PROXY STATEMENT

The Board of Directors of Levitt Corporation (the Company) is soliciting proxies to be used at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (the Annual Meeting) to be held at the Westin Cypress Creek, 400 Cypress Creek Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33334 Cypress Creek on May 17, 2005 at 10:30 a.m., and at any and all postponements or adjournments of the Annual Meeting, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Meeting.

This Proxy Statement, Notice of Meeting and accompanying proxy card are being mailed to shareholders on or about April 19, 2005.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE PROXY MATERIALS AND THE ANNUAL MEETING

What is the purpose of the meeting?

At our Annual Meeting, shareholders will act upon the matters outlined in the notice of meeting on the cover page of this Proxy Statement, including the election of directors as well as any other matters which may properly be brought before the meeting.

Who is entitled to vote at the meeting?

Record holders of the Company's Class A Common Stock (Class A Stock) and record holders of the Company's Class B Common Stock (Class B Stock) at the close of business on March 28, 2005 may vote at the meeting.

On March 28, 2005, 18,597,166 shares of Class A Stock and 1,219,031 shares of Class B Stock were outstanding and, thus, are eligible to vote at the meeting.

What are the voting rights of the holders of Class A Stock and Class B Stock?

Holders of Class A Stock and the holder of Class B Stock will vote as one class of common stock on the matters to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting. Holders of Class A Stock are entitled to one vote per share, with all holders of Class A Stock having in the aggregate 53% of the general voting power. The number of votes represented by each share of Class B Stock, which represent in the aggregate 47% of the general voting power, is calculated each year in accordance with the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation. At this year's Annual Meeting, each outstanding share of Class B Stock will be entitled to 13.53 votes on each matter.

What constitutes a quorum?

The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of shares representing a majority of the aggregate voting power (as described above) of the Company's common stock outstanding on the record date will constitute a quorum, permitting the conduct of business at the meeting.

Table of Contents

What is the difference between a shareholder of record and a street name holder?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the Company's stock transfer agent, you are considered the shareholder of record with respect to those shares. If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of these shares but not the shareholder of record, and your shares are held in street name.

How do I vote my shares?

If you are a shareholder of record, you can give a proxy to be voted at the meeting by mailing in the enclosed proxy card.

If you hold your shares in street name, you must vote your shares in the manner prescribed by your broker or nominee. Your broker or nominee has enclosed or provided a voting instruction card for you to use in directing the broker or nominee how to vote your shares.

Can I vote my shares in person at the meeting?

Yes. If you are a shareholder of record, you may vote your shares at the Annual Meeting by completing a ballot at the meeting.

However, if you are a street name holder, you may vote your shares in person only if you obtain a signed proxy from your broker or nominee giving you the right to vote the shares.

Even if you currently plan to attend the Annual Meeting, we recommend that you also submit your vote by proxy or by giving instructions to your broker or nominee as described above so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the Annual Meeting.

What are my choices when voting?

In the election of directors, you may vote for all nominees, or your vote may be withheld with respect to one or more nominees. The proposal related to the election of directors is described in this Proxy Statement beginning at page 8.

What is the Board's recommendation?

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR all of the nominees for director.

What if I do not specify how I want my shares voted?

If you do not specify on your proxy card (or when giving your proxy by telephone or over the Internet) how you want to vote your shares, we will vote them FOR all of the nominees for director.

Can I change my vote?

Yes. You can revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised in any of three ways:

by submitting written notice of revocation to the Company's Secretary;

by submitting another proxy by mail that is dated later and is properly signed; or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

What vote is required for a proposal to be approved?

For the election of directors, the affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting is required. A properly executed proxy marked WITHHOLD AUTHORITY with respect to the election of one or more directors will not be voted with respect to the director or directors indicated, although it will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum.

Table of Contents

If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or other nominee and you have not provided voting instructions to the broker, whether the broker may vote your shares in its discretion depends on the proposals before the Annual Meeting. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, your broker may vote your shares in its discretion on routine matters. The election of directors is a routine matter on which brokers will be permitted to vote your shares if no voting instructions are furnished.

