ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On March 6, 2003, we announced financial results for our fourth quarter and year ended January 31, 2003.

Service and technology revenue for the quarter increased 103% to $13.7 million, compared with $6.8 million for the three months ended January 31, 2002. Net loss for the quarter was $32.5 million, or $(0.56) per share, an improvement from a net loss of $41.6 million, or $(0.92) per share, for the three months ended January 31, 2002. These quarterly net loss results include $17.9 million in non-cash items related to the temporary reduction in the conversion price of our notes.

Service and technology revenue for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003 grew 210% to $60.2 million, compared with $19.4 million for the twelve months ended January 31, 2002. Net loss for the year was $82.3 million, or $(1.61) per share compared to a net loss of $160.7 million, or $(3.74) per share for the twelve months ended January 31, 2002. These annual net loss results include $9.2 million in items related the repurchase of convertible preferred shares from America Online in April 2002 and also include $17.9 million in non-cash items related to the temporary reduction in the conversion price of our notes.

We added approximately 115,000 new subscribers in the fourth quarter, bringing the total subscriber base to approximately 624,000 as of January 31, 2003. Our subscriber base grew 64% during the fiscal year.

In January, Samsung, Philips and Toshiba announced new consumer products that integrate the TiVo Service, joining Sony and Hughes. Toshiba unveiled its new DVD/DVR product with TiVo. Samsung and Philips announced that they will offer DIRECTV receivers with TiVo later this year. And existing partner Hughes announced at CES that it will offer an HDTV receiver built on a new TiVo technology platform.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements. These statements relate to, our business, services, business development, strategy, customers or other factors that may affect future earnings or financial results. Forward-looking statements generally can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as, believe, expect, may, will, intend, estimate, continue, or similar expressions or the use of those terms or expressions. Such statements involve risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to vary materially from those expressed in or indicated by the forward-looking statements. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially include delays in development, competitive service offerings and lack of market acceptance, as well as the Factors That May Affect Future Operating Results and other risks detailed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended January 31, 2002, and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended April 30, 2002, July 31, 2002 and October 31, 2002, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect an analysis only and speak only as of the date hereof. We disclaim any obligation to update these forward-looking statements.
