Goldfiel

includin g Goldfiel
d, with many publicat ions
over
the
years.
As one
of the
foundin
g
stocks
on the Americ
an Stock
Exchan
ge, it
deserve s more attention, and I've done my best to help it get some.

I entered into a dialogue with John Sottile about ten years ago, giving him my ideas on this subject. In 1992, I brought Goldfield to the attention of The Acker Letter, a publication founded by equity analyst Bob Acker; subsequently, he issued a long-term buy recommendation for Goldfield stock. While Mr. Sottile and I had

many
friendly conversations
years, I felt that
my recommendations to enhance shareholder
value
were
by and large
ignored

In November
2000, eRaider
contacted me.
It was immediately
apparent
eRaider
shared
my
view
that the
stock
could perform
much better
with more communication
from management.
In early 2001, I sponsored an asset
appraisal proposal. To summar

ize, the propos
al
asked manage ment to independently
apprais
e GV
assets
to determine whether
, for example,
real estate
holdings
may have a current market
value
higher
than their book value. If so, then
a report highlighting that
higher
market
value
encourage investment
and support
a higher
stock
price. If
that turned out not to be
case, I
still felt
that the
addition
information
could be very helpful

to
future
investor s and current
shareho
lders
and
be obtaine d at a reasona ble
cost.

John
Sottile
asked
me to withdra w the
shareho
lder
propos
al. On
same day, I
faxed
him a letter
offering
to
withdra
w the
propos
al in exchan ge for his conside ration
of eight
suggesti ons to maximiz
e the
price.
Mr.
Sottile
told me in a phone convers ation
that he would conside r some
of the

suggesti
ons. If you
read
my
letter,
you will see that some of
the
ideas
are fairly simple,
such as conduct ing
confere nce
calls
each quarter
using an 800
number
, and none of them
are
disrupti ve or divisive.
While
Mr.
Sottile
did not give a timetabl e or any specific promise s, I felt that in light of our decade
-long relation ship,
progres s would be
made.
Therefo
re, I withdre w my
propos
al on January
24.

Unfortu
nately,
to the best of my knowle dge,
Mr.
Sottile
has not implem ented
any of
ideas or followe d up on
them.
When I called
Mr.
Sottile
discuss
the
ideas
further,
he
would not discuss
specific
s or commit to a timetabl e for even investig ating
any of
recom
mendati
ons.
Based
on this complet e lack of
progres s, I decided
to accept
eRaider
's invitatio n to join the Shareh
older

Value Slate as a candida

the Board
Directo

In early
March,
Mr.
Sottile
and I spoke
on the
phone
and he offered
me a seat on
the Board
in
exchan ge for a two year standstil l arrange

with
eRaider
standstil
arrange ment
called
for
eRaider
cease
all of its activitie
s regardi ng Goldfiel
d. I thought
compro mise
was possibl e, but
on a
later
call

with Aaron
Brown,
Mr.
Sottile
raised
the bar
to a five
standstil
l. I
decline d the offer to serve
on the Board
under those conditio ns. I wrote a follow-
up letter in hopes
reconcil ing the two sides
and also to establis h a timetabl
e for
investig
ating
my previou s
propos
als. I have not yet
receive d a reply.

It is my belief that if
the
candida tes of
the Shareh
older
Value
Slate
are

elected
to the
of the Directo rs, we will be able to implem
ent
ideas
my own
and
those suggest ed by others
to help
boost
equity
value
for all
shareho
lders. I am not looking
to change
ment
nor do
I desire
to disrupt or change
day-today
operati ons.
willingn ess to
withdra
w my
shareho
lder
propos
al in
hopes
of a fruitful
discussi
on of
my
ideas
points
to my desire
to work
harmoni
ously

with
Mr.
Sottile.
But the
subseq uent
lack of follow
through from
Mr.
Sottile
has convinc ed me
that the only way to make progres s on maximiz
ing
shareho
lder
value is
by joining
the Board
and workin g
directly
with other
director
s.

I look forward
to offering
the Board
my expertis e in investor
relation s, tax
and
account
ing.
Like
Mr.
Sottile,
I am a
long-
term
shareho lder. I

only
one
goal,
workin g with manage
and
fellow
board
membe rs to raise
the
share
price.
experie nce tells me I can do
so most effectiv ely as a
director
. If
elected,
I will
serve
amicabl y with
other
membe rs to achieve
that
goal.
