PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

The Board of Directors of Ryan s Restaurant Group, Inc. is furnishing this Proxy Statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, April 11, 2005, at the Greenville Marriott, Greenville, South Carolina. The approximate mailing date of this Proxy Statement is March 4, 2005.

Shareholders of record at the close of business on February 2, 2005, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. On that date, 41,915,587 shares of Ryan s Common Stock, $1.00 par value per share, were outstanding. Holders of Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on February 2, 2005, on all matters properly presented at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment.

If you give a proxy, you may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by:

submitting a written notice of revocation (dated later than the proxy card) to the Secretary to one of the above addresses at or before the Annual Meeting;

submitting another proxy that is properly signed and dated later than the prior proxy; or voting in person at the meeting (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself revoke a proxy).

Unless you revoke your proxy by following the above instructions, your proxy will be voted as you specify. If you do not specify how to vote your shares, all shares represented by a proxy that is received by Ryan s transfer agent will be voted FOR the proposal to elect as directors of Ryan s the nominees named in this Proxy Statement, FOR the proposal to ratify Ryan s shareholder rights agreement, FOR the proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for Ryan s for the current fiscal year, and in the best judgment of the proxy holders on any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting and any and all adjournments and on matters incident to the conduct of the meeting.

An automated system administered by Ryan s transfer agent tabulates the votes. Ryan s bylaws require the presence, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock at February 2, 2005, to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each included in determining the number of shares present and able to vote. Each is tabulated separately. In connection with the election of directors, the proposal to ratify Ryan s shareholder rights agreement and the proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for Ryan s, abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted.

Directors will be elected by a plurality of votes cast at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes for directors. Ratification of Ryan s shareholder rights agreement and ratification of the appointment of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for Ryan s will require the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares voting on the issue at the Annual Meeting.

Director Nominations

Ryan's nominating committee has a written charter, which is available on Ryan's website at www.ryans.com. All of the members of Ryan's nominating committee are independent within the meaning of Nasdaq listing standards.

The nominating committee will consider director nominees recommended by shareholders. A shareholder who wishes to recommend a person or persons for consideration as a nominee for election to the Board of Directors must send a written notice by mail, c/o Janet J. Gleitz, Secretary, Ryan's Restaurant Group, Inc., Post Office Box 100, Greer, South Carolina 29652 that sets forth (i) the name of each person whom the shareholder recommends be considered as a nominee; (ii) a business address and telephone number for each nominee (an e-mail address may also be included) and (iii) biographical information regarding such person, including the person's employment and other relevant experience. Shareholder recommendations will be considered only if received no later than the 120th calendar day before the first anniversary of the date of Ryan's proxy statement in connection with the previous year's annual meeting (no later than October 31, 2005 with respect to recommendations for nominees to be considered at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders).

Ryan's nominating committee believes that a nominee recommended for a position on Ryan's Board of Directors must meet the following minimum qualifications:

he or she must be over 21 years of age;

he or she must have experience in a position with a high degree of responsibility in a business or other organization;

he or she must be able to read and understand basic financial statements;

he or she must possess integrity and have high moral character;

he or she must be willing to apply sound, independent business judgment; and he or she must have sufficient time to devote to Ryan's.

The nominating committee identifies potential nominees for director, other than potential nominees who are current directors standing for reelection, through business and other contacts. The nominating committee may in the future choose to retain a professional search firm to identify potential nominees for director. In addition, the nominating committee will consider potential nominees who are recommended by shareholders.

Ryan's nominating committee evaluates a potential nominee by considering whether the potential nominee meets the minimum qualifications described above, as well as by considering the following factors:

whether the potential nominee has leadership, strategic, or policy setting experience in a complex organization, including any scientific, governmental, educational, or other non-profit organization;

whether the potential nominee has experience and expertise that is relevant to Ryan's business, including any specialized business experience, technical expertise, or other specialized skills, and whether the potential nominee has knowledge regarding issues affecting Ryan's;

whether the potential nominee is highly accomplished in his or her respective field;

whether the potential nominee has high ethical character and a reputation for honesty, integrity, and sound business judgment;

whether the potential nominee is independent, as defined by Nasdaq listing standards, whether he or she is free of any conflict of interest or the appearance of any conflict of interest with the best interests of Ryan's and its shareholders, and whether he or she is willing and able to represent the interests of all shareholders of Ryan's; and any factor affecting the ability or willingness of the potential nominee to devote sufficient time to Board activities and to enhance his or her understanding of Ryan's business.

