Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 14, 2006, the Board of Directors (Board) of Stepan Company (Stepan) approved an amendment to the Directors Deferred Compensation Plan Restated as November 3, 1992 (First Amendment). The Compensation and Development Committee of the Board, which is composed entirely of independent directors, recommended that the Board approve the First Amendment. The First Amendment (i) allows the Board to amend the Subaccounts available under the Plan, (ii) deletes the restriction that a participating director shall not have more than two Subaccounts, (iii) increases the number of times the participating director is allowed to make investment changes to his respective Subaccounts, and (iv) adds a new section to allow for the non-elective grant to non-employee directors of an annual stock award of $15,000. A copy of the First Amendment is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
