, the committees allow management to timely respond to factors affecting the ongoing operations of the Company. Further, management regularly consults with committee chairmen to review possible actions and seek counsel. Where appropriate, the Board delegates authority to committees (within specified parameters) to finalize the execution of various Board functions. While the committee structure has improved the level of Board oversight, it has also greatly increased the effort and time required of Board members who serve on the various committees.

The Board has established the following committees: Audit, Compensation, Executive and Nominating. The present members of these committees are indicated in the preceding section of this proxy statement. During the fiscal year ended April 30, 2004, the Audit Committee of the Board met seven times, the Compensation Committee met once, the Executive Committee met twice and the Nominating Committee met once.

Table of Contents

The Audit Committee is composed of three trustees, all of whom are independent as that term is defined by the NASDAQ, and are independent as defined in rules of the SEC. Information regarding the functions performed by the committee is set forth in the Report of the Audit Committee, included in this proxy statement. The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter that has been approved by both the Audit Committee and the Board. The Audit Committee Charter, which is included with this proxy statement as Exhibit A, was adopted by the Board in January 2004 in response to changes in the listing standards of the NASDAQ, and replaces the Audit Committee's previous charter.

The Compensation Committee approves the compensation of the officers of the Company and the Company's management succession plan and attends to other matters relating to executive retention and compensation. The Compensation Committee is composed of four trustees, all of whom are independent as defined by the NASDAQ. For more information, see the Compensation Committee Report on Compensation of Executive Officers included in this proxy statement.

The Executive Committee, which is composed of three trustees, two of whom are independent as defined by the NASDAQ, has all of the powers of the Board with respect to the management and affairs of the Company, subject to limitations prescribed by the Board and by North Dakota law, and may exercise the authority of the Board between Board meetings, except to the extent that the Board has delegated authority to another committee.

The Nominating Committee, composed of four trustees, all of whom are independent as defined by the NASDAQ, identifies individuals qualified to become Board members and approves the nominees to stand for election and re-election to the Board. The Nominating Committee is responsible for reviewing the appropriate skills and characteristics required of Board members. This assessment includes consideration of the factors specified in the committee's charter and the trustee qualification requirements of the Company's Second Restated Trustees' Regulations (Bylaws) (the Bylaws). These factors include age (at least 21 years of age and less than 74 years of age, in accordance with the Company's Bylaws); broad leadership experience in business, government, education, public service or in other management or administrative positions; willingness and ability to apply sound and independent business judgment; loyalty to the Company and commitment to its success; commitment to enhancing shareholder value; personal integrity; and independence, as defined in applicable laws and regulations.

Consideration of new Board candidates typically involves a series of internal discussions, review of information concerning candidates and informal interviews with selected candidates. In general, candidates for nomination to the Board are suggested by Board members or by Company employees. Mr. John Stewart, the only candidate for Board membership who is not currently a trustee of the Company, was initially suggested as a candidate by an independent trustee of the Company. In fiscal year 2004, the Company did not employ a search firm or pay fees to other third parties in connection with seeking or evaluating Board candidates.

In accordance with the Company's Bylaws and with procedures adopted by the Nominating Committee in January 2004, the Nominating Committee will consider nominations from shareholders. Shareholders who wish to recommend individuals for consideration by the Nominating Committee to become nominees for election to the Board may do so by submitting a written recommendation addressed to both the Chairman of the Nominating Committee and to the Company's Secretary at the following address: Investors Real Estate Trust, P.O. Box 1988, Minot, North Dakota, 58702-1988. Submissions must be received by the Chairman and the Secretary in writing on or before the first day of June of each year for consideration for nomination for election at the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Submissions must include biographical information concerning the recommended individual, including age and a five-year employment history with employer names and a description of the employer's business, and must be accompanied by a written consent of the individual to stand for election if nominated by the Board and to serve if elected by the shareholders. The Nominating Committee will not alter the manner in which it evaluates candidates, including consideration of the factors set forth in the committee's charter, based on whether the candidate was recommended by a shareholder or was identified by other means.

Table of Contents

All committees of the Board operate under written charters approved by the Board. Copies of each charter are posted on the Company's Investor Relations website at www.iret.com under the Corporate Governance heading. Additionally, the Audit Committee Charter is included in this proxy statement as Exhibit A.