In addition, with respect to an incumbent director whom the nominating committee is considering as a potential nominee for re-election, Ryan's nominating committee reviews and considers the incumbent director's service to Ryan's during his or her term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation, and overall contribution to Ryan's. The manner in which the nominating committee evaluates a potential nominee will not differ based on whether the potential nominee is recommended by a shareholder of Ryan's.

Each of the nominees for director at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders is a current director standing for re-election.

Ryan's did not pay any fee to any third party to identify or evaluate or assist in identifying or evaluating potential nominees for director at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Ryan's independent directors did not receive, by December 1, 2004 (the 120th calendar day before the first anniversary of the date of Ryan's 2004 proxy statement), any recommended nominee from a shareholder who beneficially owns more than 5% of Ryan's stock or from a group of shareholders who beneficially own, in the aggregate, more than 5% of Ryan's stock.

Communications Between Shareholders and Board of Directors

The Board provides a process for shareholders to send communications to the Board or any of the Directors. Shareholders may send written communications to the Board or any one or more of the individual Directors to Janet J. Gleitz, Ryan's Secretary, by mail (c/o Janet J. Gleitz, Secretary, Ryan's Restaurant Group, Inc., Post Office Box 100, Greer, South Carolina 29652) or by e-mail (jjgleitz@ryansinc.com). All written communications will be compiled by Ryan's Secretary and promptly submitted to the individual Directors being addressed or to the Board (to the attention of Barry L. Edwards, the Chairman of the Audit Committee, for communications relating to financial statements, accounting matters or internal controls, or to the attention of Brian S. In 1996, Ryan's implemented a policy to encourage executive officers to own more of Ryan's Common Stock, which would more closely align the personal financial interests of executive officers with shareholders' interests. The policy provides that, over 13 years, the value of an executive officer's Common Stock ownership should increase so that by the end of 2008 the value of an individual's stock holdings of Ryan's Common Stock equals 100% of his or her base salary. If an executive officer does not meet the target ownership value in a year, up to one-half of any bonus payable to that officer for that year will be paid in Ryan's Common Stock.

Deferred Compensation Salary Continuation Agreement

Ryan is party to a Deferred Compensation Salary Continuation Agreement with Mr. Way. The agreement provides for cash payments of $60,000 per year for each of the 20 years following Mr. Way's retirement, death or total disability, with retirement age set at 55. These benefits began vesting 10% per annum in 1987 and are now fully vested. The total deferred compensation liability as of December 29, 2004 relating to this agreement was $516,550. An aggregate of $40,949 of deferred compensation was accrued under this agreement for the benefit of Mr. Way during fiscal 2004. Ryan's is the owner and beneficiary of a life insurance policy on the life of Mr. Way. Ryan's expects that the benefits under this arrangement will be funded through a combination of general corporate funds and the cash surrender value of the insurance policy.

Executive Employment Agreements

In February 2001, each of Messrs. Way, McCranie, Grant, Hart and Graham (each an Executive) entered into an Employment, Noncompetition and Severance Agreement with Ryan's. Each agreement specified a base annual salary for the officer, subject to annual review by Ryan's Board of Directors. In addition to annual salary, each agreement provides for participation in Ryan's Executive Bonus Plan, discretionary stock option grants and other executive-level benefits.

Each agreement contains an evergreen term provision so that, until an Executive is 60 years old, the term of the agreement runs for the next two-year period. Either Ryan's or the Executive may cause the term to become fixed to a two-year term from the date of notice. At age 60, the term converts to a five-year period, with the agreement expiring at age 65.

The agreement also contains noncompetition provisions. Each Executive is prohibited from hiring current and certain former Ryan's employees and from working for a competing restaurant business for a period of two years following termination of employment at Ryan's.