Are there any other matters to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting?

We do not know of any other matters to be presented or acted upon at the Annual Meeting. If any other matter is presented at the Annual Meeting on which a vote may properly be taken, the shares represented by proxies will be voted in accordance with the judgment of the person or persons voting those shares.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Pursuant to the Company's bylaws and the Florida Business Corporation Act, the Company's business and affairs are managed under the direction of the Board of Directors. Directors are kept informed of the Company's business through discussions with management, including the Chief Executive Officer and other senior officers, by reviewing materials provided to them and by participating in meetings of the Board of Directors and its committees.

Determination of Director Independence

The Board's Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee undertook a review of each of the directors independence on February 28, 2005, and the full Board reviewed the committee's determinations concerning independence and the facts underlying those determinations on February 28, 2005. During these reviews, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee and the Board considered transactions and relationships between each director or any member of his immediate family and the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates, including those reported below under Certain Relationships and Related Transactions. They also examined transactions and relationships between directors or their affiliates and members of the Company's senior management or their affiliates. The purpose of these reviews was to determine whether any such relationship or transaction was inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent under applicable laws and regulations and the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. As permitted by the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange, the Board has determined that the following categories of relationships will not constitute material relationships that impair a director's independence: (i) serving on third party boards of directors with other members of the Board, (ii) payments or charitable gifts by the Company to entities with which a director is an executive officer or employee where such payments or gifts do not exceed the greater of $1 million or 2% of such company's or charity's consolidated gross revenues, and (iii) investments by directors in common with each other or the Company, its affiliates or executive officers. As a result of its review of the transactions and relationships of each of the members of the Board, and considering these categorical standards, and in accordance with the recommendations of the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, the Board has affirmatively determined that a majority of the Company's Board members, including James Blosser, S. Lawrence Kahn, III, Alan Levy, Joel Levy, and William Nicholson, are independent directors within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and applicable law.

Committees of the Board of Directors and Meeting Attendance

The Company's Board of Directors has established Audit, Compensation and Nominating/Corporate Governance Committees. The Board has adopted a written charter for each of these three committees and Corporate Governance Guidelines that address the make-up and functioning of the Board. The Board has also adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to all of our directors, officers and employees. The committee charters, Corporate Governance Guidelines and Code of Business Conduct and Ethics are posted in the Investor Relations section of our website at www.levittcorporation.com/investor/governance/index.php, and each is available in print without charge to any shareholder.

The Board met 13 times during 2004. Each of the members of the Board of Directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and Committees on which he served, and other than Mr. Scherer, all of the then-serving members of the Board of Directors attended the Company's Annual Meeting in 2004, although the Company has no formal policy requiring them to do so.

The Audit Committee

The Audit Committee consists of Joel Levy, Chairman, William Nicholson and S. Lawrence Kahn, III. Darwin Dornbush served on the Audit Committee through October 2004. The Board has determined that all current members of the Audit Committee are financially literate and independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and applicable Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) regulations. Mr. Levy, the chair of this committee, is qualified as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of SEC regulations, and the Board has determined that he has accounting and related financial management expertise within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Audit Committee met 12 times during 2004, and its members also held various informal conference calls as a committee. The Audit Committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the independent auditors. Additionally, the Audit Committee assists Board oversight of: (i) the integrity of the Company's financial statements, (ii) the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, (iii) the qualifications, performance and independence of the Company's independent auditors, and (iv) the performance of the Company's internal audit function. In connection with these oversight functions, the Audit Committee receives reports from the Company's outsourced internal audit group, periodically meets with management and the Company's independent auditors to receive information concerning internal controls over financial reporting and any deficiencies in such controls, and has adopted a complaint monitoring procedure that enables confidential and anonymous reporting to the Audit Committee of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. The Report from the Audit Committee is included at page 19.

The Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee consists of S. Lawrence Kahn, III, Chairman, Alan Levy and William Nicholson. All of the members of the Committee are independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. In addition, each committee member is a Non-Employee Director as defined in Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and an outside director as defined for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Compensation Committee met five times during 2004. The Compensation Committee provides assistance to the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to the compensation of the Company's executive officers. It reviews and determines the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and determines or makes recommendations with respect to the compensation of the Company's other executive officers. It also assists the Board in the administration of the Company's equity-based and performance-based compensation plans.

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee consists of James Blosser, Chairman, Alan Levy and Joel Levy, each of whom has been determined by the Board of Directors to meet the New York Stock Exchange's standards for independence. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee met two times during 2004. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for assisting the Board in identifying individuals qualified to become directors, making recommendations of candidates for directorships, developing and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance principles for the Company, overseeing the evaluation of the Board and management, overseeing the selection, composition and evaluation of Board committees and overseeing the management continuity and succession planning process.

Table of Contents

Generally, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will identify candidates through the business and other organization networks of the directors and management. Candidates for director will be selected on the basis of the contributions the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee believes that those candidates can make to the Board and to management and on such other qualifications and factors as the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee considers appropriate. In assessing potential new directors, the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee will seek individuals from diverse professional backgrounds who provide a broad range of experience and expertise. Board candidates should have a reputation for honesty and integrity, strength of character, mature judgment and experience in positions with a high degree of responsibility. In addition to reviewing a candidate's background and accomplishments, candidates for director nominees are reviewed in the context of the current composition of the Board and the evolving needs of the Company. The Company also requires that its Board members be able to dedicate the time and resources sufficient to ensure the diligent performance of their duties on the Company's behalf, including attending Board and applicable committee meetings. If the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee believes a candidate would be a valuable addition to the Board, it will recommend the candidate's election to the full Board.

Alan J. Levy was appointed to the Board of Directors by the Board in January 2005 and is standing for election by the Company's shareholders for the first time. Mr. Alan Levy was identified as a potential Board member by the Company's Chairman, Mr. Levan, and was recommended as a director by the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee. Mr. Levy has been acquainted with Mr. Blosser, the chairman of the Company's Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, for many years. After a set of interviews by the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee and review of his credentials, Mr. Levy was recommended and appointed as a director based upon, among other things, his business experience, general knowledge of the real estate industry and his active involvement in the community.

Under the Company's bylaws, nominations for directors may be made only by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or by a shareholder entitled to vote who delivers written notice (along with certain additional information specified in our bylaws) not less than 90 or more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting. For our 2006 Annual Meeting, we must receive this notice between January 17 and February 16, 2006.

Investment Committee

The Investment Committee was established by the Company's Board of Directors by resolution in September 2003 and consists of Alan B. Levan, John E. Abdo, William Nicholson and two outside, non-voting advisory members. The Investment Committee met 24 times in 2004. The Investment Committee assists the Board in supervising and overseeing the management of the Company's investments in real estate assets. Specifically, subject to guidelines established by the Board, the Investment Committee (i) reviews and approves all real property transactions, (ii) authorizes new project and working capital debt, and (iii) authorizes refinancing and other modifications to existing project and other working capital debt.

Executive Sessions of Non-Management and Independent Directors

In June 2004 the non-management directors of the Company met in an executive session of the Board in which management directors and other members of management did not participate. Darwin Dornbush was the presiding director for this session. The non-management directors will meet at semi-annual scheduled meetings each year, and may schedule additional meetings without management present as they determine to be necessary.