In addition to the above four committees of the Board, the membership of each of which consists entirely of trustees, the Board, in recognition of the growth of the Company and the consequent increase in capital expenditures and asset acquisition and disposition activity, has also established an Investment Committee. The membership of the Investment Committee may consist of trustees and/or employees of the Company. The Investment Committee acts on behalf of the Board in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders to consider, approve and effect investment plans, capital expenditures and the purchase and sale, transfer or other acquisition or disposition of property and assets, in accordance with the delegation of investment authority conferred by the Board and subject to approval levels established by the Board from time to time. Members of the Investment Committee are appointed by the Board. The current members are Thomas A. Wentz, Sr., Timothy Mihalick, Charles Wm. James and Daniel Feist. Steven Hoyt currently serves as an advisor to the Investment Committee, and the Company expects that Mr. Hoyt will continue in that role following his retirement from the Board.

Board Compensation

During the fiscal year ended April 30, 2004, trustees not employed by the Company received annual fees of $13,700, plus $100 for each Board and committee meeting they attended in person or via conference call. Additionally, the Chairman of the Board received an additional $3,700 for serving as the Chairman, and the Vice Chairman of the Board received an additional $1,800 for serving as the Vice Chairman. Trustees who are employees of the Company do not receive any separate compensation or other consideration, direct or indirect, for service as a trustee.

Communications from Shareholders to the Board

The Board recommends that shareholders initiate any communications with the Board in writing and send them in care of the Company's Secretary. Shareholders may send written communications to the Board, the Audit or Nominating Committees of the Board or to any individual trustee c/o the Secretary, Investors Real Estate Trust, P.O. Box 1988, Minot, North Dakota, 58702, or via e-mail to Trustees@iret.com. All communications will be compiled by the Secretary and forwarded to the Board, the specified Board Committee or to individual Trustees, as the case may be, not less frequently than monthly. This centralized process will assist the Board in reviewing and responding to shareholder communications in an appropriate manner. The name of any specific intended board recipient should be noted in the communication.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers

All of the Company's trustees and employees, including our Chief Executive Officer and other senior executives, are required to comply with a Code of Conduct adopted by the Board in January 2004. The Board adopted the Code of Conduct to codify and formalize certain of the Company's long-standing policies and principles that help ensure our business is conducted in accordance with the highest standards of moral and ethical behavior. Our Code of Conduct covers all areas of professional conduct, including conflicts of interest, insider trading and confidential information, as well as requiring strict adherence to all laws and regulations applicable to our business. Employees are required to bring any violations and suspected violations of the Code of Conduct to the attention of the Company, through management or Company legal counsel. Additionally, our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer are also subject to a Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers, which contains certain specific policies in respect of internal controls, the public disclosures of the Company, violations of the securities or other laws, rules or regulations and conflicts of interest.

Table of Contents

The full text of the Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers is published on our website, at www.iret.com, under the Corporate Governance caption. The Company intends to disclose any future amendments to, or waivers of, the Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers on our website promptly following the date of any such amendment or waiver, and, to the extent required by the NASDAQ Standards, on a current report on Form 8-K.

Executive Sessions

The Board holds regular executive sessions of the independent directors, at which our independent trustees meet in executive session with no Company management or employees present. Executive sessions are held not fewer than four times per year.

Complaint Procedure

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 requires companies to maintain procedures to receive, retain and treat complaints received regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and to allow for the confidential and anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. The Company's Audit Committee has adopted a complaint procedure that requires the Company to forward to the Audit Committee any complaints that it has received regarding financial statement disclosures, accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters. Any employee of the Company may submit, on a confidential, anonymous basis if the employee so chooses, any concerns on accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or violations of the Company's Code of Conduct or Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers. All such employee concerns are to be forwarded in a sealed envelope to the chairman of the Audit Committee, in care of the Company's General Counsel, who will forward any such envelopes promptly and unopened. The Audit Committee will investigate any such complaints submitted.

Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Board has determined that Mr. Stephen Stenehjem, the Chair of the Audit Committee, is an audit committee financial expert, as that term is defined in rules of the SEC. Mr. Stenehjem is also independent as defined by the NASDAQ.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies

Rules adopted by the SEC in order to implement requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 require public company audit committees to pre-approve audit and non-audit services provided by their independent auditors. The Company's Audit Committee has adopted detailed pre-approval policies and procedures pursuant to which audit, audit-related and tax services, and all permissible non-audit services, are pre-approved. During the year, in the event it becomes necessary to engage the independent auditor for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approval, the Company will obtain the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee before engaging the independent auditor. The pre-approval policy requires the Audit Committee to be informed of each service performed by the independent auditor, and the policy does not include any delegation of the Audit Committee's responsibilities to management. The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member to whom such authority is delegated will report any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee as a whole at its next scheduled meeting.

Brenwood Office Complex 1, 2, 3 & 4	5620, 5640, 5700, 5720 Smetana Drive, Minnetonka, MN

Effective July 1, 2003, Hoyt Properties, Inc. no longer manages 2030 Cliff Road. The Company manages such property directly.