Each Executive is also eligible for severance payments resulting from certain termination circumstances. Severance payments, when applicable, will be based on the sum of Executive's most recent annual salary and the average of the most recent three years of bonus payments (this sum is referred to as Annual Compensation). If an Executive is terminated by Ryan's for reasons other than cause (or for cause after a change of control, as defined in the agreement), the severance payment will be equal to one times Annual Compensation or, for termination without cause after a change of control, two times Annual Compensation. Cause includes material criminal fraud, material dereliction of duties, intentional material damage to Ryan's property or business, commission of a material felony or repeated failure to carry out the Board's or the CEO's reasonable directions. Following a change of control, an involuntary termination by the Executive results in a severance payment equal to two times Annual Compensation, while a voluntary termination by the Executive after a change of control results in a severance payment equal to one times Annual Compensation. Involuntary termination is defined as a termination by the Executive following a change of control due to a change in the Executive's position, authority, status or duties, change in the agreement's terms (including the rolling two-year termination date), reduction in compensation or benefits, forced relocation outside the Greenville, South Carolina metropolitan area or significant increase in travel requirements. In addition, termination by the Executive due to a material breach of the agreement by Ryan's (after notice and a cure period) results in a severance payment equal to two times Annual Compensation. All other termination circumstances do not result in any severance payment.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires Ryan's directors, executive officers, and greater-than-10% shareholders to file reports with the SEC on changes in their beneficial ownership of Ryan's Common Stock and to provide Ryan's with copies of the reports. Based on review of these reports and of certifications furnished to Ryan's, Ryan's believes that all of these reporting persons complied with their filing requirements for 2004, except that James M. Shoemaker, Jr., filed one late report with respect to one transaction and Harold K. Roberts, Jr. filed one late report with respect to three transactions.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors periodically submits to the Board recommendations respecting the salary, bonus and other compensation to be provided to Ryan's executive officers and grants options for shares of Ryan's Common Stock to Ryan's executive officers and employees. The Committee is composed entirely of independent directors, as defined by Nasdaq listing standards, who have no interlocking relationships, as defined by the SEC. The Committee provides the following report.

Compensation of Executive Officers

The Committee attempts to act on the shareholders' behalf in establishing executive compensation programs, for our shareholders ultimately bear the cost of these programs. Ryan's adopts and administers its executive compensation policies and specific executive compensation programs in accordance with that objective. The Committee annually reviews Ryan's corporate performance and that of its executive officers to determine appropriate compensation. The Committee seeks to achieve a balance between our need to attract and retain qualified and motivated executives, on the one hand, and maximizing our operating performance, on the other.

The Committee's executive compensation philosophy is to set compensation levels in its discretion that provide for compensation opportunities that reflect company and individual performances. Ryan's current executive compensation structure consists of base salary, incentive cash bonuses and stock options.

The Committee has attempted to set executive officer cash compensation amounts at levels comparable to what the Committee believes are prevailing levels within the restaurant industry and has complemented these cash amounts with significant stock option grants.

The Committee adjusted the salaries for all executive officers except Mr. Way in 2004 based upon the recommendations of Mr. Way. Mr. Way considered factors that were generally subjective, such as his perception of individual performance and the level of individual responsibility. Mr. Way recommended increases in the base salaries of executive officers ranging from 4% to 7%. The Committee determined that these increases were appropriate to compensate executive officers for the increased level of responsibility associated with the increase in Ryan's size.

The Committee generally grants stock options on an annual basis at an exercise price equal to the stock market price at the time of grant. The grants provide Ryan's executive officers and key employees with an equity ownership opportunity in Ryan's and with incentives to maximize shareholder value. The Committee can grant stock options at its discretion and is not required to award grants within any given 12-month period. Stock options were not granted to any executive officer during 2004. In February 2005, all executive officers received option grants as described in note (3) to the table titled Summary Compensation Table. In determining the size of any stock option grant, the Committee considers the following qualitative factors: the Committee's perception of Ryan's overall performance; the individual's performance; the potential effect that the individual's future performance may have on Ryan's; and the number of options previously granted to the individual. The Committee gives each of these factors approximately equal weight.

During 2004, the Committee continued an Executive Bonus Plan to provide additional cash incentives to its executive officers. Pursuant to the Executive Bonus Plan, each year the Committee establishes a percentage of each participating executive's annual base salary, ranging from 20% to 40%, as a starting bonus amount. Each participant's starting bonus amount is subject to adjustment upwards or downwards based on a point scale with three categories for points: (1) Ryan's same-store sales growth, (2) Ryan's earnings per share growth and (3) the participant's attainment of pre-determined departmental and personal objectives. In 2004, the Committee established a total point maximum of 284 with the following weights among the three categories: 56% for same-store growth, 28% for earnings per share growth and 16% for departmental and personal goals. The Committee also establishes minimum thresholds for points awards. For 2004, if there was no increase in same-store sales or if earnings per share did not increase by at least 10%, no points were awarded for that particular category.