Compensation of Directors

The Company's Compensation Committee recommends director compensation to the Board based on factors it considers appropriate and based on the recommendations of management. Non-employee directors of the Company each received fees based upon an annual retainer of $36,000 in 2004, with no additional compensation for attendance at Board of Directors meetings. Except for the Chairman of the Audit Committee who received an additional $12,000 during 2004 for his service on that committee, the other members of the Audit Committee received an additional $8,000 during 2004 for their service on that committee. Members of the Nominating/Corporate Governance and Compensation Committees received an additional $3,000 during 2004 for service on each of those committees. Additionally, Messrs. Blosser, Kahn, Levy and Nicholson each received $3,000 in connection with their services on a special committee assignment of the Board of Directors. Non-employee directors serving on the Company's Investment Committee receive $500 per meeting with a maximum of $1,000 per month for service on that committee. In addition, on January 2, 2004, all non-employee directors then serving received options to acquire 7,500 shares of the Company's Class A Stock under the Company's 2003 Stock Incentive Plan (the Option Plan) at an exercise price of $20.15 per share, the market value on the date of grant. All such options vested and became exercisable immediately upon grant. Directors who are also officers of the Company or its subsidiaries do not receive additional compensation for their service as directors or for attendance at Board of Directors meetings or committee meetings.

Director and Management Indebtedness

The Company has not made any loans to its executive officers or directors.

Communications with the Board of Directors and Non-Management Directors

Shareholders who wish to communicate with the Board of Directors, any individual director or the non-management directors as a group, can write to the Corporate Secretary, Levitt Corporation, 1750 East Sunrise Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33304. The letter should include a statement indicating that the sender is a shareholder of the Company. Depending on the subject matter, an officer of the Company will:

forward the letter to the director or directors to whom it is addressed; attempt to handle the inquiry directly if it relates to routine or ministerial matters, including requests for information; or not forward the letter if it is primarily commercial in nature or if it is determined to relate to an improper or irrelevant topic.

A member of management will, at each meeting of the Board, present a summary of all letters received from shareholders since the last meeting that were not forwarded to the Board and will make those letters available to the Board upon request.

Code of Ethics

The Company has a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to all directors, officers and employees of the Company, including its principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer. The Code of Ethics is available on the Company's website at www.levittcorporation.com. The Company will post amendments to or waivers from its Code of Ethics to the extent applicable to the Company's principal executive officer, principal financial officer or principal accounting officer on its website. There were no such waivers from the Company's Code of Ethics subsequent to its adoption in 2004. The Company made ministerial amendments to its Code of Business Conduct and Ethics in November 2004; the amended Code of Business Conduct and Ethics has been posted on the Company's website.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Board of Directors has designated Alan Levy, S. Lawrence Kahn, III and William R. Nicholson, none of whom are employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, to serve on the Compensation Committee. The Company's Chairman, Vice Chairman and Senior Executive Vice President are also executive officers of BFC Financial Corporation, the Company's controlling shareholder. In addition, the Company's Chairman and Vice Chairman are also executive officers of BankAtlantic Bancorp and of BankAtlantic, (BankAtlantic Bancorp's wholly owned subsidiary) and of Bluegreen Corporation, each of which is an affiliate of the Company. Each of the Company's Chairman and Vice Chairman also receives compensation from BFC Financial Corporation and from BankAtlantic. The Company's Senior Executive Vice President also receives compensation from BFC Financial Corporation.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Based solely upon a review of the copies of the forms furnished to the Company and written representations that no other reports were required, the Company believes that during the year ended December 31, 2004, all filing requirements under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 applicable to its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners were complied with on a timely basis, except that one Form 4 filing due by January 5, 2004, reporting William Scherer's receipt of shares of the Company's Class A Stock as a distribution in the spin-off from BankAtlantic Bancorp, was filed on March 24, 2005 due to oversight.

Table of ContentsCOMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following Report of the Compensation Committee and the performance graph included elsewhere in this proxy statement do not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report or the performance graphs by reference therein.

Executive Officer Compensation

The Company's compensation program for executive officers consists of three key elements: a base salary, an incentive bonus and periodic grants of stock options. The Compensation Committee believes that this approach best serves the interests of shareholders by ensuring that executive officers are compensated in a manner that advances both the short and long term interests of the Company and its shareholders. Thus, compensation for the Company's executive officers involves a portion of pay which depends on incentive payments which are generally earned based on an assessment of performance in relation to corporate goals, and stock options, which directly relate a significant portion of an executive officer's long term remuneration to stock price appreciation realized by the Company's shareholders. In reaching its conclusions on compensation for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer, the Compensation Committee relied on, among other factors, the results of a March 2004 Executive Compensation Review and a May 2004 CFO Compensation Review prepared by an independent consulting firm on the Company's behalf.

