Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. Accounting Policies

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statement disclosures contained in the 2011 Form 10-K for Target Corporation (Target or the Corporation). The same accounting policies are followed in preparing quarterly financial data as are followed in preparing annual data. See the notes in our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2012, for those policies. In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of quarterly operating results are reflected herein and are of a normal, recurring nature.

Due to the seasonal nature of our business, quarterly revenues, expenses, earnings and cash flows are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

2. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) is calculated as net earnings divided by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS includes the potentially dilutive impact of share-based awards outstanding at period end, consisting of the incremental shares assumed to be issued upon the exercise of stock options and the incremental shares assumed to be issued under performance share and restricted stock unit arrangements.

3. Credit Card Receivables Transaction

On October 22, 2012, we reached an agreement to sell our entire consumer credit card portfolio to TD Bank Group (TD) for cash consideration equal to the gross (par) value of the outstanding receivables at the time of closing. The sale, which is subject to regulatory approval and other customary closing conditions, is expected to close in the first half of 2013. Following close, TD will underwrite, fund and own Target Credit Card and Target Visa receivables in the U.S. TD will control risk management policies and regulatory compliance, and we will perform account servicing and primary marketing functions. We will earn a substantial portion of the profits generated by the Target Credit Card and Target Visa portfolios.

Historically, our credit card receivables were recorded at par value less an allowance for doubtful accounts. With this agreement, our receivables are now classified as held for sale and recorded at the lower of cost (par) or fair value. As a result of this change, we recorded a gain of $156 million in the third quarter of 2012. At closing, this transaction is expected to be accounted for as a sale, and the receivables will no longer be reported on our Consolidated Statements of Financial Position.

4. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value measurements are categorized into one of three levels based on the lowest level of significant input used: Level 1 (unadjusted quoted prices in active markets); Level 2 (observable market inputs available at the measurement date, other than quoted prices included in Level 1); and Level 3 (unobservable inputs that cannot be corroborated by observable market data).

⁽a) There was one interest rate swap designated as an accounting hedge in all periods presented. See Note 8 for additional information on interest rate swaps.

⁽b) Company-owned life insurance investments consist of equity index funds and fixed income assets. Amounts are presented net of nonrecourse loans that are secured by some of these policies. These loan amounts were $807 million at October 27, 2012, $669 million at January 28, 2012 and $665 million at October 29, 2011.

Position Short-term investments	Valuation Technique Carrying value approximates fair value because maturities are less than three months.
Prepaid forward contracts	Initially valued at transaction price. Subsequently valued by reference to the market price of Target common stock.
Interest rate swaps	Valuation models are calibrated to initial trade price. Subsequent valuations are based on observable inputs to the valuation model (e.g. , interest rates and credit spreads). Model inputs are changed only when corroborated by market data. A credit risk adjustment is made on each swap using observable market credit spreads.
Company-owned life insurance investments	Includes investments in separate accounts that are valued based on market rates credited by the insurer.

The following table presents the carrying amounts and estimated fair values of financial instruments not measured at fair value in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. The fair value of marketable securities is determined using available market prices at the reporting date and would be classified as Level 1. The fair value of debt is generally measured using a discounted cash flow analysis based on current market interest rates for similar types of financial instruments and would be classified as Level 2.

- (a) Held-to-maturity investments that are held to satisfy the regulatory requirements of Target Bank and Target National Bank.
- (b) Represents the sum of nonrecourse debt collateralized by credit card receivables and unsecured debt and other borrowings, excluding unamortized swap valuation adjustments and capital lease obligations.

As of October 27, 2012, our consumer credit card receivables are recorded at the lower of cost (par) or fair value because they are classified as held for sale. We estimated the fair value of our consumer credit card portfolio to be approximately $6.0 billion using a cash flow-based, economic-profit model using Level 3 inputs, including the forecasted performance of the portfolio and a market-based discount rate. We used internal data to forecast expected payment patterns and write-offs, revenue, and operating expenses (credit EBIT yield) related to the credit card portfolio. Changes in macroeconomic conditions in the United States could affect the estimated fair value used in our lower of cost (par) or fair value assessment, which could cause gains or losses on our receivables held for sale. A one percentage point change in the forecasted credit EBIT yield would impact our fair value estimate by approximately $3 million. A one percentage point change in the forecasted discount rate would impact our fair value estimate by approximately $7 million. Refer to Note 3 for more information on our credit card receivables transaction. As of January 28, 2012 and October 29, 2011, we estimated that the fair value of our credit card receivables approximated par value.