As compensation for its services, Hoyt Properties receives a monthly fee of 5% percent of the gross rental income, provided that such management fee is reimbursable by the building's tenants pursuant to the tenant's lease agreement. In the event that the Company is not reimbursed for such fee by a tenant and must pay such fee from our rent proceeds, the annual fee is 3.5% of the gross rental proceeds. In addition to such management fee, Hoyt Properties is paid a separate fee for leasing space to tenants at each location. Any leasing commissions earned by Hoyt Properties are not reimbursed by the building's tenants. The leasing commission rates are set forth in a written contract between the Company and Hoyt Properties.

Each of the written management and leasing contracts with Hoyt Properties commenced on April 1, 2001, with the exception of the contracts for Bloomington Business Plaza, which commenced on October 1, 2001, Thresher Square, which commenced on January 2, 2002, Wirth Corporate Center, which commenced on April 1, 2002, and Brenwood Office Complex, which commenced on October 1, 2002. All such contracts may be terminated by either party on 30 days written notice for any reason and without penalty. In fiscal year 2004, the Company paid management fees to Hoyt Properties in the amount of $743,000, a portion of which was reimbursed by the tenants. Additionally, during that same period, the Company paid leasing commissions to Hoyt Properties in the amount of $93,000. The Company believes that all of the terms of the management contracts are commercially reasonable and are on terms no less favorable than we could have obtained from unrelated property management firms.

Property Acquisitions

In June 2004, the Company purchased four commercial properties from affiliates of Steven Hoyt. The Company acquired three office buildings, each containing 26,186 square feet of rentable area, and one office building containing 79,287 square feet of rentable area, in this transaction for a total purchase price of $14 million. The Company obtained an independent appraisal of these properties, and the purchase price paid was lower than the appraised value of the properties. Three of the properties are located in Plymouth, Minnesota, and the fourth is located in Maple Grove, Minnesota.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON COMPENSATION OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

General

The Compensation Committee of the Board (the Committee) administers the Company's executive compensation program. The Committee is composed entirely of non-employee trustees, all of whom are independent under the listing standards of the NASDAQ.

The objective of the Company's executive compensation program is to develop and maintain executive reward programs that contribute to the enhancement of shareholder value while attracting, motivating and retaining key executives who are essential to the long-term success of the Company. As discussed in detail below, the Company's executive compensation program consists of both fixed (base salary) and variable (incentive) annual compensation. Variable compensation consists of an annual cash bonus awarded from the annual incentive bonus program described below. Each year, the Committee evaluates executive compensation by reviewing the following: (i) the Company's performance during the year, (ii) individual performance during the year based on previously defined objectives, and (iii) compensation data of companies that are considered to be similar to the Company for performance purposes.

Base Salary

Base salaries for the executive officers of the Company, including the Chief Executive Officer, are designed to compensate such individuals for their sustained performance. For the calendar year ended December 31, 2003, base salaries were established by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held, the experience of the particular individual, a comparison of salaries paid for comparable positions by other companies in the real estate industry and the Committee's desire to achieve the appropriate mix between fixed compensation and incentive based compensation. Salary information for companies that are similar to the Company was obtained by reference to the public disclosures made in the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) filings by such companies.

It is currently the Company's policy that base salaries of the executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, will generally be increased on January 1 of each year at the discretion of the Committee, based on, among other things, the individual's performance over the past year, changes in the individual's responsibility or necessary adjustments to maintain base salaries that are competitive with industry practices and similar companies. For the calendar year beginning January 1, 2004, executive base salaries were increased by an average of 23.5%.

Incentive Bonus Program

The annual cash incentive bonus program is designed to provide incentive compensation to the Company's employees, including the Chief Executive Officer, by linking bonus compensation to the Company's annual performance. The Company considers Funds From Operations (FFO) to be a useful measure of performance for an equity real estate investment trust (REIT). As such, the Company has created an incentive bonus program wherein a bonus pool is established in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the Company's increase in FFO per diluted Share over the prior fiscal year. Such increase in FFO is based on an equivalent basis each fiscal year, with such calculation approved by the Committee. The bonus pool is capped at an amount equal to the total base salaries of the top three highly compensated executive officers and no one person may be awarded more than 40% of the total bonus pool in any one year. The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Operating Officer are responsible for determining the amount to be granted to each executive officer and each employee based on the achievement of predetermined objectives agreed upon by the employee and the Committee prior to the start of each fiscal year. Approximately 75% of the bonus pool is paid out on or before May 15 of each year, with the remaining 25% paid out upon the completion of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K. The Summary Compensation Table shows the bonuses paid under the annual cash incentive bonus program to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the other Named Executive Officers during the year ended April 30, 2004.