Base Salary

The Company believes it offers competitive salaries based on a review of market practices and the duties and responsibilities of each officer. In setting base salaries, the Compensation Committee periodically examines market compensation levels and trends observed in the labor market. Market information is used as an initial frame of reference for annual salary adjustments and starting salary offers, but alone is not determinative of salaries. Salary decisions are determined based on an annual review by the Compensation Committee with input and recommendations from the CEO and are based on, among other things, competitive market salaries, the functional and decision making responsibilities of each position, and the contribution, experience and work performance of each executive officer.

Annual Incentive Programs

The Company's management incentive programs, which are designed to motivate executives by recognizing and rewarding performance, consist of an annual incentive program and the shareholder approved 2004 Annual Performance-Based Incentive Plan. The annual incentive program is a bonus plan used to compensate executives which is based on the Company's profitability and the achievement of individual performance goals. Generally, a minimum corporate profitability threshold must be achieved before any bonus will be paid. All bonuses awarded in 2004 were discretionary and based upon such officers contributions to the Company's long-term success and growth.

Each participant's bonus is intended to take into account corporate and individual components, which are weighted according to the executive's responsibilities. In 2004, mid-year bonuses totaling $112,500 were awarded to Messrs. Gilbert and Wise. Annual performance bonuses of $531,916 were paid in March 2005 to the named executive officers (other than Mr. Abdo who is discussed below) based on their individual performances during 2004 as follows:

Alan B. Levan	$ 189,896
Glen R. Gilbert	172,020
George P. Scanlon	125,000
Seth M. Wise	45,000

Table of Contents2004 Annual Performance-Based Incentive Plan

At the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the Company's shareholders approved the Company's 2004 Annual Performance-Based Incentive Plan ("Performance Plan"). The purpose of the Performance Plan is to advance the interests of the Company and its shareholders by providing certain of its key executives with annual incentive compensation which is tied to the achievement of pre-established and objective performance goals. The Performance Plan is intended to provide participants with annual incentive compensation which is not subject to the deduction limitation rules prescribed under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Internal Revenue Code"). During 2004 Mr. Abdo, the Company's Vice Chairman and President, was eligible for a maximum of 150% of his base salary payable as a bonus under the Performance Plan provided that the Company achieved targeted amounts of net income. On February 28, 2005, the Compensation Committee certified that the objective criteria had been met, and the committee approved a cash payment of $731,250 to Mr. Abdo under the Performance Plan.

Stock Options

Executive officers of the Company were granted stock options to purchase Class A Stock during 2004. All of the stock options were granted with an exercise price equal to at least 100% of the market value of the Class A Stock on the date of grant and vest on the fifth anniversary of the date of grant. The higher the trading price of the Class A Stock, the higher the value of the stock options. The granting of options is totally discretionary and options are awarded based on an assessment of an executive officer's contribution to the success and growth of the Company. Grants of stock options to executive officers, including the named executive officers (other than the CEO), are generally made upon the recommendation of the CEO based on the level of an executive's position with the Company, an evaluation of the executive's past and expected performance, the number of outstanding and previously granted options and discussions with the executive. The Board of Directors believes that providing executives with opportunities to acquire an interest in the growth and prosperity of the Company through the grant of stock options enables the Company to attract and retain qualified and experienced executive officers and offer additional long term incentives. The Board of Directors believes that utilization of stock options more closely aligns the executives' interests with those of the Company's shareholders, since the ultimate value of such compensation is directly dependent on the stock price.

Compensation of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

As previously indicated, the Compensation Committee believes that the Company's total compensation program is appropriately based upon business performance, market compensation levels and personal performance. The Compensation Committee reviews and fixes the base salary of the CEO based on those factors described above for other executive officers as well as the Compensation Committee's assessment of Mr. Levan's past performance as CEO and its expectation as to his future contributions. In 2005, the Compensation Committee took note of the fact that Mr. Levan's base salary during 2004 was $108,160 and, in partial reliance on the consultant study referenced above, increased Mr. Levan's base salary to $500,000, reflecting his contributions to the Company's results in 2004 and anticipated contributions in 2005.