The carrying amounts of accounts payable and certain accrued and other current liabilities approximate fair value due to their short-term nature.

5. Credit Card Receivables

Historically, our credit card receivables were recorded at par value less an allowance for doubtful accounts. Effective October 27, 2012, our consumer credit card receivables are recorded at the lower of cost (par) or fair value because they are classified as held for sale. Lower of cost (par) or fair value was determined on a segmented basis using the delinquency and credit-quality segmentation we have historically used to help determine the allowance for doubtful accounts. Many nondelinquent balances are recorded at cost (par) because fair value exceeds cost. Delinquent balances are generally recorded at fair value, which reflects our expectation of losses on these receivables. Refer to Note 3 for more information on our credit card receivables transaction.

Credit card receivables are our only significant class of financing receivables. Substantially all past-due accounts accrue finance charges until they are written off. Accounts are written off when they become 180 days past due.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Historically, we recognized an allowance for doubtful accounts in an amount equal to the anticipated future write-offs of existing receivables and uncollectible finance charges and other credit-related fees. We estimated future write-offs on the entire credit card portfolio collectively based on historical experience of delinquencies, risk scores, aging trends and industry risk trends. We continue to recognize an allowance for doubtful accounts and bad debt expense within our Credit Card Segment, which allows us to evaluate the performance of the portfolio. The allowance for doubtful accounts is eliminated in consolidation to present the receivables at the lower of cost (par) or fair value.

(a) Write-offs include the principal amount of losses (excluding accrued and unpaid finance charges), and recoveries include current period collections on previously written-off balances. These amounts combined represent net write-offs.

We monitor both the credit quality and the delinquency status of the credit card receivables portfolio. We consider accounts 30 or more days past due as delinquent, and we update delinquency status daily. We also monitor risk in the portfolio by assigning internally generated scores to each account and by obtaining current FICO scores, a nationally recognized credit scoring model, for a statistically representative sample of accounts each month. The credit-quality segmentation presented below is consistent with the approach we use to determine the allowance for doubtful accounts in our Credit Card Segment.

Funding for Credit Card Receivables

As a method of providing funding for our credit card receivables, we sell, on an ongoing basis, all of our consumer credit card receivables to Target Receivables LLC (TR LLC), a wholly owned, bankruptcy remote subsidiary. TR LLC then transfers the receivables to the Target Credit Card Master Trust (the Trust), which from time to time will sell debt securities to third parties, either directly or through a related trust. These debt securities represent undivided interests in the Trust assets. TR LLC uses the proceeds from the sale of debt securities and its share of collections on the receivables to pay the purchase price of the receivables to the Corporation.

We consolidate the receivables within the Trust and any debt securities issued by the Trust, or a related trust, in our Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. The receivables transferred to the Trust are not available to general creditors of the Corporation.

Interests in our credit card receivables issued by the Trust are accounted for as secured borrowings. Interest and principal payments are satisfied provided the cash flows from the Trust assets are sufficient and are nonrecourse to the general assets of the Corporation. If the cash flows are less than the periodic interest, the available amount, if any, is paid with respect to interest. Interest shortfalls will be paid to the extent subsequent cash flows from the assets in the Trust are sufficient. Future principal payments will be made from the third party s pro rata share of cash flows from the Trust assets.

In March 2012, we amended the 2006/2007 Series Variable Funding Certificate to obtain additional funding of $500 million and to extend the maturity to 2013. Parties who hold the Variable Funding Certificate receive interest at a variable short-term market rate. We will repay this borrowing at par concurrent with the closing of the credit card receivables transaction described in Note 3.

