PART II

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

The documents listed below are hereby incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement, and all documents subsequently filed by Coastal Caribbean Oils & Minerals, Ltd. "Coastal" pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14, and 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment which indicates that all securities offered have been sold or which deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference in the registration statement and to be part thereof from the date of the filing of such documents:

1. Coastal's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005;

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Coastal currently has 250,000,000 shares of authorized common stock, par value, $0.12 per share, of which 46,211,604 shares are currently issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

Bermuda law allows our Board of Directors to issue additional shares of stock up to the total amount of common stock authorized without obtaining the prior approval of shareholders. The number of authorized shares of common stock is greater than that which is issued in order to provide our Board of Directors with as much flexibility as possible to effect, among other things, financing, acquisitions, stock dividends, stock splits, and employee stock option transactions. The holders of common stock are entitled to elect the members of our Board of Directors, and such holders are entitled to vote as a class on all matters required or permitted to be submitted to our shareholders.

No holder of our common stock has preemptive rights with respect to the issuance of shares of that or any other class of stock, and the common stock is not entitled to cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of directors. Each share of common stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote on all matters, including the election of directors. The holders of common stock are entitled to dividends and other distributions if, as, and when declared by our board of directors out of assets legally available therefore. Upon our liquidation, dissolution, or winding up, the holder of each share of common stock would be entitled to share equally in the distribution of our assets. The holders of common stock are not entitled to the benefit of any sinking fund provision. Our shares of common stock are not subject to any redemption provisions, nor are they convertible into any other security or property. All shares of common stock outstanding are fully paid and non assessable.

Funds for the payment of dividends are expected to be obtained by us primarily from loan repayments and dividend payments made by Coastal Petroleum Company. There can be no assurance that we will have funds available for dividends, or if funds are available, that dividends will be declared by the board of directors. We do not expect to declare a dividend at any time in the foreseeable future.

Item 6. Indemnifications of Directors and Officers.

Paragraph 161 of Coastal's Bye-Laws contains the following provisions respecting indemnification:

161. (1) The Directors, Secretary and other officers and each person who is or was or had agreed to become a Director or officer of the Company, and each such person who is or was serving or who had agreed to serve at the request of the Board of Directors or an officer of the Company as an employee or agent of the Company or as a Director, officer, employee or agent of another company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise and every Auditor for the time being of the Company and the liquidator or trustees (if any) for the time being acting in relation to any of the affairs of the Company and everyone of them, and everyone of their heirs, executors, administrators and estates, shall be indemnified and secured harmless out of the assets and profits of the Company from and against all actions, costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which they or any of them, their or any of their heirs, executors, administrators or estates, shall or may incur or sustain by or by reason of any act done, concurred in or omitted in or about the execution of their duty, or supposed duty, in their respective offices or trusts; and none of them shall be answerable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of the other or others of them or for joining in any receipts for the sake of conformity, or for any bankers or other persons with whom any moneys or effects belonging to the Company shall or may be lodged or deposited for safe custody, or for insufficiency or deficiency of any security upon which any moneys of or belonging to the Company shall be placed out on or invested, or for any other loss, misfortune or damage which may happen in the execution of their respective offices or trusts, or in relation thereto; PROVIDED THAT this indemnity shall not extend to any matter in respect of any fraud or dishonesty which may attach to any of said persons. Subject to the provisions of the Act and without limiting the generality or the effect of the foregoing, the Company may enter into one or more agreements with any person which provide for indemnification greater or different than that provided in this Bye-Law. Any repeal or modification of this Bye-Law shall not adversely affect any right or protection existing hereunder immediately prior to such repeal or modification.

(2) Each Member and the Company agree to waive any claim or right of action he or it might have, whether individually or by or in the right of the Company, against any Director on account of any action taken by such Director, or the failure of such Director to take any action, in the performance of his duties, or supposed duties, with or for the Company; PROVIDED THAT such waiver shall not extend to any matter in respect of any fraud or dishonesty which may attach to such Director. Any repeal or modification of this Bye-Law shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a Director of the Company existing immediately prior to such repeal or modification.

Paragraph 161 (1) of the Company's Bye-Laws contains an indemnification provision in favor of the Company's Auditor. The Company has not indemnified the firm of Baumann, Raymondo & Company PA nor has such indemnification been sought by Baumann, Raymondo & Company PA under this provision of the Company's Bye-Laws. In addition, such indemnifications are deemed to be unenforceable under U.S. Securities laws. The Company will not provide the indemnification to Baumann, Raymondo & Company PA or any other accounting firm in the future.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted for our directors, officers, and employees under the above mentioned provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.