Executive base salary is not based on the Company's annual performance. Rather, base salary is based on what pay level is necessary to attract and retain executives capable of properly managing the Company's daily operations and functions. Regardless of the Company's performance, base salary will only increase or decrease to the extent necessary to attract and retain executives who possess the skills necessary to effectively manage the Company's daily operations. The Board does not use base salary as a reward for performance. The annual bonus program as described above is the only form of compensation tied to company performance. If the Company increases its FFO from the prior year, the executives are rewarded accordingly. If the Company's performance does not improve, there is no bonus. For the fiscal year ending April 30, 2004, the Company's FFO did not increase from the prior year. As a result, the Compensation Committee has determined that there will be no incentive bonus paid for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2004.

The current compensation program is policy only and may be changed by the Board at anytime without notice to or approval by the shareholders. The Company is in a very competitive industry where success is based largely on the ability of senior management to properly identify, acquire, and manage real estate properties. Therefore, to properly manage and grow the Company, it may be necessary to increase the base salary and cash incentive bonus program in order to attract and retain qualified executives.

COMPARATIVE STOCK PERFORMANCE

Set forth below is a graph that compares, for the five fiscal years commencing May 1, 1999 and ending April 30, 2004, the cumulative total returns for the Company's common shares with the comparable cumulative total return of two indexes:

Standard and Poor's (S&P) 500
 Stock Index; and

The NAREIT Equity Index, which is an index prepared by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts
 (NAREIT), which includes all tax qualified equity REITs listed on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock
 Exchange and the NASDAQ
 National Market.

The performance graph assumes that on May 1, 1999, $100 was invested in the common shares (at the closing price of the previous trading day) and in each of the indexes. The comparison assumes the reinvestment of all distributions. CoreData, Inc. supplied this data. Cumulative total shareholder returns for the Company's common shares, the S&P 500 and the NAREIT Equity Index are based on the Company's fiscal year ending April 30.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Section 16(a)) requires that the trustees and executive officers of the Company file with the SEC, within specified due dates, initial reports of ownership of the Company s shares of beneficial interest and Units, and reports of changes in ownership of shares and Units. As a matter of practice, the Company s administrative staff assists our trustees and executive officers with these reporting requirements, and typically files these reports on their behalf. The Company is required to disclose whether it has knowledge that any person required to file such reports may have failed to do so in a timely manner. Based solely on a review of the copies of the fiscal year 2004 reports in the Company s possession, and on written representations from the Company s reporting persons that no other reports were required during the year ended April 30, 2004, the Company believes that during fiscal year 2004, all of the trustees and executive officers of the Company have timely satisfied their Section 16(a) reporting obligations for the year ended April 30, 2004, except that Mr. Thomas A. Wentz, Jr., Trustee and Senior Vice President of the Company, inadvertently did not file a Form 4 to report a conversion of Units to common shares of beneficial interest in November 2003, and Mr. Steven B. Hoyt, Trustee of the Company, inadvertently did not file Forms 4 to report the conversion of Units to common shares of beneficial interest in May and in August of 2003. Each of these transactions was subsequently reported on Forms 5 filed for Mr. Wentz and Mr. Hoyt for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2004.

PROPOSAL 2: RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee has approved Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte & Touche) as the Company s independent auditors for the current fiscal year ending April 30, 2005. Deloitte & Touche completed the audit for the Company s fiscal year ended April 30, 2004. The Company s fiscal year 2004 was the first year that Deloitte & Touche has audited the Company s financial statements. As a matter of good corporate governance, the Audit Committee has determined to submit its selection to shareholders for ratification. In the event that this selection of auditors is not ratified by a majority of the voting power of the shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting, the Audit Committee will review its future selection of independent auditors.

Brady, Martz & Associates, P.C. (Brady, Martz) was previously engaged to audit the Company s financial statements, and had done so since 1972. In July 2003, the Board, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, terminated the engagement of Brady, Martz and engaged Deloitte & Touche as the Company s independent auditors. This termination was not related to the quality of services provided by Brady, Martz, and the Company continues to retain Brady, Martz for various types of non-audit services, primarily tax services and internal audit functions. Brady, Martz issued an unqualified opinion for each of the years that it audited the Company s financial statements. During Brady, Martz s tenure as independent accountants of the Company, there were no disagreements on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure.

The Company expects that a representative of Deloitte & Touche will be present at the Annual Meeting. The representative will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she so desires. The representative will also be available to respond to questions from shareholders.