6. Commitments and Contingencies

We are exposed to claims and litigation arising in the ordinary course of business, and use various methods to resolve these matters in a manner that we believe serves the best interest of our shareholders and other constituents. We believe the recorded reserves in our consolidated financial statements are adequate in light of the probable and estimable liabilities. We do not believe that any of the currently identified claims or litigation will be material to our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition.

7. Notes Payable and Long-Term Debt

We obtain short-term financing from time to time under our commercial paper program, a form of notes payable.

In June 2012, we issued $1.5 billion of unsecured fixed rate debt at 4.0% that matures in July 2042. Proceeds from this issuance were used for general corporate purposes.

8. Derivative Financial Instruments

Historically our derivative instruments have primarily consisted of interest rate swaps used to mitigate interest rate risk. We have counterparty credit risk with large global financial institutions resulting from our derivative instruments. We monitor this concentration of counterparty credit risk on an ongoing basis. See Note 4 for a description of the fair value measurement of our derivative instruments and their classification on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position.

As of October 27, 2012 and October 29, 2011, one swap was designated as a fair value hedge for accounting purposes, and no ineffectiveness was recognized during the three or nine months ended October 27, 2012 or October 29, 2011.

Periodic payments, valuation adjustments and amortization of gains or losses on our derivative contracts had the following effect on our Consolidated Statements of Operations:

The amount remaining on unamortized hedged debt valuation gains from terminated or de-designated interest rate swaps that will be amortized into earnings over the remaining lives of the underlying debt totaled $84 million, $111 million and $122 million, at October 27, 2012, January 28, 2012 and October 29, 2011, respectively.

9. Income Taxes

We file a U.S. federal income tax return and income tax returns in various states and foreign jurisdictions. We are no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax examinations for years before 2011 and, with few exceptions, are no longer subject to state and local or non-U.S. income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2003.

At October 27, 2012, foreign net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $470 million (resulting in a $125 million deferred tax asset) are available to offset future income. These carryforwards expire in 2032 and are expected to be fully utilized prior to expiration.

It is reasonably possible that the amount of our unrecognized tax benefits will significantly increase or decrease during the next twelve months; however, an estimate of the amount or range of the change cannot be made at this time.

10. Share Repurchase

We repurchase shares primarily through open market transactions under a $5 billion share repurchase program authorized by our Board of Directors in January 2012. During the first quarter of 2012, we completed a $10 billion share repurchase program that was authorized by our Board of Directors in November 2007.

11. Pension, Postretirement Health Care and Other Benefits

We have qualified defined benefit pension plans covering team members who meet age and service requirements, including in certain circumstances, date of hire. We also have unfunded nonqualified pension plans for team members with qualified plan compensation restrictions. Eligibility for, and the level of, these benefits varies depending on team members—date of hire, length of service and/or team member compensation. Upon early retirement and prior to Medicare eligibility, team members also become eligible for certain health care benefits if they meet minimum age and service requirements and agree to contribute a portion of the cost. Effective January 1, 2009, our qualified defined benefit pension plan was closed to new participants, with limited exceptions.

We are not required to make any contributions in 2012. However, depending on investment performance and plan funded status, we may elect to make a contribution.

Our unfunded, nonqualified deferred compensation plan is offered to approximately 3,000 current and retired team members whose participation in our 401(k) plan is limited by statute or regulation. These team members choose from a menu of crediting rate alternatives that are the same as the investment choices in our 401(k) plan, including Target common stock. We credit an additional 2 percent per year to the accounts of all active participants, excluding members of our management executive committee, in part to recognize the risks inherent to their participation in a plan of this nature. We also maintain a nonqualified, unfunded deferred compensation plan that was frozen during 1996, covering substantially fewer than 100 participants, most of whom are retired. In this plan, deferred compensation earns returns tied to market levels of interest rates plus an additional 6 percent return, with a minimum of 12 percent and a maximum of 20 percent, as determined by the plan s terms.

We mitigate some of our risk of offering the nonqualified plans through investing in vehicles, including company-owned life insurance and prepaid forward contracts in our own common stock, that offset a substantial portion of our economic exposure to the returns of these plans. These investment vehicles are general corporate assets and are marked to market with the related gains and losses recognized in the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the period they occur.

