The Administrative Committee
Maintenance Warehouse FutureBuilder:

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of The Maintenance Warehouse FutureBuilder (the Plan) as of December 31, 2001 and 2000 and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan's Administrative Committee. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the Plan's Administrative Committee, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of The Maintenance Warehouse FutureBuilder at December 31, 2001 and 2000 and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information included in schedule of assets held for investment purposes at end of year is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. This supplemental schedule is the responsibility of the Plan's Administrative Committee. The supplemental schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Maintenance Warehouse FutureBuilder

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2001 and 2000

(1) Description of the Plan

The following description of The Maintenance Warehouse FutureBuilder (the Plan) is provided for general information only. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

(a) General

The Plan was adopted March 17, 1997, as a defined contribution 401(k) retirement plan covering employees of Maintenance Warehouse/America Corp. (the Company) who are at least 21 years of age, have completed one year of eligible service, and are not in a unit of employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement. In December 1999, the 1997 Plan was amended and combined in a master trust with the Home Depot, Inc.'s FutureBuilder. The Home Depot, Inc. is the Parent of the Company (the Parent Company). The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

(b) Contributions

Participants may elect to contribute up to 15% of their pretax compensation to the Plan. The Company provides matching contributions of 150% of the first 2% of base compensation contributed by a participant and 100% of the next 3% to 5% of base compensation contributed by a participant. Additional amounts may be contributed at the option of the Parent's Board of Directors. The matching Company contribution is initially invested in Home Depot, Inc. common stock and may be diversified at the discretion of the participants.

Effective January 1, 2000, eligible employees receive a supplemental annual matching contribution of 4.5% of compensation (4.0% of compensation for highly compensated employees). Eligible employees were employed on or before July 1, 1999 and are actively employed at December 31 of each calendar year. In addition, the participant must have enrolled in the Plan on or before December 31, 1999 and continuously contributed at least 3% of compensation to the Plan.

(c) Participants' Accounts

Individual accounts are maintained for the participants and are credited for their contributions and the Company's contributions. The accounts are further adjusted for Plan fees and investment income or losses.

(d) Vesting

Participants are 100% vested in their contributions and net value changes thereon. For employees hired subsequent to July 1, 1999, or former employees rehired after July 1, 1999 at a time when the matching account balance remaining in the Plan is less than 25% vested, the Company's contributions vest on an increasing percentage basis as follows:

Years of service	Vesting percentage
Less than 3	0%
3 or more	100%

For employees of the Company as of July 1, 1999 or former employees rehired after July 1, 1999 at a time when the matching account balance remaining in the Plan is at least 25% vested, the Company's contributions vest on an increasing percentage basis as follow:

Years of service	Vesting percentage
Less than 2	0%
2 but less than 3	25%
3 or more	100%

(e) Payment of Benefits

Participants are entitled to distribution of their accounts upon retirement, termination of employment, hardship, or in the event of death. Payment of benefits is made in a single lump-sum payment when directed by the participant. A participant may roll over their account balance directly into an eligible retirement plan. In the case of death, the participant's entire account balance will be paid to the participant's beneficiary.

(f) Forfeitures

According to the Plan agreement, for participants who have terminated employment, the nonvested portion of the Company matching contributions is used to reduce Plan expenses. Any remaining forfeitures may be used to reduce employer contributions. Total forfeitures, including earnings thereon, of $35,940 and $79,335, respectively, were used to pay Plan expenses in 2001 and 2000.

(g) Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions set forth in ERISA. Upon termination of the Plan, all participants would become 100% vested in Company contributions and earnings thereon.

(h) Participant Loans

With the consent of the Trustee, loans are permitted to all Plan participants. In the aggregate, the amount of a participant's loan cannot exceed 50% of the present value of the participant's vested accrued benefit or $50,000, whichever is less. Loans must be adequately secured and bear interest at a reasonable rate as determined by the Plan administrator. The Plan provides for repayment of loans over a reasonable period of time not to exceed four years, except that a longer period is allowed for loans used by participants to acquire their residence.