Once the points have been determined, the starting bonus amount is multiplied by the points, expressed as a percentage (e.g., 100 points equals 100%), and the product is the final bonus amount. Because the total point maximum for 2004 was 284, the maximum bonus amount was 284% of the starting bonus amount for each participant.

For 2004, all participants in the Executive Bonus Plan received no points for same-store sales growth (which were down 0.7% from the prior year) and no points for earnings per share growth (which were down 4.4% from the prior year). When combined with the performance of departmental and personal objectives, the bonus payout for one executive officer was 19% of his maximum bonus amount, and bonus payouts for the others (including all of the Named Executive Officers) were 16% of their maximum bonus amounts.

In addition, the Compensation Committee established a discretionary bonus pool of $105,000 to be allocated by the Committee among the executive officers based on their efforts and contributions to the Company during 2004. The Committee believed that the Company's financial results in 2004 were adversely affected by external factors, particularly uncertain economic conditions and high energy costs, and wanted to supplement payments under the Executive Bonus Plan so that said payments would not be excessively low.

The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 denies publicly traded companies the ability to deduct for federal income tax purposes certain compensation paid (including income on certain exercised stock option grants) to top executive officers in excess of $1 million per person. The Committee intends to administer Ryan's executive compensation programs in such a way that anticipated compensation to executive officers will be fully deductible under the Internal Revenue Code, including submitting plans for shareholder approval where necessary and determining compensation on an objective basis where necessary.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Way joined Ryan's in 1979, served as its President and Chief Executive Officer since 1989 and became Chairman of the Board in 1992. In 2004, Mr. McCranie was promoted to President and Chief Operating Officer, resulting in Mr. Way's current positions as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer at December 29, 2004. In setting Mr. Way's compensation, the Committee tends to set a relatively low base salary for an individual with Mr. Way's responsibilities and emphasize stock option grants as a component of his overall compensation package. The Committee believes that this approach to Mr. Way's compensation has resulted in an appropriate alignment of his long-term rewards from Ryan's with the interests of shareholders.

During 2004, the Committee adjusted Mr. Way's base salary upward by approximately 6%. In making this adjustment, the Committee considered subjective factors including the perception of the Committee as to Mr. Way's overall performance and objective factors such as Ryan's earnings per share, operating margins, and return on equity. Each of these factors was given approximately equal weight. In addition, Mr. Way received a bonus of $94,200 consisting of $79,200 pursuant to the Executive Bonus Plan and $15,000 from the discretionary bonus pool, which are both described above.

As noted above, the Committee did not grant stock options to any executive officer, including Mr. Way, during 2004. In February 2005, all executive officers received option grants of which Mr. Way received options representing 40,000 shares. In determining the size of this grant, the Committee considered the following qualitative factors: the Committee's perception of Ryan's overall performance; Mr. Way's performance; the potential effect of his future performance on Ryan's; and the number of options previously granted to him. Each of these factors was given approximately equal weight. At fiscal 2004 year-end, the value of Mr. Way's outstanding exercisable in-the-money stock options was $506,600 as compared to $2,044,200 at the end of 2003, a decrease of 75.2% (which decrease was due entirely to Mr. Way's exercise of stock options during 2004). The Committee believes that the stock options provide Mr. Way with appropriate incentives to promote long-term shareholder value.

RATIFICATION OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS AGREEMENT
(Item #2 on the Proxy)

General

Ryan's Board of Directors has authorized Ryan's to enter into a shareholder rights agreement, and Ryan's entered into the agreement effective February 18, 2005, with American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, as rights agent. The agreement's continued effectiveness is contingent on the vote in favor of ratification of the shareholder rights agreement by a majority of the shares cast and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting; otherwise, the agreement will expire immediately following the Annual Meeting.

Following is a summary of the material terms of the shareholder rights agreement. The statements below are only a summary, and we refer you to the full text of the shareholder rights agreement, which was filed as an exhibit to Form 8-A/A on February 22, 2005. Each statement in this summary is qualified in its entirety by this reference. A copy of the Summary of Rights is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A.

