Company s common stock that are exercisable within 60 days.

On June 13, 2008, Steven J. Malcolm, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of The Williams Companies, Inc. (the Company) and Donald R. Chappel, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, each adopted a stock-trading plan in accordance with Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Companys policy prohibiting insider trading.

The plans provide for the exercise of options to purchase shares of the Company s common stock and the subsequent sale of the acquired shares on the open market at prevailing market prices, in each case, subject to minimum price thresholds.

Mr. Malcolm s plan was adopted in order to diversify his investment portfolio given that he will reach the age of 60 during 2008 and provides for the sale of up to 485,893 shares. Mr. Malcolm s plan expires in December 2008. As of June 13, 2008, Mr. Malcolm directly or indirectly owned 919,822 shares of the Company s common stock as well as 1,711,751 options to purchase shares of the Company s common stock that are exercisable within 60 days. Mr. Chappel s plan was adopted as part of his financial and tax planning strategy and provides for the sale of up to 100,000 shares. Mr. Chappel s plan expires in August 2009. As of June 13, 2008, Mr. Chappel directly or indirectly owned 298,711 shares of the Company s common stock as well as 374,097 options to purchase shares of the Transactions made under the plans will be reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission in accordance with applicable securities laws, rules and regulations. Except as may be required by law, the Company does not undertake any obligation to update or report any modification, termination, or other activity under the plans or any other plan that may be adopted by other officers or directors of the Company.