The total change in fair value for contracts indexed to our own common stock recognized in earnings was pretax income of $3 million and $6 million for the three months ended October 27, 2012 and October 29, 2011, and pretax income of $18 million and $3 million for the nine months ended October 27, 2012 and October 29, 2011, respectively. For the nine months ended October 27, 2012 and October 29, 2011, we invested $19 million and $44 million, respectively, in such investment instruments, and this activity is included in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows within other investing activities. Adjusting our position in these investment vehicles may involve repurchasing shares of Target common stock when settling the forward contracts as described in Note 10. The settlement dates of these instruments are regularly renegotiated with the counterparty.

Item 2. Management s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Executive Summary

Consolidated revenues were $16,929 million for the three months ended October 27, 2012, an increase of $527 million or 3.2 percent from the same period in the prior year. Consolidated earnings before interest expense and income taxes for third quarter 2012 increased by $107 million or 10.1 percent from third quarter 2011 to $1,164 million. Cash flow provided by operations was $3,348 million and $2,975 million for the nine months ended October 27, 2012 and October 29, 2011, respectively. Diluted earnings per share in the third quarter increased 17.6 percent to $0.96 from $0.82 in the same period a year ago. Adjusted diluted earnings per share, which we believe is useful in providing period-to-period comparisons of the results of our U.S. operations, increased 4.3 percent to $0.90 in third quarter 2012 from $0.86 in the same period a year ago.

(a) Adjustments represent the diluted EPS impact of our planned 2013 Canadian market entry, the gain on receivables held for sale and favorable resolution of various income tax matters.

Our financial results for the third quarter of 2012 in our U.S. Retail Segment reflect increased sales of 3.4 percent over the same period last year due to a 2.9 percent comparable-store increase combined with the contribution from new stores. Our third quarter 2012 U.S. Retail Segment EBITDA margin rate decreased slightly from the prior period, primarily due to a lower gross margin rate driven by the impact of our 5% REDcard Rewards program and our store remodel program. Our EBIT margin rate remained consistent with the prior year.

In the U.S. Credit Card Segment, we experienced a decrease in segment profit due to annualizing over a significant reserve reduction in the prior year and lower finance charge revenue resulting from a smaller portfolio, partially offset by lower interest expense.

During the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, loss before interest expense and income taxes in our Canadian Segment totaled $96 million and $221 million, respectively, comprised of start-up costs and depreciation, compared to $35 million and $81 million during the three and nine months ended October 29, 2011, respectively.

Credit Card Receivables Transaction

On October 22, 2012, we reached an agreement to sell our entire consumer credit card portfolio to TD Bank Group (TD) for cash consideration equal to the gross (par) value of the outstanding receivables at the time of closing. The sale, which is subject to regulatory approval and other customary closing conditions, is expected to close in the first half of 2013. Following close, TD will underwrite, fund and own Target Credit Card and Target Visa receivables in the U.S. TD will control risk management policies and regulatory compliance, and we will perform account servicing and primary marketing functions. We will earn a substantial portion of the profits generated by the Target Credit Card and Target Visa portfolios. We expect to apply the proceeds from the sale in a manner that will preserve our strong investment-grade credit ratings. Specifically, we expect to apply approximately 90 percent of net transaction proceeds to reduce our net debt position, including repaying the 2006/2007 Series Variable Funding Certificate at par, with the remainder applied to our current share repurchase program over time.

With this agreement, our receivables are now classified as held for sale and recorded at the lower of cost (par) or fair value. We recorded a gain of $156 million outside of our segments in the third quarter of 2012, representing the net adjustment to eliminate our allowance for doubtful accounts and record our receivables at lower of cost (par) or fair value. This transaction is expected to be accounted for as a sale upon closing, and the receivables will no longer be reported on our Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. At closing, we expect to recognize a gain of approximately $350 million to $450 million related to consideration received in excess of the recorded amount of receivables. Consideration received will include cash equal to the par value of the receivables and the fair value of a beneficial interest asset. The beneficial interest effectively represents a receivable for the present value of future profit-sharing we expect to earn on the receivables sold. Based on historical payment patterns, we estimate that the beneficial interest asset will be reduced over a four year period, with larger reductions in the early years. As a result, a portion of the profit-sharing payments we receive from TD in the first four years of the arrangement will not be recorded as income.