The following table shows the aggregate fees billed to date for the audit and other services provided by the Company s principal independent accountants for fiscal years 2004 (Deloitte & Touche) and 2003 (Brady, Martz):

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees (the "Audit Committee") oversees the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the Company's annual financial statements. The Audit Committee is made up solely of independent trustees, as defined in the applicable NASDAQ and SEC rules, and it operates under a written charter adopted by the Board, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Audit Committee's charter is also available on the Company's investor relations website at www.iret.com, under the "Corporate Governance" caption. The Audit Committee reviews and assesses the adequacy of its charter on an annual basis. The Company's Board of Trustees has determined that Stephen L. Stenehjem, the Chair of the Audit Committee, is an audit committee financial expert as defined by the rules of the SEC.

The Audit Committee had seven meetings during fiscal year 2004. The Audit Committee met quarterly with representatives of Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's independent auditors, and met with the independent auditors in respect of the year-end audit as well. Among other matters, the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (hereinafter referred to as "generally accepted auditing standards"). In addition, the Audit Committee has received from the independent auditors the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committees," and the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors and management that firm's independence.

As described more fully in its charter, the Audit Committee represents and assists the Board of Trustees in its oversight of the integrity of the Company's financial reporting, the independence, qualifications and performance of the Company's independent auditors, and the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. Company management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process. Deloitte & Touche LLP, the Company's independent auditing firm, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. In accordance with law, the Audit Committee has the ultimate authority and responsibility to select, compensate, evaluate and, when appropriate, replace the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee has the authority to engage its own outside advisors as it determines appropriate, apart from counsel or advisors hired by management.

In accordance with law, the Audit Committee has established procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, including the confidential, anonymous submission by Company employees of concerns regarding accounting or auditing matters. Further, the Audit Committee has pre-approved all audit and audit-related services provided by the independent auditors to the Company and the related fees for such services, and has concluded that such services are compatible with the auditors' independence. No non-audit services were provided to the Company by the independent auditors in fiscal year 2004. The provision of any such services would be subject to approval by the Audit Committee under its pre-approval policy. The Audit Committee's pre-approval policy allows delegation of the authority to pre-approve audit, audit related and permitted non-audit services to a subcommittee consisting of one or more Audit Committee members, provided that such decisions are presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. See Proposal 2: Ratification of Selection of Independent Auditors for more information regarding fees paid to the Company's independent auditors for services in fiscal years 2003 and 2004.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements for fiscal year 2004 with management and the independent auditors. This review included a discussion with management of the quality of the Company's accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant estimates and judgments, and the clarity of disclosure in the Company's financial statements, including the disclosures related to critical accounting estimates. Following these discussions and the Audit Committee's review of the report of the independent auditors, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board, and the Board approved, the inclusion of the audited financial statements in the Company's Annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2004, for filing with the SEC.

The Audit Committee has selected Deloitte & Touche LLP as the independent auditors for the Company for fiscal year 2005. The Board of Trustees has concurred in that selection and has presented the matter to the shareholders of the Company for ratification.

Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees

(adopted by the Board of Trustees on January 14, 2004)

Purpose

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the financial statements of the Company. The Audit Committee represents and assists the Board of Trustees in its oversight of (1) the integrity of the financial reporting of the Company, (2) the independence, qualifications and performance of the Company's external auditor and the performance of the internal auditors, and (3) the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The Audit Committee also prepares the report required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

Members

The Audit Committee shall be comprised of at least three members of the Board who satisfy the independence and financial literacy requirements of the NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. (NASDAQ) and applicable federal law, and at least one member of the Audit Committee shall satisfy the finance or accounting experience or background requirements of NASDAQ, as such requirements are interpreted by the Board in its business judgment. The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed by the Board at its annual organizational meeting and shall serve until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. The Board shall designate one member as Chair, or delegate authority to designate a Chair to the Audit Committee.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may appoint to the Audit Committee one member of the Board who is not independent as defined in NASDAQ Rule 4200, if such member otherwise meets the independence criteria set forth in Rule 10A(m)(3) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules thereunder, and is not a current officer or employee of the Company or a family member (as defined in NASDAQ Rule 4200) of such officer or employee, and if the Board, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the committee by the individual is required by the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The Board shall disclose, in the next annual proxy statement subsequent to such determination, the nature of the relationship and the reasons for that determination. A member appointed under this exception may not serve longer than two years and may not chair the Audit Committee.

Meetings

The Audit Committee shall meet at least four times per year, with authority to convene additional meetings as circumstances dictate, either in person or telephonically, and at such times and places as the Audit Committee shall determine.
