Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 10, 2006, Spectrum Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company ) entered into a settlement agreement ( Agreement ) of patent litigation with Glaxo Group Limited ( GSK ) relating to sumatriptan injection, the generic version of GSK s Imitre® Injection. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the parties agreed to dismiss the litigation with prejudice and mutually agreed to release each other from all liability associated with the litigation. In addition, GSK granted the Company an exclusive license to market, sell and distribute generic versions of certain sumatriptan injection products in the United States during GSK s sumatriptan pediatric exclusivity period, which begins on August 6, 2008, but with the launch occurring not later than November 6, 2008. Also pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Company s distribution partner for sumatriptan injection, Par Pharmaceutical Companies, Inc. ( Par ), on behalf of the Company, entered into a supply and distribution agreement ( Supply Agreement ) with GSK, whereby GSK agreed to supply certain sumatriptan injection products to Par for distribution in the United States. The Agreement is subject to government review and therefore, it could become null and void.

The Company does not have any material relationship with GSK other than the agreements discussed above.

The foregoing description of the Agreement and the Supply and Distribution Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the press release attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, and incorporated herein by reference.