Beginning with the fiscal quarter in which this transaction closes, income from the profit-sharing arrangement, net of account servicing expenses, will be recognized within SG&A expenses in our U.S. Retail Segment, and we will no longer report a U.S. Credit Card Segment.

Comparable-store sales is a measure that highlights the performance of our existing stores by measuring the change in sales for such stores for a period over the comparable, prior-year period of equivalent length. The method of calculating comparable-store sales varies across the retail industry. As a result, our comparable-store sales calculation is not necessarily comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

Comparable-store sales are sales from our online business and stores open longer than one year, including sales from stores that have been remodeled or expanded while remaining open (including our current store remodel program) and sales from stores that have been relocated to new buildings of the same format within the same trade area, in which the new store opens at about the same time as the old store closes. Comparable-store sales do not include sales from general merchandise stores that have been converted, or relocated within the same trade area, to a SuperTarget store format or sales from stores that were intentionally closed to be remodeled, expanded or reconstructed.

The collective interaction of a broad array of macroeconomic, competitive and consumer behavioral factors, as well as sales mix, and transfer of sales to new stores makes further analysis of sales metrics infeasible.

Credit is offered to qualified guests through our branded proprietary credit cards: the Target Visa Credit Card and the Target Credit Card (Target Credit Cards). Additionally, we offer a branded proprietary Target Debit Card. Collectively, we refer to these products as REDcards®. Guests receive a 5 percent discount on virtually all purchases at checkout every day when they use a REDcard at any Target store or on Target.com.

We monitor the percentage of store sales that are paid for using REDcards (REDcard Penetration), because our internal analysis has indicated that a meaningful portion of the incremental purchases on our REDcards are also incremental sales for Target, with the remainder representing a shift in tender type.

Gross Margin Rate

For the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, our gross margin rate was 30.3 percent and 30.6 percent, respectively, decreasing from 30.5 percent and 30.8 percent in the comparable periods last year. These decreases are the result of our integrated growth strategies of our 5% REDcard Rewards program and our store remodel program, which impacted the rate by nearly 0.4 percent in each period, partially offset by underlying rate improvements within categories.

Selling, General and Administrative Expense Rate

For the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, the SG&A expense rate was 21.4 percent and 20.8 percent, respectively, as compared to 21.4 percent and 21.0 percent in the comparable periods last year. For the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, we experienced improvement in store hourly payroll expense. For the three month period, this improvement was offset by technology and multichannel investments.

SG&A expenses exclude depreciation and amortization, as well as expenses associated with our credit card operations, which are reflected separately in our Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense Rate

For the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, our depreciation and amortization expense rate was 3.1 percent in both periods, compared with 3.3 percent and 3.2 percent in the respective prior year periods.

U.S. Credit Card Segment

Credit is offered to qualified guests through the Target Credit Cards, which support our core retail operations and are important contributors to our overall profitability and engagement with our guests. Credit card revenues are comprised of finance charges, late fees and other revenue, and third party merchant fees, which are amounts received from merchants who accept the Target Visa Credit Card.

⁽c) ROIC is return on invested capital, and this rate equals our segment profit divided by average credit card receivables, at par, funded by Target, expressed as an annualized rate. This measure has decreased significantly, primarily due to our voluntary retirement of our 2008 series securitization in January 2012, increasing the average receivables funded by Target.

Note: Numbers are individually rounded.

- (a) Balance-weighted one-month LIBOR.
- (b) Spread to LIBOR is a metric used to analyze the performance of our total credit card portfolio because the majority of our portfolio earns finance charge revenue at rates tied to the Prime Rate, and the interest rate on all nonrecourse debt collateralized by credit card receivables is tied to LIBOR.
- (c) As an annualized percentage of average credit card receivables, at par.

