Table of Contents

4.1 Amendment to Vale's By-Laws.

To vote on this matter, the following documents are made available to the shareholders: the report in the form of table, detailing the origin and justification of the proposed amendments, including their possible legal and economic effects, as well as the draft By-Laws of Vale, highlighting the proposed text for each provision of the by-laws to be amended, as set forth in art. 11 of CVM Instruction 481/2009.

4.2 Proposal to convert the remaining class A preferred shares issued by the Company into common shares.

On 08.11.2017 the term to adhere to the voluntary conversion of class A preferred shares issued by Vale into common shares has expired (the Voluntary Conversion), one of the steps of the corporate restructuring approved in the Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting held on 06.27.2017, with the purpose of transforming Vale into a company without a defined controlling shareholder and of allowing its listing in B3's special listing segment, Novo Mercado.

As per the material fact notice disclosed on such date, 1,660,581,830 class A preferred shares (including preferred shares represented by preferred ADSs), corresponding to 84.4% of the outstanding preferred shares (excluding shares held in treasury), were delivered by its holders to be converted or exchanged, as the case may be.

The Company sought to identify the main reasons for the non-conversion of the residual portion of the class A preferred shares, having verified that the reasons for which a great number of shareholders kept preferred shares were (a) that they were passive investment funds that have the purpose of following reference index; (b) that they were natural persons that do not actively participate of the market and that, despite the Company's efforts to disseminate information regarding the conversion, did not learn of the process within the timeframe to request the conversion or that are unable to take such measures because of not knowing their condition as shareholders or due to restrictions of other natures; or (c) operational pitfalls that prevented their manifestation within the term for conversion.

Due to the significant conversion of class A preferred shares and in the Company's and its shareholders' best interest, the Company intends to anticipate the unification of the types of class A preferred shares and common shares into one single type, which would not only allow the complete alignment of all of the Company's shareholders but would also permit the anticipation of the adherence to B3's Novo Mercado, together with the clear and proven benefits resulting thereto.

Edgar Filing: Vale S.A. - Form 6-K

In order to allow the remaining shareholders of class A preferred shares to convert their shares, and, simultaneously, anticipate the effects of the migration of Vale to B3's Novo Mercado, the proposal for conversion of the remaining shares to be deliberated at the Meeting establishes that the conversion shall be carried out in the same ratio as the Voluntary Conversion, that is, 0.9342 common share for each class A preferred share (the Conversion of Remaining Shares).

Table of Contents

The approval of the Conversion of Remaining Shares requires the favorable vote of shareholders representing, at least, fifty percent (50%) of the voting shares.

The Conversion of Remaining Shares shall also be subject to the approval by holders of class A preferred shares in a Special Meeting.

In case of approval, the shareholders of preferred shares dissenting from the deliberation approving the Conversion of Remaining Shares shall have the right to withdraw from the Company, pursuant the provisions of art. 137 of Law 6,404/76, for the corresponding equity value of the shares. The withdrawal right shall be exercised within thirty (30) days as of the date of publication of the minutes of the Special Meeting that approves the Conversion of Remaining Shares.

Only dissenting shareholders that hold, uninterruptedly, title of their preferred shares from closing of the trading on 08.18.2017 until the date of the actual exercise of the right to withdraw shall have the withdrawal right. Shares purchased, including through lease of shares, as of 08.21.2017, including, shall not entitle their holders to the withdrawal right in connection with the Conversion of Remaining Shares.

As per art. 137, §3rd of Law 6,404/76, if the Conversion of Remaining Shares is approved, the management bodies may, within ten (10) days as of the end of the term for exercise of the withdrawal right, call a shareholders meeting to reconsider the deliberation due to the volume of exercised withdrawal.

Accordingly, the actual payment of the withdrawal amount, pursuant to art. 137, §3rd of Law 6,404/76, shall be subject and can only be requested after (a) the end of the 10-day term following the end of the term for exercising the withdrawal right, if management bodies do not exercise their right to call a shareholders meeting to ratify or reconsider the deliberation, or, (b) as the case may be, the ratification or reconsideration by the shareholders meeting to be duly called by the management bodies.

To vote on this subject, the shareholders are provided with the information required by Exhibits 17 and 20 of CVM Instruction 481/2009.

4.3. Election of independent members of the Board of Directors

In accordance with art. 11 of Vale's current By-Laws, the Board of Directors is comprised by twelve (12) principal members and their respective alternates, one of which shall be elected and removed, in separate voting, by the group of employees of the Company, pursuant to §5th of such article. The unified term of office of the members of the Board of Directors is of two (2) years, reelection being permitted. Therefore, the members of the Board of Directors to be elected to perform their duties until the Ordinary Shareholders Meeting of 2019 The election of the members of the Board of Directors shall observe the provisions of the applicable legislation and Vale's By-Laws.

Table of Contents

In the Ordinary Shareholders Meeting held on 04.20.2017 ten (10) principal members and their respective alternates were elected to the Board of Directors, all for a term of office ending on the 2019 s Ordinary Shareholders Meeting, one chair remaining empty for an principal member and his/her alternate.

In the Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting held on 06.27.2017, among other matters, the amendment to Vale s By-Laws was approved in order to have it adapted, to the extent possible, to B3 s Novo Mercado s rules, as well as to implement certain adjustments and improvements. Such amendments came into force on 08.14.2017.

Among the new provisions of the By-Laws are the increase of the number of Board Members from eleven (11) to twelve (12) principal members and same number of alternates, and the obligation that, at least, twenty percent (20%) of the elected directors (and respective alternates) be Independent Directors (as defined below), expressly declared as such in the General Shareholders Meeting that has elected them, being that members elected pursuant to the right established in §§2nd and 3rd of art. 11 of the By-Laws shall also be deemed as independent director.