(i) Tax Status of Plan

The Plan Sponsor has filed an application for a determination letter with the Internal Revenue Service. The application is currently being processed by the Internal Revenue Service. The Company believes that the Plan, as currently designed and operated, is in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and, accordingly, is qualified and exempt from Federal income taxes.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) General

Effective April 2000, the Plan changed the trustee of the Plan from Wachovia Bank, N.A. to The Northern Trust Company. The trustee holds, controls, manages, and administers the assets of the Plan.

(b) Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Plan have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

(c) Investment Valuation

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value. Shares of registered investment companies are valued at quoted market prices, which represents the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year-end. The Company's common stock is valued at its quoted market price as obtained from the New York Stock Exchange.

Securities transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Participant loans are carried at cost which approximates fair value.

(d) Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

(e) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported changes in net assets available for benefits during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(f) Reclassifications

Certain balances in prior years have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

(3) Investments

The Plan's investments are held by the Trustee of the Plan, The Northern Trust Company. A description of the investments of the Plan follows:

Participant Directed

Net assets The Home Depot, Inc. Common Stock December 31	$ 3,374,208	1,074,574

(4) Investment in Master Trust

Effective December 15, 1999, a Master Trust was established for the investment of assets of the Plan and the assets of another retirement plan sponsored by The Home Depot, Inc., the Parent of the Company. At December 31, 2001, the Plan's interest in the net assets of the Master Trust was less than 1%.

Edgar Filing: HOME DEPOT INC - Form 11-K

Summarized financial information of the Master Trust as of December 31, 2001 and 2000 is as follows:

	2001	2000
Assets:
Investments	$ 2,069,938,920	1,815,071,250
Receivables:
Employer contributions receivable	690,296	839,221
Employee contributions receivable	34,049
Other receivable	325,339	327,687
Total receivables	1,049,684	1,166,908
Total assets	2,070,988,604	1,816,238,158
Liabilities:
Accrued liabilities	17,877	160,512
Other payable		96,977
Total liabilities	17,877	257,489
Net assets available for benefits	$ 2,070,970,727	1,815,980,669

Investment income and administrative expenses related to the Master Trust are allocated to the individual plans based upon actual activity for each of the plans. Investment income for the Master Trust for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 is as follows:

	2001	2000
Investment income:
Realized gain on sale or distribution of common stock of The Home Depot, Inc.	$ 57,642,597	69,624,095

Dividends and interest income	11,123,625	11,525,344
Total	$ 157,812,915	(757,818,776)

(5) Related Party Transactions

Certain Plan investments include shares of common stock issued by The Home Depot, Inc., the Parent Company. At December 31, 2001 and 2000, the Plan held a combined total of 90,472 and 38,515 shares valued at approximately $51.01 and $45.6875 per share, respectively. As the Parent Company of the Plan Sponsor, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest.

Other Plan investments include units of short-term investment funds managed by The Northern Trust Company. The Northern Trust Company is the Trustee as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest.

(6) Plan Amendments and Other Plan Changes

On November 21, 2001, the Administrative Committee of The Maintenance Warehouse FutureBuilder adopted an amendment to bring the plan in compliance with the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trades as amended in 1994, the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994, the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996, the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997, and the Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 (collectively known as GUST).

Effective January 1, 2002, the Plan was amended to increase the maximum percentage of pretax contributions that participants can contribute each year to the Plan from 1% to 50% of eligible pay (subject to other Plan limitations).

Effective February 1, 2002, the investment committee of The Maintenance Warehouse FutureBuilder replaced the Invesco Total Return Fund with the IRT Core Balanced Fund. The change was the result of the underperformance of the Invesco Fund. The investment committee also added two new funds to the plan: Dodge & Cox Stock Fund and the T. Rowe Price Small Cap Stock Fund.

Effective April 1, 2002, the assets of The Home Depot FutureBuilder for Puerto Rico were added to the Master Trust. Three defined contribution plans of the Parent Company will now be in one Master Trust.