Our primary measure of segment profit is the EBIT generated by our credit card receivables portfolio less the interest expense on nonrecourse debt collateralized by credit card receivables. We also measure the performance of our overall credit card receivables portfolio by calculating the dollar Spread to LIBOR at the portfolio level. This metric approximates overall financial performance of the entire credit card portfolio we manage by measuring the difference between EBIT earned on the portfolio and a hypothetical benchmark rate financing cost applied to the entire portfolio. The interest rate on all nonrecourse debt collateralized by credit card receivables is tied to LIBOR.

Total revenue decreased primarily due to lower average receivables resulting in reduced finance charge revenue. Segment expense increases were driven by higher bad debt expense primarily attributable to annualizing over a significant reduction in the reserve from the prior year. Interest expense on nonrecourse debt declined from last year due to a decrease in nonrecourse debt collateralized by credit card receivables.

Period-end and average credit card receivables, at par, have declined because of an increase in payment rates and a decrease in Target Visa Credit Card charges at third parties, partially offset by an increase in charges at Target. The decrease in charges on our credit cards at third parties is primarily due to the fact that we no longer issue new Target Visa accounts.

Canadian Segment

During the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, start-up costs totaled $72 million and $154 million, respectively, compared with $18 million and $53 million in the comparable prior-year periods, and primarily consisted of compensation, benefits and third-party service expenses. Additionally, we recorded $24 million and $67 million in depreciation for the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, respectively, compared with $17 million and $28 million in the comparable prior year periods, related to capital lease assets and leasehold interests.

Other Performance Factors

Net Interest Expense

Net interest expense for the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012 was $192 million and $558 million, respectively, including $20 million and $58 million, respectively, of interest on Canadian capitalized leases. For the three and nine months ended October 29, 2011, net interest expense was $200 million and $574 million, respectively, including $15 million and $25 million, respectively, of interest on Canadian capitalized leases.

Provision for Income Taxes

Our effective income tax rate for the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012 was 34.5 percent and 35.2 percent, respectively, down from 35.3 percent and 36.1 percent for the three and nine months ended October 29, 2011, respectively. This change is primarily due to an increase in the benefit related to the favorable resolution of various income tax matters of $25 million and $57 million, respectively, in the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, compared with $6 million and $15 million in the comparable prior year periods. These benefits were partially offset by the unfavorable impact of increased losses in Canada, which are taxed at lower rates than our U.S. earnings.

Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures to GAAP Measures

Our segment measure of profit is used by management to evaluate the return we are achieving on our investment and to make operating decisions. To provide additional transparency, we have disclosed non-GAAP adjusted diluted earnings per share, which excludes the impact of our planned 2013 Canadian market entry, the gain on receivables held for sale and favorable resolution of various income tax matters. We believe this information is useful in providing period-to-period comparisons of the results of our U.S. operations. This measure is not in accordance with, or an alternative for, generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. The most comparable GAAP measure is diluted earnings per share. Non-GAAP adjusted EPS should not be considered in isolation or as a substitution for analysis of our results as reported under GAAP. Other companies may calculate non-GAAP adjusted EPS differently than we do, limiting the usefulness of the measure for comparisons with other companies.

⁽a) Represents interest expense, net of interest income, not included in U.S. Credit Card Segment profit. For the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, U.S. Credit Card Segment profit included $3 million and $8 million of interest expense on nonrecourse debt collateralized by credit card receivables, compared with $18 million and $55 million in the respective prior year periods. These amounts, along with other net interest expense, equal consolidated GAAP net interest expense.

⁽b) Taxes are allocated to our business segments based on estimated income tax rates applicable to the operations of the segment for the period.

- (c) For the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, average diluted shares outstanding were 662.2 million and 665.8 million, respectively, and for the three and nine months ended October 29, 2011, average diluted shares outstanding were 678.3 million and 686.9 million, respectively.
- (d) Represents the effect of resolution of income tax matters. The results for the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012 also include a $57 million tax effect related to the gain on receivables held for sale.

