In response to certain requirements of the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, The Gap, Inc. (the Company) Nonemployee Director Deferred Compensation Plan (as amended and restated December 9, 2003) was suspended as of January 6, 2005 and terminated as of September 27, 2005, and the Company expects that its Executive Deferred Compensation Plan will be frozen for new contributions effective December 31, 2005.

On September 27, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company, acting on the recommendation of the Company's Compensation and Management Development Committee (the Compensation Committee), adopted the terms of a new deferred compensation plan to be offered to non-employee directors, executive officers and certain management employees of the Company and its affiliates (the Plan), effective with respect to compensation earned on or after January 1, 2006.

The Plan will provide eligible participants with the following rights, among others:

Eligible employees may voluntarily defer up to 75% of their eligible base-salary compensation and up to 90% of their eligible bonus for at least five years or until their retirement or other termination of employment;

Non-employee members of the Board of Directors may voluntarily defer up to 100% of their retainers and meeting fees for at least five years or until their termination of service with the Board;

Employee participants deferring compensation in excess of IRS limitations applicable to the GapShare 401(k) Plan shall receive a Company matching contribution in the Plan of up to 4% of eligible base-salary compensation deferred in the Plan;

Participants will direct the notional investment of deferred compensation, bonus and matching contributions in notional investments that are similar to the funds in the current GapShare 401(k) Plan, including a notional fund designed to replicate the performance of the Gap Stock Fund in the GapShare 401(k) Plan.

A copy of the Plan is expected to be filed as an Exhibit with the Company's third quarter Form 10-Q.