The shareholder rights agreement replaces the Amended and Restated Shareholder Rights Agreement, dated as of October 16, 2000, between Ryan's and Equiserve Trust Company, N.A., which expired by its terms on February 10, 2005. The Board believes that the proposed new agreement is in the best interests of Ryan's shareholders. The proposed agreement would provide time and bargaining power for the Board, in the case of offers that the Board considers to be coercive, abusive, or opportunistic and hostile, to evaluate an offer, consider alternative offers, and to negotiate the best price for Ryan's shareholders if a change of control transaction is to occur. Ryan's has reviewed current literature and published guidelines in order to draft an agreement that contains many progressive, shareholder-friendly provisions, including the qualified offer provisions discussed below which would, under certain circumstances, permit a shareholder vote on whether to redeem the rights.

Under the terms of the shareholder rights agreement, holders of Ryan's Common Stock as of February 28, 2005 receive one right for every share of Common Stock that they held on that date. Each share of Common Stock of Ryan's issued after the close of business on February 28, 2005 also will be accompanied by one corresponding right. The rights will be evidenced by Ryan's Common Stock certificates. After the distribution date, which is described below, each right will entitle the holder to purchase from Ryan's one-half of one share of Ryan's common stock at a purchase price of $11 per half share, subject to adjustment, or, in the circumstances described below, to purchase shares of Common Stock equal in value to twice the $11 exercise price (as adjusted). The rights also would entitle their holders to acquire common stock of an acquiror in the circumstances described below.

The rights serve as an anti-takeover device and encourage third parties who may be interested in acquiring Ryan's to negotiate directly with your Board of Directors. The rights will not prevent a takeover of Ryan's. However, as described below, the rights may cause substantial dilution to a person or group that acquires 20% or more of Ryan's Common Stock unless the rights are first redeemed by Ryan's Board of Directors. Nevertheless, the rights should not interfere with a transaction that is in the best interests of Ryan's and its shareholders because the rights may be redeemed on or prior to the close of business on the distribution date that is described below, before the consummation of such a transaction. The Board's decision to enter into the shareholder rights agreement was not made in response to, or in anticipation of, any acquisition proposal, and is not intended to prevent a non-coercive takeover bid from being made for Ryan's or to secure continuance of management or the directors in office.

Events Causing the Exercisability of the Rights

The rights will become exercisable upon the occurrence of the distribution date which is defined in the shareholder rights agreement as the earlier to occur of:

10 calendar days following a share acquisition date, which is the date of a public announcement that a person or group owns 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Ryan's common stock or

10 business days following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer that would result in a person or group owning 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

Until the distribution date, the rights may be transferred only with Ryan's Common Stock.

Ryan's Board of Directors May Redeem or Exchange the Rights

The Board of Directors of Ryan's may, at its option, at any time prior to the close of business on the tenth day after a share acquisition date, redeem all (but not less than all) of the then outstanding rights at a price of $.001 per right. The rights will then terminate immediately and each right, whether or not previously exercised, will thereafter represent only the right to receive the redemption price in cash or securities, as determined by the Board of Directors.

Effect of a Distribution Date

In the event that a distribution date occurs prior to the expiration or termination of the rights, each right (other than rights owned by an acquiring person as defined in the shareholder rights agreement, or by its affiliates or transferees, which will become void) will thereafter constitute the right to receive, upon exercise for the exercise price of $11, subject to adjustment, that number of shares of Ryan's Common Stock (or, in certain circumstances, cash, property or other securities of Ryan's) having a value equal to two times the exercise price. However, after the distribution date Ryan's Board of Directors may exchange the rights (other than rights owned by the acquiror, which will become void), under certain circumstances, in whole or in part, at an exchange ratio of one share of Common Stock per right.

Until a right is exercised or exchanged, the holder of the right, by virtue of being a right holder, will have no rights as a shareholder of Ryan's, including, for example, the right to vote or to receive dividends.

Exercise of Rights for Shares of an Acquiring Company

In the event that, at any time following the acquisition by a person or group of more than 20% of Ryan's Common Stock, (i) Ryan's is acquired in a merger or other business combination transaction or (ii) 50% or more of Ryan's assets or earning power is sold, each holder of a right will then have the right to receive, upon exercise, common stock of the acquiring company having a market value equal to two times the exercise price of the right.