Independent Director means a member of the board of directors that: (i) has no ties to the company, other than an equity interest; (ii) is not a Controlling Shareholder, spouse or close family member (to the second degree) of a Controlling Shareholder, and neither has, nor has had in the three (3) previous years, any ties to any company or entity related to a Controlling Shareholder (excluding persons with ties to public education or government research entities); (iii) in the three (3) previous years has not been an employee or officer of the company, or of the Controlling Shareholder or of a subsidiary of the company; (iv) is not a direct or indirect provider, supplier or buyer of goods and/or services, to an extent that would imply loss of independence; (v) is not an employee or senior manager of any company or entity that is offering or requesting services and/or products to and from the company to an extent that would imply loss of independence; (vi) is not a spouse or close family member (to the second degree) of any senior manager of the company; and (vii) is not entitled to any payment by the company other than the consideration earned as director (excluding cash distributions received in the capacity of an equity holder).

In order to be considered as an Independent Director, before the voting, the candidates shall present a justified statement confirming that they conform to the indecency criteria above.

Thus, currently there are two vacant positions of principal members and their alternates for Vale s Board of Directors, which shall be filled in the Meeting.

Pursuant to Law 6,404/76, non-controlling shareholders holding (i) common shares that represent, at least, 15% of the voting capital, and (ii) preferred shares without voting rights or restricted voting rights that represent, at least, 10% of the capital stock, are entitled to, in separate voting process elect one member of the Board of Directors and his/her respective alternate. Considering that, as a result of the Voluntary Conversion less than 6% of Vale's capital stock is represented by outstanding preferred shares, such shareholders will not, severally, be entitled to elect one member through the separate voting process pursuant to Law 6,404/76.

Nonetheless, if the holders of common shares do not reach the quorum of 15% of the total common shares issued by Vale, they shall be entitled to aggregate their shares with the shares held by shareholders of preferred shares to elect one member through the separate election process set forth in art. 141, §5th of Law 6,404/76, as long as these groups of shareholders represent, together, at least, 10% of the capital stock.

The exercise of the right to elect through the separate election process shall only be granted to shareholders that prove title of their shares for three (3) uninterrupted months, provided however, that the Company shall consider, for such purposes, the common shares resulting from the Voluntary Conversion as being held uninterruptedly by its holders.

If the shareholders elect one member of the Board of Directors through the separate election process, they will not be able to participate of the majority election process for the remaining position with the shares cast in the separate election process, such that voting twice with a share is avoided. Likewise, shares cast in the majority election process cannot be used in the separate election process.

The candidates appointed as principal and alternate members of the Board of Directors shall be elected in a majority election process in which only shareholders of common shares issued by Vale are entitled to vote, as per Vale's By-Laws. The two principal candidates that receive the higher number of votes in the Meeting shall be elected, together with their alternates, to comprise the Board of Directors, provided that, in case there is a separate voting, as per the paragraphs above, only one member and his/her respective alternate may be appointed in the majority election process.

Pursuant to the Press Release of 09.06.2017, the Company was informed by the shareholders signatories of Vale's Shareholders Agreement, executed on 08.14.2017, that such shareholders do not intend to appoint any member to the 2 vacant positions of the Board of Directors.

Attached hereto is the information of the appointed candidates for the vacant positions as principal and alternate members of the Board of Directors, in accordance to items 12.5 and 12.10 of the Reference Form, pursuant to Exhibit A of Instruction CVM n. 552/2014, by virtue of Circular Letter/CVM/SEP/N. 01/2017.

(A) Describe, in detail, the proposed alterations

The proposal involves the conversion of the remaining class A preferred shares into common shares issued by the Company in the ratio of 0.9342 common share for each class A preferred share (Conversion of Remaining Shares), in the same the conversion ratio of the voluntary conversion of class A preferred shares issued by Vale into common shares on 08.11.2017 (the Voluntary Conversion).

(B) Justify, in detail, the proposed alterations

On 08.11.2017 the term to adhere to the voluntary conversion of class A preferred shares issued by Vale into common shares has expired (the Voluntary Conversion), one of the steps of the corporate restructuring approved in the Extraordinary Shareholders Meeting held on 06.27.2017, with the purpose of transforming Vale into a company without a defined controlling shareholder and of allowing its listing in B3's special listing segment, Novo Mercado.

As per the material fact notice disclosed on such date, 1,660,581,830 preferred shares (including preferred shares represented by preferred ADSs), corresponding to 84.4% of the outstanding preferred shares (excluding shares held in treasury), were delivered by its holders to be converted or exchanged, as the case may be.

Upon conversion into common stock, current holders of class A preferred shares shall have the following rights: (i) right to vote for all matters submitted to the Shareholders Meeting; (ii) right to participate in the distribution of profits and earnings in equal conditions with the remaining holders of common shares; (iii) right to have their shares included in a potential public tender offer due to the sale of control of the Company whereby equal treatment as that given to the controlling shareholder shall be ensured, as provided for in article 47 of the By-Laws; and (iv) right to have their shares included in a potential public tender offer made by any shareholder that becomes a holder or that became a holder, for any reason, of shares issued by the Company representing twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the common shares issued by the Company, as provided for in article 51 of the By-Laws.

(D) Provide detailed analysis of the impact of the proposed alterations on the rights of holders of other types and classes of shares of the Company

The rights currently granted by the By-Laws to other types and classes of shares issued by Vale will remain in unchanged, therefore the conversion will not affect such rights.