The Compensation Committee also took note of Mr. Levan's leadership during 2004. Specifically, it acknowledged the successful transition of the Company from a wholly-owned subsidiary of BankAtlantic Bancorp to a separate public company and his efforts to increase the visibility of, and institutional interest in, the Company, the success of the Company's underwritten sale of stock in April 2004 and the Company's record earnings in 2004. The Committee believes that the Company's 2004 results (net earnings of $57.4 million, an increase of $30.6 million, or 114% over the prior year) were due, in part, to his efforts and awarded him an aggregate bonus of $189,896. Future salary increases and bonuses will continue to reflect the amounts paid to chief executive officers at other public companies, as well as the Company's financial condition, operating results and attainment of strategic objectives.

Internal Revenue Code Limits on Deductibility of Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a tax deduction to public corporations for compensation over $1,000,000 paid for any fiscal year to the corporation's chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers as of the end of any fiscal year. However, the statute exempts qualifying performance-based compensation from the deduction limit if certain requirements are met.

The Compensation Committee believes that it is generally in the Company's best interest to attempt to structure performance-based compensation, including stock option grants or performance-based restricted stock or restricted stock unit awards and annual bonuses, to executive officers who may be subject to Section 162(m) in a manner that satisfies the statute's requirements. However, the Committee also recognizes the need to retain flexibility to make compensation decisions that may not meet Section 162(m) standards when necessary to enable the Company to meet its overall objectives, even if the Company may not deduct all of the compensation. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee may in the future approve compensation arrangements for certain officers that are not fully deductible. Further, because of ambiguities and uncertainties as to the application and interpretation of Section 162(m) and the regulations issued thereunder, no assurance can be given, notwithstanding the Company's efforts, that compensation intended by the Company to satisfy the requirements for deductibility under Section 162(m) will in fact do so.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The following Report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this Report by reference therein.

The Audit Committee held 12 meetings during 2004. The Audit Committee's meetings were designed, among other things, to facilitate and encourage communication among the Audit Committee, management, the internal auditors and the Company's independent registered certified public accounting firm for 2004, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PWC), and to monitor compliance matters. The Committee discussed with PWC and the Company's internal auditing firm the overall scope and plans for their respective audits and met with the internal auditors and PWC, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations and their evaluations of the Company's internal controls. On April 5, 2005 the Committee approved the continued engagement of PWC as the Company's independent registered certified public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 with management, internal auditors and PWC.

Management has primary responsibility for the Company's financial statements and the overall reporting process, including the Company's system of internal controls. PWC audits the annual financial statements prepared by management, expresses an opinion as to whether those financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and discusses with the Audit Committee their independence and any other matters that they are required to discuss with the Audit Committee or that they believe should be raised with it. The Audit Committee oversees these processes, although it must rely on information provided to it and on the representations made by management and PWC.

The Audit Committee also discussed with PWC matters required to be discussed with audit committees under generally accepted auditing standards, including, among other things, matters related to the conduct of the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements and the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees.

The Audit Committee also received from PWC the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and the Audit Committee discussed with PWC its independence from the Company. When considering PWC's independence, the Audit Committee considered whether PWC's provision of services to the Company beyond those rendered in connection with their audit and review of the Company's consolidated financial statements was compatible with maintaining PWC's independence. The Audit Committee also reviewed, among other things, the amount of fees paid to PWC for audit and non-audit services.

Based on these reviews and meetings, discussions and reports, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Table of ContentsFees to Independent Registered Certified Public Accounting Firm for Fiscal 2004 and 2003

The following table presents fees for professional services rendered by PWC for the audit of the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for fiscal 2004 and 2003 and fees billed for audit-related services, tax services and all other services rendered by PWC for 2004 and 2003.