Qualified Offer

In the event the Company receives a qualified offer, as defined in the shareholder rights agreement, the rights may be redeemed by way of shareholder action taken at a special meeting of shareholders called by the Board for the purpose of voting on a resolution accepting the qualified offer and authorizing the redemption of the rights. The special meeting must be held not less than 90 or more than 120 days after the date the qualified offer is received (unless a shareholders meeting is already scheduled to be held within 60 days after the qualified offer is received). Action by shareholders at the special meeting to approve the offer and redeem the rights requires the affirmative vote of a two-thirds of all shares of Common Stock entitled to vote (excluding shares held by the offeror and its affiliates), and is effective immediately prior to the consummation of any qualified offer consummated within 60 days after the special meeting.

A qualified offer is an offer for all outstanding shares of Ryan's Common Stock not already owned by the offeror that meets all of the following conditions:

the same per share price and consideration is offered for all shares, is no less than the then current market price for shares of Common Stock, is at least 80 percent cash (and any non-cash portion is comprised of shares listed on a national exchange or the Nasdaq National Market), and is to be paid upon consummation of the offer,

the offer is accompanied by written financing commitments and/or the acquiror has on hand cash or cash equivalents, for the full amount of all financing necessary to consummate the offer, the offer requests that Ryan's call a special meeting of shareholders to accept the qualified offer and contains a written agreement of the offeror to pay at least 50% of Ryan's costs of the special meeting, the offer by its terms remains open for at least 30 business days plus 15 business days after any change in price or after any bona fide alternative offer for a higher consideration is made, the offer is accompanied by a written opinion of a nationally recognized investment banking firm, stating that the price to be paid to holders pursuant to the offer is fair and including any written presentation of such firm showing the range of values underlying such conclusion, on or before the date the offer is commenced, the offeror makes an irrevocable written commitment to Ryan's: to acquire, within 5 business days upon completion of the offer, all shares of Common Stock then not beneficially owned by the offeror at the same price, and for the same consideration, per share as paid in the offer,

not to amend its offer to reduce the price, and if the offer is not consummated, not to make another offer for Ryan's Common Stock within one year if at least 85% of the Common Stock not owned by the offeror is not tendered pursuant to the offer, and the offer is not subject to any financing, funding or similar condition, does not include any condition relating to completion of or satisfaction with any due diligence or similar investigation, and otherwise provides for usual and customary terms and conditions.

Adjustments to Exercise Price

The exercise price for each right and the number of shares of Common Stock (or other securities or property) issuable upon exercise of the rights are subject to adjustment from time to time to prevent dilution.

Amendments to Terms of the Rights

Any of the provisions of the shareholder rights agreement may be amended by Ryan's Board of Directors prior to the distribution date. After the distribution date, the provisions of the agreement, other than those relating to the principal economic terms of the rights, may be amended by the Board to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency, to make changes which do not adversely affect the interests of holders of rights (excluding the interests of any acquiring person), or to shorten or lengthen any time period under the agreement, subject to certain limitations.

Term

The rights will expire at the close of business on February 18, 2008 (or immediately following the Annual Meeting, if the shareholder rights agreement has not been ratified by holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock voting at the Annual Meeting), unless earlier redeemed, exercised or exchanged by Ryan's as described above.

Vote Required

Ratification of the shareholder rights agreement will require that, of the shares present at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy and voting on the matter, there be more positive votes than negative votes. Abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted.

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR the proposal to ratify the shareholder rights agreement.

All audit and audit-related services were pre-approved by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee has not adopted pre-approval policies and procedures pursuant to Rule 2-01(c)(7)(i) of Regulation S-X.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of these services is compatible with maintaining KPMG LLP's independence.

APPENDIX A
RYAN S RESTAURANT GROUP, INC.
SUMMARY OF RIGHTS TO PURCHASE COMMON STOCK

On January 24, 2005, the Board of Directors of Ryan s Restaurant Group, Inc. (the Company) declared a dividend distribution of one Common Stock Purchase Right (each a Right) for each outstanding share of Common Stock of the Company to stockholders of record at the close of business on February 28, 2005. Each Right entitles the registered holder to purchase from the Company one half share of Common Stock, $1.00 par value per share (the Common Stock), at a cash exercise price of $11 per half share, subject to adjustment. The description and terms of the Rights are set forth in a Shareholder Rights Agreement between the Company and American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, as Rights Agent, as amended, restated or otherwise modified from time to time (the Agreement).

