CASEY'S SENDS LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Details How Casey's Board of Directors is Creating Far Greater Value for Shareholders than Couche-Tard's Offer

Urges Shareholders to Vote "FOR" Casey's Highly Qualified Directors at Annual Meeting

ANKENY, IOWA – August 23, 2010 – Casey's General Stores, Inc. ("Casey's" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: CASY) today announced that it has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a letter sent to Casey's shareholders from the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, Robert J. Myers. Shareholders can find this and other materials related to Casey's annual meeting of shareholders to be held on September 23, 2010 at www.supportcaseys.com.

The full text of the letter sent to Casey's shareholders follows:

August 23, 2010

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

A VOTE "FOR" CASEY'S NOMINEES IS A VOTE FOR VALUE – VOTE YOUR WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY

As you know, our annual meeting of shareholders will be held on September 23, 2010. Casey's has nominated its current Board of Directors for reelection. Casey's Board – which includes seven independent members out of eight total directors – has led Casey's to become a best-in-class operator that consistently outperforms its peers and returns significant value to shareholders. Under the Board's leadership, Casey's is executing well on its strategic growth initiatives and creating and delivering far greater value than Alimentation Couche-Tard Inc.'s $36.75 per share offer. Couche-Tard's proposal to replace our highly qualified, experienced directors with its hand-picked nominees has one purpose – a quick sale of Casey's to Couche-Tard at a low price. Vote for value today – vote the WHITE proxy card in support of Casey's nominees. We urge you to discard any blue proxy cards you receive from Couche-Tard.

CASEY'S STOCK PRICE HAS CONSISTENTLY OUTPERFORMED ITS PEERS AND THE MARKET

As demonstrated by the chart below, Casey's has consistently outperformed its convenience store peers and the S&P 500. Over the past three years prior to the announcement of Couche-Tard's offer on April 9, 2010, our stock price has increased 24%, compared to our peers, which on average are down 46.3%, and the S&P 500, which is down 17.9%, over that same period.

YOUR BOARD IS DELIVERING EXCEPTIONAL TOTAL RETURNS

Casey's has consistently driven increased shareholder returns. As demonstrated by the chart below, if you had bought Casey's stock in fiscal 2001, you would have received a cumulative total return on your investment of 247% in 2010. Your average return for each of those years would have been 13%. Such remarkable returns reflect not only Casey's stock appreciation but also our Board's commitment to increasing our dividend. Over the past five years, our Board increased the dividend at a compounded annual growth rate of approximately 17.3%, and it increased our dividend again at the start of fiscal 2011. The Company's dividend payout ratio for the fiscal year ended April 30, 2010 was 15%, the highest ratio among its convenience store peers.

ANALYSTS AGREE THAT CASEY'S IS CREATING SUPERIOR VALUE FOR SHAREHOLDERS

Analysts recognize that through the execution of our ongoing strategic growth initiatives and our recapitalization plan, Casey's is worth more – and is already delivering more value – than Couche-Tard's lowball offer.

The eight analysts who currently cover the Company have price targets for Casey's ranging from $39 per share to $50 per share. Despite these indications of the superior value of Casey's and the fact that only 12% of Casey's shares had tendered into Couche-Tard's offer as of August 2nd, Couche-Tard has stated very clearly that it does not value Casey's at more than $38 per share.

Commenting on the recapitalization plan, one analyst said "Long-term investors should be pleased with greater ownership in what we view as an attractively valued company, which will see upward EPS revisions and ROE following the recap. Over the next 12 months shares could move above $44 following the recapitalization as shareholder returns nearly double and management executes its growth plans funded with impressive cash flow." (Morgan Keegan, July 28, 2010)

Your Board is already delivering more value than Couche-Tard's small 16% premium. The continuously increasing equity research analyst EPS estimates for Casey's for fiscal 2011 and 2012 evidence this fact. Since Couche-Tard's offer on April 9th, 2010 and our announcement of Casey's fiscal 2010 financial results (and prior to the announcement of our recapitalization), the consensus analyst EPS estimates increased for 2011 from $2.26 to $2.48 (9.7%) and for 2012 from $2.55 to $2.78 (9.0%).

