Item 8.01. Other Events

Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. (the Company) today received a subpoena from the Connecticut Attorney General requesting information concerning possible violations by the Company of the Connecticut antitrust laws in connection with the solicitation of bids for insurance. The Company intends to cooperate fully.

The Company also stated today that it will not participate as a retail broker in volume-based or profit-based contingent commission agreements effective January 1, 2005. In addition, when allegations of bid rigging and price fixing recently came to light at Marsh, management retained independent counsel to perform an internal review. While the review is at an early stage, management has no knowledge that Gallagher has engaged in any improper practices.