Analysis of Financial Condition

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our period-end cash and cash equivalents balance was $1,469 million compared with $821 million for the same period in 2011. Short-term investments of $800 million and $66 million were included in cash and cash equivalents at the end of third quarter 2012 and 2011, respectively. Our investment policy is designed to preserve principal and liquidity of our short-term investments. This policy allows investments in large money market funds or in highly rated direct short-term instruments that mature in 60 days or less. We also place certain dollar limits on our investments in individual funds or instruments.

Operations during the first nine months of 2012 were funded by both internally and externally generated funds. Cash flow provided by operations was $3,348 million for the nine months ended October 27, 2012 compared with $2,975 million for the same period in 2011. In June 2012, we issued $1.5 billion of unsecured debt that matures in July 2042. This cash flow, combined with our prior year-end cash position, allowed us to pay current debt maturities, fund capital expenditures, pay dividends and continue purchases under our share repurchase program.

Our period-end credit card receivables, at par, were $5,836 million at October 27, 2012 compared with $6,144 million at October 29, 2011, a decrease of 5.0 percent. Average credit card receivables, at par, during the nine months ended October 27, 2012 decreased 5.3 percent compared with the nine months ended October 29, 2011. This change was driven by the factors indicated in the U.S. Credit Card Segment section above. As of October 27, 2012, $1,500 million of our credit card receivables portfolio was funded by third parties. During October 2012, we reached an agreement to sell our consumer credit card portfolio for an amount equal to the par value of the outstanding receivables at the time of closing. We expect to apply the proceeds from the sale in a manner that will preserve our strong investment-grade credit ratings. Specifically, we expect to apply approximately 90 percent of net transaction proceeds to reduce our net debt position, including repaying the 2006/2007 Series Variable Funding Certificate at par, with the remainder applied to our current share repurchase program over time.

During first quarter 2012, we completed the $10 billion share repurchase program authorized by our Board of Directors in November 2007, and we began repurchasing shares under the $5 billion program authorized by our Board of Directors in January 2012. During the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, we repurchased 1.7 million shares and 21.8 million shares, respectively, of our common stock for a total investment of $104 million ($62.90 per share) and $1,255 million ($57.53 per share), respectively. During the three and nine months ended October 29, 2011, we repurchased 4.5 million shares and 34.1 million shares, respectively, of our common stock for a total investment of $226 million ($50.45 per share) and $1,733 million ($50.76 per share), respectively.

We paid dividends totaling $236 million and $635 million for the three and nine months ended October 27, 2012, and $203 million and $549 million during the three and nine months ended October 29, 2011, an increase of 16.3 percent and 15.6 percent, respectively. We declared dividends totaling $236 million ($0.36 per share) in third quarter 2012, an increase of 17.0 percent over the $201 million ($0.30 per share) of declared dividends during the third quarter of 2011. We have paid dividends every quarter since our first dividend was declared following our 1967 initial public offering, and it is our intent to continue to do so in the future.

Our financing strategy is to ensure liquidity and access to capital markets, to manage our net exposure to floating interest rate volatility, and to maintain a balanced spectrum of debt maturities. Within these parameters, we seek to minimize our borrowing costs.

Our ability to access the long-term debt, commercial paper and securitized debt markets has provided us with ample sources of liquidity. Our continued access to these markets depends on multiple factors including the condition of debt capital markets, our operating performance and maintaining strong credit ratings. As of October 27, 2012 our credit ratings were as follows:

Credit Ratings	Moody s	Standard and Poor s	Fitch
Long-term debt	A2	A+	A-
Commercial paper	P-1	A-1	F2

If our credit ratings were lowered, our ability to access the debt markets, our cost of funds and other terms for new debt issuances could be adversely impacted. Each of the credit rating agencies reviews its rating periodically and there is no guarantee our current credit rating will remain the same as described above.

As a measure of our financial condition we monitor our interest coverage ratio, representing the ratio of pretax earnings before fixed charges to fixed charges. Fixed charges include interest expense and the interest portion of rent expense. Our interest coverage ratio was 5.7x for the first nine months of 2012, and 5.5x for the first nine months of 2011.