As the following chart illustrates, simply adjusting these consensus analyst estimates of 2011 and 2012 EPS for the reduction in outstanding shares, additional interest expense and retirement of debt in connection with our recapitalization results in an increased 2011 EPS estimate of $2.70 to $2.72 per diluted share and a 2012 EPS estimate of $3.26 to $3.31 per diluted share. Assuming the recapitalization occurred at the beginning of our 2011 fiscal year, the 2011 EPS estimate would be increased to $2.86 to $2.91 per diluted share.

These increases in EPS estimates since April 8th represent 26.5% to 28.7% for 2011 (assuming the recapitalization occurred at the beginning of the year) and 27.7% to 29.9% for 2012. This far exceeds the 16% control premium offered by Couche-Tard for you to surrender your shares and forgo even more upside in the future.

Positive Impact of Recapitalization Plan on Casey's

CASEY'S BOARD IS ACTING IN SHAREHOLDERS' BEST INTERESTS

Casey's has a strong history of transparency and good governance. In fact, for the last two years Casey's was recognized by Forbes.com as one of the 100 most "trustworthy companies" in the United States in an assessment of "true quality of corporate accounting and management practices."

Make no mistake, Couche-Tard is attempting to replace your Board with its hand-picked slate of directors to achieve one purpose: a quick sale of Casey's to Couche-Tard at a low price. To that end, Couche-Tard continues to make misleading statements about Casey's Board in an attempt to distract you from the inadequacy of its offer.

The fact is that the Casey's Board is acting in the best interests of all shareholders. The Board takes its fiduciary duties very seriously. Consistent with its duties, the Board thoroughly reviewed the Couche-Tard offer. Given Couche-Tard's lowball offer, its statements and actions that clearly demonstrate it is not a buyer of Casey's above $38 per share, and its questionable behavior – including its allegedly manipulative sale of Casey's shares – our Board concluded that there is no basis for discussions with Couche-Tard regarding its $36.75 per share offer.

Contrary to Couche-Tard's suggestion that our recapitalization plan was financial engineering aimed at artificially inflating Casey's stock price, the recapitalization implements the Board of Director's decision to create a more efficient and lower cost capital structure, one that will boost returns to equity holders for the remainder of fiscal years 2011, 2012 and for years to come.

In another desperate attempt to distract you from the real issue, Couche-Tard has also mischaracterized the terms of our financing for the recapitalization. Our objective in seeking financing for the recapitalization was to obtain the lowest borrowing cost possible. The terms of the private placement were the result of negotiations toward that goal, and we are pleased to have achieved that goal with the 5.22% rate – the lowest in the company's history, and secured favorable covenants to enable Casey's to continue to execute on its strategic plan. The fact is noteholders requested a change in control "make whole" premium in the terms of the financing as a direct result of Couche-Tard's hostile offer. We don't believe we could have secured this very attractive financing package without it. We believe that the terms of other financing options would have been less favorable for Casey's shareholders, and our commitment is to create value for our shareholders, not Couche-Tard's.

We also note that more than four months after making its offer public, Couche-Tard still has not secured financing, that six events have occurred which violate various conditions to its offer and that Couche-Tard recently added a condition to its offer that is virtually incapable of fulfillment – all of which effectively make Couche-Tard's offer illusory.

VOTE THE WHITE CARD TODAY -- CASEY'S BOARD WILL DELIVER FAR GREATER VALUE TO YOU THAN COUCHE-TARD

We encourage you to review the Definitive Proxy Statement and all the materials we have mailed you related to our self tender offer, including the Offer to Purchase and related tender offer documents. The Casey's Board unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the highly qualified slate of Casey's directors named on the enclosed WHITE proxy card and "AGAINST" Couche-Tard's Bylaw amendment repeal proposal. We also urge you to discard any blue proxy card sent to you by Couche-Tard or its affiliates. Even a vote against Couche-Tard's nominees on Couche-Tard's blue proxy card will cancel any previous proxy submitted by you.

To vote FOR Casey's nominees, shareholders should sign, date and return the WHITE proxy card as soon as it is received or vote via telephone or internet by following the instructions indicated on the WHITE proxy card. MacKenzie Partners, Inc. is acting as Casey's proxy solicitor and information agent for the tender offer and can be reached toll-free at (800) 322-2885 or (212) 929-5500. You can also find additional relevant information at www.supportcaseys.com.

We appreciate all the positive feedback we have received from shareholders, and thank you for your support.

Best regards,

Robert Myers
President and Chief Executive Officer