Initially, the Rights will not be exercisable, will be attached to all outstanding shares of Common Stock, and no separate Right Certificates will be distributed. The Rights will separate from the Common Stock and a Distribution Date will occur upon the earliest of (i) 10 calendar days following a public announcement that a person or group of affiliated or associated persons (an Acquiring Person) (other than an Exempt Person as defined in the Agreement) has acquired beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (the date of said announcement being referred to as the Share Acquisition Date) and (ii) 10 business days following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer that would result in a Person or group owning 20% or more of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

Until the Distribution Date (or earlier redemption or expiration of the Rights), (a) the Rights will be evidenced by the Common Stock certificates and will be transferred with and only with such Common Stock certificates, (b) new Common Stock certificates issued after February 28, 2005 will contain a notation incorporating the Agreement by reference, and (c) the surrender for transfer of any certificates for Common Stock will also constitute the transfer of the Rights associated with the Common Stock represented by such certificate.

The Rights are not exercisable until the Distribution Date and will expire at the close of business on February 18, 2008 (or, if the Agreement is not ratified by holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock voting on the issue at the Company s first annual meeting of shareholders after February 18, 2005, immediately following such annual meeting) unless previously redeemed or exchanged by the Company (including by shareholder action in connection with a Qualified Offer as defined in the Agreement) as described below.

As soon as practicable after the Distribution Date, Right Certificates will be mailed to holders of record of Common Stock as of the close of business on the Distribution Date and, thereafter, the separate Right Certificates alone will represent the Rights. Except as otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, only shares of Common Stock issued prior to the Distribution Date will be issued with Rights.

In the event that (i) an Acquiring Person acquires beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the Company s Common Stock, (ii) the Company is the surviving corporation in a merger with an Acquiring Person or any Affiliate or Associate and the Common Stock is not changed or exchanged, (iii) an Acquiring Person engages in one of a number of self-dealing transactions specified in the Agreement, or (iv) an event occurs which results in an Acquiring Person s ownership interest being increased by more than 1% (e.g., a reverse stock split), proper provision will be made so that each holder of a Right will thereafter have the right to receive upon exercise thereof at the then current exercise price, that number of shares of Common Stock (or in certain circumstances, cash, property, or other securities of the Company) having a market value of two times such exercise price. However, the Rights are not exercisable following the occurrence of any of the events set forth above until such time as the Rights are no longer redeemable as set forth below. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, Rights that are or were beneficially owned by an Acquiring Person shall become null and void.

In the event that, at any time following the Share Acquisition Date, (i) the Company is acquired in a merger or other business combination transaction or (ii) 50% or more of the Company's assets or earning power is sold, each holder of a Right shall thereafter have the right to receive, upon exercise, common stock of the acquiring company having a market value equal to two times the exercise price of the Right.

At any time after any person becomes an Acquiring Person and prior to the time such Person, together with its Affiliates and Associates, becomes the Beneficial Owner of 50% or more of the outstanding Common Stock, the Board of Directors of the Company may exchange the Rights (other than Rights which have become void), in whole or in part, at the exchange rate of one share of Common Stock per Right, subject to adjustment as provided in the Agreement.

The exercise price payable, and the number of shares of Common Stock or other securities or property issuable, upon exercise of the Rights are subject to adjustment from time to time to prevent dilution (i) in the event of a stock dividend on, or a subdivision, combination or reclassification of, the Common Stock, (ii) if holders of the Common Stock are granted certain rights or warrants to subscribe for Common Stock or securities convertible into Common Stock at less than the current market price of the Common Stock, or (iii) upon the distribution to holders of the Common Stock of evidence of indebtedness or assets (excluding regular quarterly cash dividends) or of subscription rights or warrants (other than those referred to above).

With certain exceptions, no adjustment in the exercise price will be required until cumulative adjustments amount to at least 1% of the exercise price. No fractional shares of Common Stock will be issued and, in lieu thereof, an adjustment, in cash will be made based on the fair market value of the Common Stock on the last trading date prior to the date of exercise.