An additional source of liquidity is available to us through a committed $2.25 billion revolving credit facility obtained through a group of banks in October 2011, which was amended this quarter to extend the expiration date to October 2017. No balances were outstanding at any time during the third quarter of 2012 or the third quarter of 2011.

Most of our long-term debt obligations contain covenants related to secured debt levels. In addition to a secured debt level covenant, our credit facility also contains a debt leverage covenant. We are, and expect to remain, in compliance with these covenants. Additionally, at October 27, 2012, no notes or debentures contained provisions requiring acceleration of payment upon a debt rating downgrade, except that certain outstanding notes allow the note holders to put the notes to us if within a matter of months of each other we experience both (i) a change in control; and (ii) our long-term debt ratings are either reduced and the resulting rating is non-investment grade, or our long-term debt ratings are placed on watch for possible reduction and those ratings are subsequently reduced and the resulting rating is non-investment grade.

We believe our sources of liquidity will continue to be adequate to maintain operations, finance anticipated expansion and strategic initiatives, pay dividends and continue purchases under our share repurchase program for the foreseeable future, and we continue to anticipate ample access to commercial paper and long-term financing.

Contractual Obligations and Commitments

A summary of future obligations under our various contractual obligations and commitments as of January 28, 2012 was disclosed in our 2011 10-K. During the three months ended October 27, 2012, there were no material changes outside the ordinary course of business. However, we continually evaluate opportunities to expand our operations, including internal development of new products, programs and technology applications and acquisitions.

New Accounting Pronouncements

We do not expect that any recently issued accounting pronouncements will have a material effect on our financial statements.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains forward-looking statements, which are based on our current assumptions and expectations. These statements are typically accompanied by the words expect, may, could, believe, would, might, anticipates, or words of similar import. The principal forward-lost statements in this report include: For our U.S. Credit Card Segment, aggregate portfolio risks and the level of the allowance for doubtful accounts; for our Canadian Segment, our performance and timing of our entry into Canada; on a consolidated basis, statements regarding the adequacy of and costs associated with our sources of liquidity, the fair value of our consumer credit card receivables, the pending sale of these receivables and related gain, including beneficial interest, and the application of proceeds from the sale, the continued execution of our share repurchase program, the expected compliance with debt covenants, the expected impact of new accounting pronouncements, our intentions regarding future dividends, contributions related to our pension and postretirement health care plans, the adequacy of our reserves for claims and litigation, the expected outcome of claims and litigation, the expected ability to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities, including foreign net operating loss carryforwards, and the resolution of tax matters.

All such forward-looking statements are intended to enjoy the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended. Although we believe there is a reasonable basis for the forward-looking statements, our actual results could be materially different. The most important factors which could cause our actual results to differ from our forward-looking statements (i) are set forth on our description of risk factors in Item 1A of our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2012 and Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended July 28, 2012, which should be read in conjunction with the forward-looking statements in this report, and (ii) include the risk that the pending sale of the credit card receivables may not close or may not close on the expected timeline. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

There have been no material changes in our primary risk exposures or management of market risks from those disclosed in our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2012.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report, we conducted an evaluation, under supervision and with the participation of management, including the chief executive officer and chief financial officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act). Based upon that evaluation, our chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective. Disclosure controls and procedures are defined by Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act as controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC s rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports filed under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the third quarter of fiscal 2012 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

For a description of legal proceedings, see Note 6 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements included in Item 1, Financial Statements.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Other than as described in our Form 10-Q for the quarter ended July 28, 2012, there have been no material changes to the risk factors described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2012.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

The table below presents information with respect to Target common stock purchases made during the three months ended October 27, 2012, by Target or any affiliated purchaser of Target, as defined in Rule 10b-18(a)(3) under the Exchange Act.

In January 2012, our Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of $5 billion of our common stock. There is no stated expiration for the share repurchase program. Since the inception of this share repurchase program, we have repurchased 16.9 million shares of our common stock, for a total cash investment of $976 million ($57.89 average price per share).
