Item 5.05 Amendments to the Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics

On April 18, 2006, the Compensation and Organization Committee of the Board of Directors of Medarex, Inc. (Medarex) approved a one-time waiver of certain provisions of Medarex's insider trading policy included in its Standards of Integrity. This one-time waiver related to the exercise for cash of options to purchase 40,000 shares of Medarex's common stock by Donald L. Drakeman, Medarex's President and Chief Executive Officer. The options were originally granted on April 24, 1996 and were scheduled to expire by their terms on April 23, 2006. The waiver related to certain provisions of Medarex's insider trading policy which provide that certain Designated Employees, including Dr. Drakeman, may not engage in transactions involving Medarex's securities during certain specified blackout periods. Based on advice of independent outside counsel and a review of the facts and circumstances, including the fact that (i) the options were going to expire during a specified blackout period, (ii) Dr. Drakeman was prohibited from exercising the options during the weeks leading up to the blackout period due to Medarex's recently completed public offering as well as the then pending receipt of a special protocol assessment agreement with the Food and Drug Administration in connection with ipilimumab clinical trials, (iii) confirmation that Dr. Drakeman was not currently privy to any material non-public information about Medarex, and (iv) upon exercise of the options, Dr. Drakeman would be acquiring the shares of common stock subject to the options from Medarex for cash at a fixed price established in 1996, and, therefore, there would be no transaction in Medarex's securities in the open market, the Compensation and Organization Committee believed that the waiver was appropriate in this limited case.
