The following documents and information previously filed by the Registrant with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended are hereby incorporated by reference:

Item 3(a)

The Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003.

Item 3(b)

Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

The Registrant's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended June 30, 2004 and March 31, 2004.

The Registrant's Current Reports on Form 8-K, filed by the Registrant with the Commission on September 10, 2004, July 23, 2004 and June 30, 2004.

Item 3(c)

Not applicable.

All documents subsequently filed by the Registrant pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment which indicates that all securities offered have been sold or which deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement and to be part hereof from the date of filing such documents.

Item 4. Description of Securities.

The following description of the deferred compensation obligations (the Obligations) registered hereunder is qualified by reference to the RGA Reinsurance Company Executive Deferred Savings Plan (the Plan). A copy of the Plan is filed as Exhibit 4.1 to this Registration Statement.

The Obligations will be unsecured general obligations of the Registrant to pay in the future the deferred compensation of, and contributions to, eligible management and highly-compensated employees of the Registrant and its subsidiaries in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Obligations will rank equally with other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Registrant from time to time outstanding.

The amount of compensation to be deferred by each Plan participant will be determined in accordance with the Plan based on elections made by the participants. The Registrant will establish an account on behalf of each participant, to which the Registrant will credit any deferred compensation and Registrant contributions in accordance with the Plan. The portion of the account attributable to deferred base salary (including performance payments) and bonus compensation will be credited (or debited) with income (or loss) based upon a hypothetical investment in one or more of the investment options available under the Plan, as chosen by each participant. All amounts credited to a participant's account are fully vested. However, the amounts may be subject to forfeiture in accordance with the Plan. Each account will be payable by one to fifteen installments upon the participant's retirement, termination, death, disability or other date(s) determined in accordance with the Plan.

Participants and their beneficiaries may not voluntarily or involuntarily transfer, alienate or assign their interests under the Plan, and such interests are not subject to attachment, execution, garnishment or other such equitable or legal process.

The Compensation Committee of the Registrant's Board of Directors administering the Plan may amend, alter or terminate the Plan at any time without the prior approval of the Registrant's Board of Directors.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The legality of the Obligations has been passed upon for the Registrant by James E. Sherman, Esq., Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of the Registrant. Mr. Sherman is paid a salary by the Registrant and is a participant in various employee benefit plans offered by the Registrant to its employees. As of September 30, 2004, Mr. Sherman was the beneficial owner of 2,561 shares of the Registrant's Common Stock.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 351.355(1) of the Revised Statutes of Missouri provides that a corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation in any action, suit or proceeding other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and settlement amounts actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe his contact was unlawful. Section 351.355(2) provides that the corporation may indemnify any such person in any action or suit by or in the right of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees) and settlement amounts actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that he may not be indemnified in respect of any matter in which he has been adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation, unless authorized by the court. Section 351.355(3) provides that a corporation may indemnify any such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he has been successful in defense of such action, suit or proceeding and if such action, suit or proceeding is one for which the corporation may indemnify him under Section 351.355(1) or (2). Section 351.355(7) provides that a corporation shall have the power to give any further indemnity to any such person, in addition to the indemnity otherwise authorized under Section 351.355, provided such further indemnity is either (i) authorized, directed or provided for in the articles of incorporation of the corporation or any duly adopted amendment thereof or (ii) is authorized, directed or provided for in any by-law or agreement of the corporation which has been adopted by a vote of the stockholders of the corporation, provided that no such indemnity shall indemnify any person from or on account of such person's conduct which was finally adjudged to have been knowingly fraudulent, deliberately dishonest or willful misconduct.

The Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Registrant contain provisions indemnifying its directors, officers, employees and agents to the extent authorized specifically by Sections 351.355(1), (2) (3) and (7). The Registrant has entered into indemnification contracts with its officers and directors. The contracts provide that the Registrant under certain circumstances may self-insure against directors' and officers' liabilities now insured under the policy of insurance referred to below and will provide indemnity to the fullest extent permitted by law against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and settlement amounts, paid or incurred in any action or proceeding, including any act on behalf of the Registrant, on account of their service as a director or officer of the Registrant, any subsidiary of the Registrant or any other company or enterprise when they are serving in such capacities at the request of the Registrant, excepting only cases where the conduct of such person is adjudged to be knowingly fraudulent, deliberately dishonest or willful misconduct.

The Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Registrant limit the liability of its directors to the Registrant or any of its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the fullest extent permitted under Missouri law.

Directors or officers of the Registrant who are directors or officers of MetLife, Inc. ("MetLife") or its affiliates may also be entitled to indemnification pursuant to the charter documents of such companies or under the provisions of agreements with such companies providing indemnification to them since they serve as directors or officers of the Registrant at the request of MetLife or its affiliates, as the case may be. Such individuals may also be covered by directors' and officers' liability insurance policies of MetLife or its affiliates, as the case may be.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, an affiliate of MetLife, maintains a policy of insurance under which the directors and officers of the Registrant are insured, subject to the limits of the policy, against certain losses, as defined in the policy, arising from claims made against such directors and officers by reason of any wrongful acts, as defined in the policy, in their respective capacities as directors or officers.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

See Exhibit Index filed herewith.

Item 9. Undertakings.

- (a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

3

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
