Item 8.01 Other Events

The Timken Company and the United Steelworkers Union announced the following joint statement on May 27, 2005.

The Timken Company and the United Steelworkers Union have reached a tentative four-year agreement that covers hourly employees at the Canton and Wooster plants.

The Union Negotiating Committee has unanimously recommended that the membership ratify the early agreement.

Arrangements are now being made for information-ratification meetings. At that time, the Union Bargaining Committee will explain details of the tentative agreement and answer questions.

The current Basic Labor Agreement was scheduled to expire September 26, 2005.