At any time prior to the earlier of (1) the close of business on the 10th day following a Share Acquisition Date and (2) February 18, 2008 (or any earlier expiration or termination date), the Board of Directors of the Company may redeem the Rights in whole, but not in part, at a price of $0.001 per Right, payable in cash or securities or both (the Redemption Price). Immediately upon the action of the Board of Directors of the Company ordering redemption of the Rights, the Rights will terminate and the only right of the holders of Rights will be to receive the Redemption Price. However, in the event the Company receives a Qualified Offer (as defined below), the Rights may be redeemed by way of shareholder action taken at a special meeting of shareholders called by the Board for the purpose of voting on a resolution accepting the Qualified Offer and authorizing the redemption of the Rights pursuant to the provisions of the Agreement. The special meeting must be held not less than 90 or more than 120 days after the date the Qualified Offer is received (unless a meeting is already scheduled to be held within 60 days after the Qualified Offer is received). Such an action by shareholders requires the affirmative vote of a two-thirds of all shares of Common Stock and any other stock entitled to vote in the election of directors and management affairs of the Company (excluding shares held by the offering Person and its Affiliates), and is effective immediately prior to the consummation of any Qualified Offer consummated within 60 days after the special meeting. A Qualified Offer is a tender offer for all outstanding shares of Common Stock not already beneficially owned by the Person making the Qualified Offer that meets all of the following conditions:

the same per share price and consideration is offered for all shares, is no less than the then current market price for shares of Common Stock, is at least 80 percent cash (and any non-cash portion is comprised of shares listed on a national exchange or the Nasdaq National Market), and is to be paid upon consummation of the Qualified Offer, the Qualified Offer is accompanied by written financing commitments and/or has on hand cash or cash equivalents, for the full amount of all financing necessary to consummate the Qualified Offer, the Qualified Offer requests that the Company call a special meeting of shareholders to accept the Qualified Offer and contains a written agreement of the person making the Qualified Offer to pay at least 50% of the Company's costs of the special meeting, the Qualified Offer by its terms remains open for at least 30 Business Days plus 15 Business Days after any change in price or after any bona fide alternative offer for a higher consideration is made, the Qualified Offer is accompanied by a written opinion of a nationally recognized investment banking firm, stating that the price to be paid to holders pursuant to the Qualified Offer is fair and including any written presentation of such firm showing the range of values underlying such conclusion, on or before the date the Qualified Offer is commenced, such Person makes an irrevocable written commitment to the Company:

to acquire, within 5 Business Days upon completion of the Qualified Offer, all shares of Common Stock then not beneficially owned by such Person at the same price, and for the same consideration, per share as paid in the Qualified Offer,

not to amend its offer to reduce the price, and if the Qualified Offer is not consummated, that such Person will not make another offer for the Common Stock within one year if at least 85% of the common stock not owned by such Person has not been tendered, and such offer is not subject to any financing, funding or similar condition, does not include any condition relating to completion of or satisfaction with any due diligence or similar investigation, and otherwise provides for usual and customary terms and conditions.

In the determination of the fairness of any offer, the Board retains the authority to reject, advise the shareholders to reject, or take other action in response to any offer necessary to the exercise of its fiduciary duties.

Immediately upon action of the Board of Directors of the Company ordering the redemption of the Rights or upon the effectiveness of a redemption of the Rights pursuant to shareholder adoption of a resolution accepting a Qualified Offer and authorizing the redemption of the Rights, the only existing right of a holder shall be to receive the redemption price for the Rights. Promptly after the action of the Board of Directors or Shareholders ordering redemption of the Rights, the Company shall give notice of such redemption to the Rights Agent and the record holders of the then outstanding Rights by mail.

Until a Right is exercised, the holder will have no rights as a stockholder of the Company (beyond those as an existing stockholder), including the right to vote or to receive dividends. While the distribution of the Rights will not be taxable to stockholders or to the Company, stockholders may, depending upon the circumstances, recognize taxable income in the event that the Rights become exercisable for Common Stock (or other consideration) of the Company or for common stock of an acquiring company as set forth above.

Any of the provisions of the Agreement may be amended by the Board of Directors of the Company prior to the Distribution Date. After the Distribution Date, the provisions of the Agreement, other than those relating to the principal economic terms of the Rights, may be amended by the Board to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency, to make changes which do not adversely affect the interests of holders of Rights (excluding the interests of any Acquiring Person), or to shorten or lengthen any time period under the Agreement. Amendments adjusting time periods may, under certain circumstances, be limited.

A copy of the Agreement is available free of charge from the Company. This summary description of the Rights does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement.
