Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Effective on October 25, 2007, Neenah Paper, Inc. (the Company) entered into the Fifth Amendment (the Fifth Amendment) to its Credit Agreement dated as of November 30, 2004 (as previously amended, the Credit Agreement), by and among the Company, certain of its subsidiaries as co-borrowers or guarantors, the Lenders party thereto and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as agent for the Lenders. The Fifth Amendment increases the Company's secured revolving line of credit from $180,000,000 to $210,000,000.

The Company's ability to borrow under the Credit Agreement, as amended, is the lesser of (a) the total line commitment ($210,000,000), (b) the Company's borrowing base (as determined in accordance with the Credit Agreement, as amended), and (c) the applicable cap on the amount of senior credit facilities under the Indenture. The Company's borrowing base will support availability under the line of $210,000,000.00 (excluding amounts currently outstanding).

The Credit Agreement, as amended, contains events of default customary for financings of this type, including failure to pay principal or interest, materially false representations or warranties, failure to observe covenants and other terms of the revolving credit facility, cross-defaults to other indebtedness, bankruptcy, insolvency, various ERISA violations, the incurrence of material judgments and changes in control.

Certain of the foregoing statements may constitute forward-looking statements as defined in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act), Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act), the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the PSLRA), or in releases made by the Securities and Exchange Commission, all as may be amended from time to time. Statements contained herein that are not historical facts may be forward-looking statements within the meaning of the PSLRA. Any such forward-looking statements reflect our beliefs and assumptions and are based on information currently available to us and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially including, but not limited to, changes in U.S./Canadian dollar, U.S./Euro and other currency exchange rates, changes in pulp prices, the cost or availability of raw materials, unanticipated expenditures related to the cost of compliance with environmental and other governmental regulations, the ability of the Company to realize anticipated cost savings. Forward-looking statements are only predictions and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements, or industry results, to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. These cautionary statements are being made pursuant to the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and the PSLRA with the intention of obtaining the benefits of the safe harbor provisions of such laws. The Company cautions investors that any forward-looking statements we make are not guarantees or indicative of future performance.