	Fiscal 2004	Fiscal 2003
	(In thousands)
(1) Audit fees(a)	$ 973	$ 180
(2) Audit-related fees(b)	75	42
(3) Tax fees(c)	8	43
(4) All other fees

(b) Represents estimated audit fees for stand-alone reports of subsidiaries.

(c) Work related to tax compliance services, tax advice, tax planning and tax examination assistance.

All audit related services, tax services and other services were pre-approved by the Audit Committee, which concluded that the provision of such services by PWC was compatible with the maintenance of that firm's independence in the conduct of its auditing functions. Under its charter, the Audit Committee must review and pre-approve both audit and permitted non-audit services provided by the independent registered certified public accounting firm and shall not engage the independent registered certified public accounting firm to perform any non-audit services prohibited by law or regulation. Each year, the independent registered certified public accounting firm's retention to audit the Company's financial statements, including the associated fee, is approved by the Audit Committee. Under its current practices, the Audit Committee does not regularly evaluate potential engagements of the independent registered certified public accounting firm and approve or reject such potential engagements. At each Audit Committee meeting, the Audit Committee receives updates on the services actually provided by the independent registered certified public accounting firm, and management may present additional services for pre-approval. The Audit Committee may delegate to the Chairman of the Audit Committee the authority to evaluate and approve engagements on behalf of the Audit Committee in the event that a need arises for pre-approval between regular Audit Committee meetings. If the Chairman so approves any such engagements, he will report that approval to the full Audit Committee at the next Audit Committee meeting. The Audit Committee adopted an Audit and Non-Audit Services Pre-Approval Policy in 2004.

The Audit Committee has determined that the provision of the services other than audit services, as described above, are compatible with maintaining the principal independent registered certified public accounting firm's independence.

INDEPENDENT REGISTERED CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Householding of Proxy Material. The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries such as brokers to satisfy delivery requirements for Proxy Statements with respect to two or more shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single Proxy Statement addressed to those shareholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially provides extra convenience for shareholders and cost savings for companies. The Company and some brokers household proxy materials, delivering a single Proxy Statement to multiple shareholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected shareholders. Once you have received notice from your broker or our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company (AST) that they or we will be householding materials to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. However, the Company will deliver promptly upon written or oral request a separate copy of this Proxy Statement to a shareholder at a shared address to which a single Proxy Statement was delivered. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate Proxy Statement, or if you are receiving multiple Proxy Statements and would like to request delivery of a single Proxy Statement, please notify your broker if your shares are held in a brokerage account or AST if you hold registered shares. You can notify AST by calling 800-937-5449 or by sending a written request to American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, 59 Maiden Lane Plaza Level, New York, NY 10038, attention Karen A. Trachtenberg, Vice President.

Advance Notice Procedures

Under our bylaws, no business may be brought before an annual meeting unless it is specified in the notice of the Annual Meeting or is otherwise brought before the Annual Meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or by a shareholder entitled to vote who has delivered written notice to the Company s Secretary (containing certain information specified in the bylaws about the shareholder and the proposed action) not less than 90 or more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year s Annual Meeting that is, with respect to the Annual Meeting of shareholders in 2006, between January 17, 2006 and February 16, 2006. In addition, any shareholder who wishes to submit a nomination to the Board of Directors must deliver written notice of the nomination within this time period and comply with the information requirements in the bylaws relating to shareholder nominations. These requirements are separate from and in addition to the SEC s requirements that a shareholder must meet in order to have a shareholder proposal included in the Company s Proxy Statement.

Shareholder Proposals for the 2006 Annual Meeting. Shareholders interested in submitting a proposal for inclusion in the proxy materials for the annual meeting of shareholders in 2006 may do so by following the procedures prescribed in SEC Rule 14a-8. To be eligible for inclusion, shareholder proposals must be received by the Company s Secretary no later than December 13, 2005 at the Company s main offices, 1750 East Sunrise Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33304. If such proposal or proposals are in compliance with applicable rules and regulations, they will be included in the Company s Proxy Statement and form of proxy for that meeting.
