The following is a letter sent by Mr. Harry D. Schulman, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Applica Incorporated to the employees of Applica in connection with the proposed spin off of by NACCO Industries, Inc. of its Hamilton Beach/Proctor Silex business to NACCO Industries, Inc.'s stockholders and subsequent merger of Applica Incorporated with and into Hamilton Beach/Proctor Silex.

July 24, 2006

Dear Fellow Employees,

I wanted to be the first to tell you some very exciting news. This morning, NACCO Industries, Inc. and Applica Incorporated jointly announced that NACCO will spin off its Hamilton Beach/Proctor-Silex business and following the spin-off, Applica will immediately merge with and into Hamilton Beach/Proctor-Silex, ultimately creating an independent company that is expected to be the largest U.S. public company focused on the small electric household appliance industry.

The new company, which will be named Hamilton Beach, Inc. and headquartered in Richmond, VA, is estimated to have approximately $1.1 billion in annual sales, a broad portfolio of brands, excellent relationships with retail customers and greater scale to successfully compete in the marketplace.

From a brand perspective, Hamilton Beach, Inc. will combine Applica's Black & Decker®, Windmere®, Belson® and LitterMaid® brands with Hamilton Beach/Proctor-Silex's Hamilton Beach®, Proctor Silex®, electrics®, Traditions®, TrueAir® and Hamilton Beach® Commercial brands, to create a broad portfolio of some of the most well-known and respected household brands in North America. Moreover, as a larger company, we believe Hamilton Beach, Inc. will have an improved competitive position in the marketplace, a strengthened international presence by combining Applica's positions in Mexico and Latin America with Hamilton Beach/Proctor-Silex's position in Canada, and greater capital structure flexibility, which is anticipated to lead to opportunities for considerable cost synergies and future growth.

As you know, at Applica we've always maintained a commitment to high quality products, innovation and superior customer service and this commitment will remain steadfast at Hamilton Beach, Inc. Not only are we joining two teams with extremely strong retailer relationships, but as a single company, we will have an enhanced ability to provide important value-added services to these retailers. And, on the innovation front, with greater size, we will be able to focus on our successful consumer product development and innovation platform.

Al Rankin, NACCO's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, will be the Non-executive Chairman of the Board of Hamilton Beach, Inc. and the President and Chief Executive Officer will be Dr. Michael Morecroft, who is the current President and CEO of Hamilton Beach/Proctor-Silex. We are fully supportive of Mike and his strong management team, and look forward to joining them to create a dynamic, new organization. I will remain in my current role until the transaction is completed and then will continue to support the company as long as I'm needed to assure a smooth transition.

It is important to note that today's announcement is just the first step in the process. In the months ahead, we will be seeking the necessary stockholder and regulatory approvals to complete the transaction. Until the closing, we remain separate from Hamilton Beach/Proctor-Silex and must continue to operate independently. For now, it is important that we remain focused on our responsibilities, continue to work to exceed our 2006 plan and continue to provide the high quality service and products on which our customers rely.

We know that you will have a number of questions about this transaction, some of which we may be able to answer right away, and others whose answers will come in time. We are committed to communicating with you and keeping you well informed throughout the process. I am excited about the new opportunities and many possibilities for personal growth and development that this transaction could provide to Applica employees.

I will be hosting, along with Dr. Morecroft, an employee meeting later today to discuss today's news and look forward to seeing you then. Prior to that time, please feel free to visit our intranet site and www.applicainc.com to learn more about the transaction and Hamilton Beach/Proctor-Silex. Additionally, if you have any questions, please talk with your manager.

This is an exciting time in the history of the company. I'm glad to be a part of the process and hope you are, too. As always, thank you for your outstanding teamwork and tremendous efforts. Your hard work is truly appreciated.

Sincerely,

/s/ Harry D. Schulman
